

FOR RAY'S SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

—WEDDING BELLS— A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Rectory, Charlottetown, on the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Margarette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leung of Mill Pond was united in marriage to Arthur Leung, son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Smallman, Knutsford, Prince County. Rev. Mr. Raymond performed the ceremony. The young couple sailed for Quebec in the afternoon and will return to Charlottetown and upon their return a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Leung have the best wishes of a host of friends.—S

—STUDYING FOX FARMING— An interested visitor to the Province at the present time is Mr. Antoine Houben, of Ghent, Belgium, who is making a study of silver fox farming methods and incidentally gathering "copy" for a write-up on the Island and its people. Mr. Houben is expected with the firm of DeWatte, of Ghent and Brussels, and has written a number of successful articles. He is visiting the Great West and has been in the hands of the late Mr. J. J. Leung, who has been in military attaché for his country in Denmark and Austria.

—APPEAL ALLOWED— A written judgment was filed in the Supreme Court on Friday by Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault in the appeal case of the King, respondent, and Lester Black, appellant, against the appeal with costs and setting aside the conviction. This was an appeal from a conviction made under the Fraudulent Act by Judge J. T. Francis, J. P., in the Municipal Court for Queen's County, whereby the appellant was fined $200 and costs for three months in jail. J. A. MacLellan, K. C., for the appellant, and Hon. Thane A. Campbell, J. P., for the respondent.

Three entered into rest on Jan. 11, 1938, at his home in St. Charles, a much beloved and respected resident of that place in the person of Mr. Thomas J. Leung, widower of the late Thomas Leung, aged 69 years.

His family consists of the late Mrs. Mary Leung, his wife, and his children, Mary, Mary Ann, and Ruth Leung, all the following brothers and sisters: George, William, Daniel, and Mrs. Daniel Taylor, nine Mile Creek, Mrs. Samuel McNeill, nine Mile Creek, who tenderly cared for her sister during her last illness, and Mrs. Ganet Campbell, Rocky Point.

The funeral which was largely attended took place from her late residence on Jan. 13th. The services at the residence were conducted by Rev. E. R. Woodside, who visited her during her illness, assisted by Rev. E. G. Manzer. The hymns were "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer." The Rev. Mr. W. R. Shaw.

The pall bearers were as follows: Frederick W. Thomas, Thomas Leung, William MacEwen, Colin MacPhail, Hector Darrach and Neil MacKenzie.

The 52nd anniversary of the opening of the work of the Salvation Army here in Charlottetown was observed by the local Salvation Army Corps.

During the afternoon a meeting presided over by Rev. E. R. Woodside was held. A message was read from Commissioner Carpenter, head of the Salvation Army in Canada, and the Rev. Mr. Woodside introduced Deputy Mayor Holman to the large audience.

Mr. Holman paid tribute to the work carried on by the Army both locally and nationally. He introduced the Rev. Mr. Woodside, Commandant Hargrave of Fredericton, N. B.

The Commandant spoke of the work of the Army in the past and mentioned showing the work of love carried on by the Army. The message was very interesting to all. The Rev. Mr. Woodside moved a vote of thanks for the splendid address. This was seconded by the Rev. J. M. MacLeod. Mr. Holman conveyed his thanks to all the Commandants, Hargrave, Adjutant Lynch and the Band in a very well rendered item.

Mr. MacLeod brought the meeting to a close with the Benediction.

There passed away at his home in Trvon on Saturday morning, Frederick Holland, one of the most prosperous farmers of that district, and a direct descendant of Major Samuel Holland, a member of the 1st Battalion of the 48th Highlanders, who formed a part, and whose name is closely associated with the earliest history of Prince Edward Island. Major Holland was appointed in 1763 by King George the third to survey the site of the city of Charlottetown, and was appointed surveyor general of Quebec and director of surveys for British North America. At the age of 60 he was appointed to survey the site of the city of Charlottetown, and was appointed surveyor general of Quebec and director of surveys for British North America. At the age of 60 he was appointed to survey the site of the city of Charlottetown, and was appointed surveyor general of Quebec and director of surveys for British North America.

Mr. Samuel E. Holland was born in Trvon 70 years ago. His father was Frederick Holland, a member of the 1st Battalion of the 48th Highlanders, who formed a part, and whose name is closely associated with the earliest history of Prince Edward Island. Major Holland was appointed in 1763 by King George the third to survey the site of the city of Charlottetown, and was appointed surveyor general of Quebec and director of surveys for British North America. At the age of 60 he was appointed to survey the site of the city of Charlottetown, and was appointed surveyor general of Quebec and director of surveys for British North America.

