KLONDIKE BAR Important Announcement GREAT INTEREST TO FARMERS.

THE management of the Charlottetown Soap Works, announce to the farmers of Prince Edward Island, that they have purchased at a very low figure for a term of years all the grease by-product of the Charlottetown Pork Packing Factory, accumulating from time to time, and are in a position to supply farmers and others with a cheap soap far superior in quality to the home-made article, and at a price so low as to make it scarcely worth while to worry about soap supplies hereafter.

DR. CHASE VISITING THE SICK.

Raised from a Bed of Sickness.

Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure and Kidney-Liver Pills Combined for Perfect Health—An Interesting Cure After Long Suffering.

Simcoe, Jan. 18th, 1897. Messrs. Edmanson, Bates, and Co., Toronto, Ont. —

Gentlemen,—For over five months I was confined to my bed, not being able to move. The best medical skill was called in, all treating me for catarrh of the stomach, but to no avail. I could not eat the most simple food without being in dreadful misery, and found no relief until some was vomited up. After spending a large sum in medical advice, I was advised to try a box of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. I said it was no use, for I considered mine a hopeless case from which I could not recover. At length I purchased a box from J. Austin and Company, Simcoe, and to my surprise found great relief. Not being able to eat, I tried a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills; the pills left me the third day. My appetite has been fully restored. I consider myself perfectly cured, and feel as well as when a young man, although I am 55 years old at present. I was almost a shadow, now I am as fleshy as a baby. I have used only three boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and only two boxes of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. I can do my house work as usual. I am positive that my marvellous cure (which I think it is) is due purely to Dr. Chase's remedies, which I have used. I can honestly recommend the same to any persons suffering from symptoms similar to mine. Wishing you every success.

Yours, truly, MRS ANN CHURCHILL.

CHAMBERLAIN DEFINES BRITISH POLICY

LONDON, November, 17.—Joseph Chamberlain, who was the guest of the conservative club in this city last evening, in replying to a toast to his health, spoke at length on colonial matters. He said that most all international troubles of recent years had arisen from the competition of nations for the undeveloped territory on the world's surface in the possession of barbarous tribes or decaying nations. He dwelt upon these vast tracts as "outlets for the teeming populations and trade of civilized nations." Mr. Chamberlain predicted an "immense future" for Rhodesia and Great Britain's other acquisitions in Africa, even the gold coast and Lagos when medical science shall have succeeded in overcoming malarial diseases.

GOVERNMENT'S CHINESE POLICY.

He warmly defended the Government's Chinese policy, contending that Great Britain had "good reason to be satisfied with the results obtained as compared with other powers."

Regarding the contention that Great Britain ought to have an agreement with Russia, he said:

"Experience has taught us that we require a better guarantee than a paper agreement to secure the policy of an open door. The best security in my opinion is the desire of other nations, like Japan, Germany and the United States, to preserve the open door. Japan is becoming an important power with whom our relations throughout have been those of cordial friendship, while with Germany and the United States, I rejoice to say, they are now closer and more cordial than they have been for some time."

"Germany and the United States are two great commercial nations whose interests are identical with our own. In what I have said I have not meant a permanent form of treaty of alliance, nor need I say this now, but that a speech of mine some months ago gave rise to misinterpretations. Great Britain needs no help. Those persons are very premature who think that Great Britain is in need of an alliance for her own security, or in order that other powers may pull chestnuts out of the fire."

This was received with loud and prolonged cheers, which greeted every reference to the United States.

In an eloquent peroration Mr. Chamberlain developed this theme, declaring that England ever needed an alliance she would give as much as she received, but that she would never need more aid in his opinion than would be cheerfully afforded by her own children. He scorned the idea that England should fear German competition, as he believed, he said, that Anglo-Saxon co-operation and influence would prove irresistible, and that there was no reason why, even without an alliance, Great Britain's friendly relations with Germany should be strained.

ANGLO-AMERICAN UNION.

"I rejoice," he said in conclusion, "at the change that has occurred in the relations between Great Britain and the United States. To us they stand in a relation different from that occupied by any other people. I know a hundred reasons why we should be friends, none why we should be otherwise, and I believe that it has been the true feeling of this country towards the United States for many years. All misunderstandings have been happily removed, and the union of the two English-speaking nations would fear no other alliances."

"Our imagination must be fired when we contemplate the possibility of such a cordial understanding between the seventy million people of the United States and our fifty million Britons, an understanding which would guarantee peace and civilization to the world. We welcome the United States in their new career as a colonization nation, because we know they are animated by the same motives and aspirations, employ the same methods and love justice as ourselves. And such a new departure will, doubtless, as Lord Salisbury has said, serve our interests, not in any selfish or mercenary sense, but because it will give each a better understanding of the other's work, increase our sympathies, bring us closer together, and make easy and inevitable that most desired co-operation."

DO YOU BROOD?

Melancholia is a Grave Disease and Leads to Insanity.

A Broken Down Nervous System is the Cause of Trouble.

Paine's Celery Compound Nature's Nerve Bracer and Health Restorer.

Do you brood from day to day and make life a continued misery for yourself and family? If you are a victim of melancholia, understand at once you are suffering from a terrible grave disease—a trouble that induces suicide and homicide.

One of the most celebrated physicians of the day says that there are several forms of melancholia: a simple melancholia, melancholia agitata, melancholia attonita, and melancholia with stupor. The first two are the most difficult of recognition and are the forms that especially endanger the lives of victims and their friends.

Some of the first and most important symptoms of melancholia are sleeplessness, depression of spirits, show mental movements, terrifying hallucinations and a tendency to self-harm. The whole nerve system is soon in a most alarming condition, the mind becomes affected, and even insanity may show its hideous form.

Experience has proved that the ordinary medical treatment of melancholia fails in nine cases out of every ten.

Simply because the root of the disease is not reached. Hundreds of cases of melancholia in all stages that have baffled the best medical men have been successfully cured by nature's nerve medicine—Paine's Celery Compound. This marvellous medical prescription does its work directly on the nerves. It tones, strengthens and braces up the entire nervous organization, and, as a consequence, the tissues and muscles are built up, and pure life-giving blood is freely supplied to every part of the body.

Reader, this should be an all-important subject to you if you are sleepless, despondent, languid, out-of-sort, oppressed in mind and mental faculties impaired. Your path of duty is clear. Terrible dangers are ahead if you fail the first symptoms. Your present and future happiness and health depend wholly upon your choice of medicine. The use of Paine's Celery Compound at this time means new life, health, vigor, activity, free-mental powers and a length of happy years.