Mr. Holland was a man of great energy and initiative. He was a pioneer in the development of the Charlottetown area, and his name is closely associated with the early history of the city. He was a man of great energy and initiative. He was a pioneer in the development of the Charlottetown area, and his name is closely associated with the early history of the city. He was a man of great energy and initiative. He was a pioneer in the development of the Charlottetown area, and his name is closely associated with the early history of the city.

Mr. Holland was a man of great energy and initiative. He was a pioneer in the development of the Charlottetown area, and his name is closely associated with the early history of the city. He was a man of great energy and initiative. He was a pioneer in the development of the Charlottetown area, and his name is closely associated with the early history of the city. He was a man of great energy and initiative. He was a pioneer in the development of the Charlottetown area, and his name is closely associated with the early history of the city.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. C. N. R. have just created an incident in Moncton, N. B., which escaped serious injury while cutting lumber in the woods. A large tree which he was cutting down suddenly broke and fell on him. His companions came to the rescue and with some difficulty lifted the tree from him. Although badly bruised and shaken, no bones were broken and he is now able to be about as usual.—S

—VISITING IN MONCTON—

Miss Ethel Strong, Summerside, is visiting in Moncton, N. B., the wife of Mrs. C. W. Redmond. Mr. and Mrs. Redmond have recently returned from Toronto where Miss Redmond underwent a major operation. Her many friends in Summerside will be glad to know that she is making a good recovery.

—RETURNS FROM WEST—

Mrs. Sidney MacLellan of Moncton spent the past four months visiting in Regina and Winnipeg. While in Toronto en route, she spent a few days with her brother, Mr. G. W. Poole of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and had the pleasure of witnessing the game between the Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks.

—MAGDALEN ISLANDS FLIGHT—

Two passengers and 600 pounds of mail were carried on the Magdalen Islands flight yesterday. Pilot H. S. Jones was in attendance and sang the hymns of the service and Mr. J. B. Lewis sang a solo. The mail consisted of letters, newspapers, and a few packages. The flight was successful and the passengers returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—L. O. F. A. VALENTINE PARTY—

The home of Mrs. Mary MacLellan, 140 St. John's Street, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on Monday evening, Feb. 14th, when fourteen members of the L. O. F. A. and their guests were entertained. The table was appropriately decorated for the occasion and after doing full justice to the excellent refreshments, the general hostess the guests presented Mrs. MacLellan with a suitable Valentine. A fortune telling cake and games followed much merriment and at a late hour the guests departed thanking their hostess for a very happy evening.

—SEEK MISSING BOY—

Royal Canadian Mounted Police yesterday received from Mrs. Percy Thomas of Amherst, Nova Scotia, a report that a boy named Lloyd Davis, 17, missing from his home since February 9th. His description was given as a red head, fair complexion, fair hair, thin face, slim build, hazel colored eyes. He was wearing dark colored overalls with green stripes, run rubber boots with leather tops, leather coat, black leather cap and jean colored sweater with letters, W. R. Y.

—CHURCH TEA HELD—

A very successful tea was held at the home of Mrs. A. C. MacKay, Monday afternoon, on Thursday evening in aid of the Kings County Hospital. Mrs. L. B. Mellich and Mrs. A. Hume met the guests in the dining room. Mrs. Louis McDonald and Mrs. W. H. MacLellan presided while Mrs. D. MacLellan, Mrs. H. Nelson, Mrs. J. P. Beer, Mrs. J. Murdoch served. Others assisting were Mrs. W. R. Shaw, Mrs. MacLellan, and Mrs. J. Poole. The guests were delightfully entertained with violin selections by Mr. Arthur MacLellan. A number of men dropped in and had tea and seemed to enjoy the pleasant occasion. The tea was a success and realized for this worthy cause.

—WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Poole of Lower Montague were pleasantly surprised on Thursday night when a number of friends and neighbors assembled at their home to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding with them. Mr. Poole presided at the address and Mrs. Wallace Aiken, on behalf of their friends, presented Mrs. Poole with a hymnary and Mr. Poole with a auto-copier. Mrs. Poole although taken by surprise thanked the donors very warmly for their thoughtful gifts and beautiful gifts. Those present were Mr. Elmer Farnell and Mr. Robert MacKay of Amherst, so music was provided by the band. Mr. and Mrs. Poole both were members of the choir for many years. All the old favorites were sung and the evening was a very happy one.

—THE COMMUNITY OF NORTH RIVER

was greatly saddened when she learned of the passing of one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens in the person of Mrs. Robert Vickerson. Although in failing health for some time she was able to be up and around every day until Wednesday evening, Jan. 19th, when she was stricken with pneumonia and kind nursing could do so to avail. Her spirit passed to the Great Beyond a week later. Mrs. Vickerson was of a very kind and cheerful disposition. She leaves to mourn her loss two sons and three made her name, Carrie, Mrs. Max Ostrom, Summerville, Mass., Mrs. John B. Coles, Dilke, Sask; Grace, Mrs. Albert Yeo, North River. The funeral service was held at the home of her son Stafford Vickerson and was very largely attended. The Rev. Mr. Woodside officiating. The pallbearers were Messrs. Bert Younker, William Molyneux, James Stuart, Lemuel MacLellan, and James Stewart. The remains were laid in the family plot in the English Church cemetery at Milton.

BELL AT YORK CROSSING

The C. N. R. have just created an incident in Moncton, N. B., which escaped serious injury while cutting lumber in the woods. A large tree which he was cutting down suddenly broke and fell on him. His companions came to the rescue and with some difficulty lifted the tree from him. Although badly bruised and shaken, no bones were broken and he is now able to be about as usual.—S

RUSHED TO BEDSIDE OF FATHER

A Canadian Airways passenger made a heroic dash to the bedside of his father, who was suffering from a heart attack, during a flight from Charlottetown to St. John's. The passenger, Mr. J. D. Taylor, was the only one on board who was able to reach his father's bedside in time. The flight was successful and the passenger returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—SERIOUS LOSS—

Mr. Ira MacLaren, Brudenell, met with a heavy loss when three of his best cattle, which strayed on to the railway track, were killed by the train.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Maxime B. Gaiant of Summerside, in the death of their young son, Albert, who died at the age of five years, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon. It is particularly sad that a brother and sister are also patients in the Prince County Hospital. Two others are at home. Albert was a bright little lad and will be much missed in the home and at school.

—ISLAND NATIVE DIES IN SEATTLE—

Mr. E. T. Higgs returned to Seattle on Wednesday night from a trip to Boston where he engaged in the building business for 20 years ago he moved to Seattle with his family where he continued his business until forced to retire by ill health. Mr. Higgs was a native of Charlottetown and was a member of the Charlottetown M. E. Church. He is survived by a wife and three children.

—LIFE UNDERWRITERS ASSOCIATION—

The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. I. held its 22nd annual meeting at the Hotel Grand Hotel on Tuesday Feb. 22nd with the president Milton Stewart in the chair. The following committees were appointed: Publicity—H. Pletch, R. Hyndman, E. C. Johnston. Legislation—R. McInnis, F. W. Hynes, W. B. Bentley, J. E. Cameron, F. C. Ritchey. This was the largest meeting held for some time and was held for the purpose of increasing membership and making this the most successful year in the history of the association.

—BUSY DAY FOR AIRWAYS—

Yesterday was a busy day at the Airport. A charter flight was made to Alberton with Dr. J. P. Lantz and Major O. Campbell, who were on business in connection with the building of the new hospital. The flight was successful and the passengers returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—

The funeral of Samuel E. Holland was held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence at Trvon to St. Charles Church, Seven Mile Reunion High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Woodside. The pallbearers were Mr. Elmer Farnell, Mr. Robert MacKay, Mr. J. Murdoch, Mr. W. R. Shaw, and Mr. J. Poole. The remains were laid in the family plot in the English Church cemetery at Milton.

—CELEBRATES HER EIGHTY-SIXTH BIRTHDAY—

On Feb. 25th, Mrs. Mary I. Bears, widow of the late Mr. George Bears of Brookline, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday. She has been a resident of Charlottetown for many years. Her husband died in 1910. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. I. Bears and Mr. W. J. Bears, and two daughters, Mrs. E. I. and Mrs. W. J. Morse of Aileboro, Mass. She was the kind people of R. R. No. 1 route in behalf of himself and his wife. Following the gentlemen bunched Mr. McRay, and to reside in the United States although of Canadian birth and direct descendants of the United Empire Loyalists. She was a member of the Church of St. John, and was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society.

—RUSHED TO BEDSIDE OF FATHER—

A Canadian Airways passenger made a heroic dash to the bedside of his father, who was suffering from a heart attack, during a flight from Charlottetown to St. John's. The passenger, Mr. J. D. Taylor, was the only one on board who was able to reach his father's bedside in time. The flight was successful and the passenger returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—SERIOUS LOSS—

Mr. Ira MacLaren, Brudenell, met with a heavy loss when three of his best cattle, which strayed on to the railway track, were killed by the train.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Maxime B. Gaiant of Summerside, in the death of their young son, Albert, who died at the age of five years, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon. It is particularly sad that a brother and sister are also patients in the Prince County Hospital. Two others are at home. Albert was a bright little lad and will be much missed in the home and at school.

—ISLAND NATIVE DIES IN SEATTLE—

Mr. E. T. Higgs returned to Seattle on Wednesday night from a trip to Boston where he engaged in the building business for 20 years ago he moved to Seattle with his family where he continued his business until forced to retire by ill health. Mr. Higgs was a native of Charlottetown and was a member of the Charlottetown M. E. Church. He is survived by a wife and three children.

—LIFE UNDERWRITERS ASSOCIATION—

The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. I. held its 22nd annual meeting at the Hotel Grand Hotel on Tuesday Feb. 22nd with the president Milton Stewart in the chair. The following committees were appointed: Publicity—H. Pletch, R. Hyndman, E. C. Johnston. Legislation—R. McInnis, F. W. Hynes, W. B. Bentley, J. E. Cameron, F. C. Ritchey. This was the largest meeting held for some time and was held for the purpose of increasing membership and making this the most successful year in the history of the association.

—BUSY DAY FOR AIRWAYS—

Yesterday was a busy day at the Airport. A charter flight was made to Alberton with Dr. J. P. Lantz and Major O. Campbell, who were on business in connection with the building of the new hospital. The flight was successful and the passengers returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—

The funeral of Samuel E. Holland was held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence at Trvon to St. Charles Church, Seven Mile Reunion High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Woodside. The pallbearers were Mr. Elmer Farnell, Mr. Robert MacKay, Mr. J. Murdoch, Mr. W. R. Shaw, and Mr. J. Poole. The remains were laid in the family plot in the English Church cemetery at Milton.

—CELEBRATES HER EIGHTY-SIXTH BIRTHDAY—

On Feb. 25th, Mrs. Mary I. Bears, widow of the late Mr. George Bears of Brookline, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday. She has been a resident of Charlottetown for many years. Her husband died in 1910. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. I. Bears and Mr. W. J. Bears, and two daughters, Mrs. E. I. and Mrs. W. J. Morse of Aileboro, Mass. She was the kind people of R. R. No. 1 route in behalf of himself and his wife. Following the gentlemen bunched Mr. McRay, and to reside in the United States although of Canadian birth and direct descendants of the United Empire Loyalists. She was a member of the Church of St. John, and was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society.

—RUSHED TO BEDSIDE OF FATHER—

A Canadian Airways passenger made a heroic dash to the bedside of his father, who was suffering from a heart attack, during a flight from Charlottetown to St. John's. The passenger, Mr. J. D. Taylor, was the only one on board who was able to reach his father's bedside in time. The flight was successful and the passenger returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—SERIOUS LOSS—

Mr. Ira MacLaren, Brudenell, met with a heavy loss when three of his best cattle, which strayed on to the railway track, were killed by the train.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Maxime B. Gaiant of Summerside, in the death of their young son, Albert, who died at the age of five years, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon. It is particularly sad that a brother and sister are also patients in the Prince County Hospital. Two others are at home. Albert was a bright little lad and will be much missed in the home and at school.

—ISLAND NATIVE DIES IN SEATTLE—

Mr. E. T. Higgs returned to Seattle on Wednesday night from a trip to Boston where he engaged in the building business for 20 years ago he moved to Seattle with his family where he continued his business until forced to retire by ill health. Mr. Higgs was a native of Charlottetown and was a member of the Charlottetown M. E. Church. He is survived by a wife and three children.

—LIFE UNDERWRITERS ASSOCIATION—

The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. I. held its 22nd annual meeting at the Hotel Grand Hotel on Tuesday Feb. 22nd with the president Milton Stewart in the chair. The following committees were appointed: Publicity—H. Pletch, R. Hyndman, E. C. Johnston. Legislation—R. McInnis, F. W. Hynes, W. B. Bentley, J. E. Cameron, F. C. Ritchey. This was the largest meeting held for some time and was held for the purpose of increasing membership and making this the most successful year in the history of the association.

—BUSY DAY FOR AIRWAYS—

Yesterday was a busy day at the Airport. A charter flight was made to Alberton with Dr. J. P. Lantz and Major O. Campbell, who were on business in connection with the building of the new hospital. The flight was successful and the passengers returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—

The funeral of Samuel E. Holland was held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence at Trvon to St. Charles Church, Seven Mile Reunion High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Woodside. The pallbearers were Mr. Elmer Farnell, Mr. Robert MacKay, Mr. J. Murdoch, Mr. W. R. Shaw, and Mr. J. Poole. The remains were laid in the family plot in the English Church cemetery at Milton.

—CELEBRATES HER EIGHTY-SIXTH BIRTHDAY—

On Feb. 25th, Mrs. Mary I. Bears, widow of the late Mr. George Bears of Brookline, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday. She has been a resident of Charlottetown for many years. Her husband died in 1910. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. I. Bears and Mr. W. J. Bears, and two daughters, Mrs. E. I. and Mrs. W. J. Morse of Aileboro, Mass. She was the kind people of R. R. No. 1 route in behalf of himself and his wife. Following the gentlemen bunched Mr. McRay, and to reside in the United States although of Canadian birth and direct descendants of the United Empire Loyalists. She was a member of the Church of St. John, and was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society.

—RUSHED TO BEDSIDE OF FATHER—

A Canadian Airways passenger made a heroic dash to the bedside of his father, who was suffering from a heart attack, during a flight from Charlottetown to St. John's. The passenger, Mr. J. D. Taylor, was the only one on board who was able to reach his father's bedside in time. The flight was successful and the passenger returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—SERIOUS LOSS—

Mr. Ira MacLaren, Brudenell, met with a heavy loss when three of his best cattle, which strayed on to the railway track, were killed by the train.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Maxime B. Gaiant of Summerside, in the death of their young son, Albert, who died at the age of five years, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon. It is particularly sad that a brother and sister are also patients in the Prince County Hospital. Two others are at home. Albert was a bright little lad and will be much missed in the home and at school.

—ISLAND NATIVE DIES IN SEATTLE—

Mr. E. T. Higgs returned to Seattle on Wednesday night from a trip to Boston where he engaged in the building business for 20 years ago he moved to Seattle with his family where he continued his business until forced to retire by ill health. Mr. Higgs was a native of Charlottetown and was a member of the Charlottetown M. E. Church. He is survived by a wife and three children.

—LIFE UNDERWRITERS ASSOCIATION—

The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. I. held its 22nd annual meeting at the Hotel Grand Hotel on Tuesday Feb. 22nd with the president Milton Stewart in the chair. The following committees were appointed: Publicity—H. Pletch, R. Hyndman, E. C. Johnston. Legislation—R. McInnis, F. W. Hynes, W. B. Bentley, J. E. Cameron, F. C. Ritchey. This was the largest meeting held for some time and was held for the purpose of increasing membership and making this the most successful year in the history of the association.

—BUSY DAY FOR AIRWAYS—

Yesterday was a busy day at the Airport. A charter flight was made to Alberton with Dr. J. P. Lantz and Major O. Campbell, who were on business in connection with the building of the new hospital. The flight was successful and the passengers returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—

The funeral of Samuel E. Holland was held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence at Trvon to St. Charles Church, Seven Mile Reunion High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Woodside. The pallbearers were Mr. Elmer Farnell, Mr. Robert MacKay, Mr. J. Murdoch, Mr. W. R. Shaw, and Mr. J. Poole. The remains were laid in the family plot in the English Church cemetery at Milton.

—CELEBRATES HER EIGHTY-SIXTH BIRTHDAY—

On Feb. 25th, Mrs. Mary I. Bears, widow of the late Mr. George Bears of Brookline, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday. She has been a resident of Charlottetown for many years. Her husband died in 1910. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. I. Bears and Mr. W. J. Bears, and two daughters, Mrs. E. I. and Mrs. W. J. Morse of Aileboro, Mass. She was the kind people of R. R. No. 1 route in behalf of himself and his wife. Following the gentlemen bunched Mr. McRay, and to reside in the United States although of Canadian birth and direct descendants of the United Empire Loyalists. She was a member of the Church of St. John, and was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society.

—RUSHED TO BEDSIDE OF FATHER—

A Canadian Airways passenger made a heroic dash to the bedside of his father, who was suffering from a heart attack, during a flight from Charlottetown to St. John's. The passenger, Mr. J. D. Taylor, was the only one on board who was able to reach his father's bedside in time. The flight was successful and the passenger returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—SERIOUS LOSS—

Mr. Ira MacLaren, Brudenell, met with a heavy loss when three of his best cattle, which strayed on to the railway track, were killed by the train.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Maxime B. Gaiant of Summerside, in the death of their young son, Albert, who died at the age of five years, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon. It is particularly sad that a brother and sister are also patients in the Prince County Hospital. Two others are at home. Albert was a bright little lad and will be much missed in the home and at school.

—ISLAND NATIVE DIES IN SEATTLE—

Mr. E. T. Higgs returned to Seattle on Wednesday night from a trip to Boston where he engaged in the building business for 20 years ago he moved to Seattle with his family where he continued his business until forced to retire by ill health. Mr. Higgs was a native of Charlottetown and was a member of the Charlottetown M. E. Church. He is survived by a wife and three children.

—LIFE UNDERWRITERS ASSOCIATION—

The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. I. held its 22nd annual meeting at the Hotel Grand Hotel on Tuesday Feb. 22nd with the president Milton Stewart in the chair. The following committees were appointed: Publicity—H. Pletch, R. Hyndman, E. C. Johnston. Legislation—R. McInnis, F. W. Hynes, W. B. Bentley, J. E. Cameron, F. C. Ritchey. This was the largest meeting held for some time and was held for the purpose of increasing membership and making this the most successful year in the history of the association.

—BUSY DAY FOR AIRWAYS—

Yesterday was a busy day at the Airport. A charter flight was made to Alberton with Dr. J. P. Lantz and Major O. Campbell, who were on business in connection with the building of the new hospital. The flight was successful and the passengers returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—

The funeral of Samuel E. Holland was held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence at Trvon to St. Charles Church, Seven Mile Reunion High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Woodside. The pallbearers were Mr. Elmer Farnell, Mr. Robert MacKay, Mr. J. Murdoch, Mr. W. R. Shaw, and Mr. J. Poole. The remains were laid in the family plot in the English Church cemetery at Milton.

—CELEBRATES HER EIGHTY-SIXTH BIRTHDAY—

On Feb. 25th, Mrs. Mary I. Bears, widow of the late Mr. George Bears of Brookline, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday. She has been a resident of Charlottetown for many years. Her husband died in 1910. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. I. Bears and Mr. W. J. Bears, and two daughters, Mrs. E. I. and Mrs. W. J. Morse of Aileboro, Mass. She was the kind people of R. R. No. 1 route in behalf of himself and his wife. Following the gentlemen bunched Mr. McRay, and to reside in the United States although of Canadian birth and direct descendants of the United Empire Loyalists. She was a member of the Church of St. John, and was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society.

—RUSHED TO BEDSIDE OF FATHER—

A Canadian Airways passenger made a heroic dash to the bedside of his father, who was suffering from a heart attack, during a flight from Charlottetown to St. John's. The passenger, Mr. J. D. Taylor, was the only one on board who was able to reach his father's bedside in time. The flight was successful and the passenger returned to Charlottetown in the afternoon.

—SERIOUS LOSS—

Mr. Ira MacLaren, Brudenell, met with a heavy loss when three of his best cattle, which strayed on to the railway track, were killed by the train.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Maxime B. Gaiant of Summerside, in the death of their young son, Albert, who died at the age of five years, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon. It is particularly sad that a brother and sister are also patients in the Prince County Hospital. Two others are at home. Albert was a bright little lad and will be much missed in the home and at school.

—ISLAND NATIVE DIES IN SEATTLE—

Mr. E. T. Higgs returned to Seattle on Wednesday night from a trip to Boston where he engaged in the building business for 20 years ago he moved to Seattle with his family where he continued his business until forced to retire by ill health. Mr. Higgs was a native of Charlottetown and was a member of the Charlottetown M. E. Church. He is survived by a wife and three children.

—LIFE UNDERWRITERS ASSOCIATION—