

BRONCHIAL COUGHS

result from inflammation of the delicate bronchial tubes which clog with mucus—pneumonia easily follows.

SCOTT'S EMULSION works wonders in overcoming acute bronchitis; it stops the cough, checks the inflammation, and its curative, strengthening food-value distributes energy and power throughout the body.

—TRYON.—Last Sunday afternoon a large number of people gathered to show a last token of respect for the late Miss Katie McPhee and sympathy with her parents in the loss of so promising and dearly beloved daughter. The ordinary church service was made the occasion of solemn obsequies: The remains of the departed were borne from the home and placed in front of the dais of the church. Suitable hymns were sung and the pastor Rev. Arthur Hurn preached from Rev. 19:9; "Blessed are they that are called unto the marriage supper of the lamb." He said the reference was not to a Gospel Feast but to a Heavenly Feast. There would be at that feast: I—Reviewing of friendships, even as J. H. Newman expressed it "And with the morn those angel faces smile, which I have loved long since but lost awhile." II—The recounting of experiences. It is now possible for us to make that heavenly experience very sweet. III—Toasts of honor and good will to the Provider. We shall then sing with new zest—"All hail the power of Jesus' name." IV—The general joy free from depression and weariness. Miss McPhee had reached her 23rd year. She was of a loving and gentle disposition and gave promise of a very useful and prosperous future. Much sympathy is felt for her parents and relatives. She was laid to rest in the Tryon Cemetery.—Com.

—DEATH OF MRS. ELLIS.—On the morning of the 26th Feb. the residents of Springfield, Lot 7, were sadly surprised to hear of the very sudden demise of Mrs. Nell Ellis, in the eighty-second year of her age. Deceased was unusually bright and cheerful the day previous to her passing, having spent the afternoon in pleasant conversation with her grandchildren who always seemed delighted to go into her room and chat with her, but, at 10 o'clock she took a severe pain which resulted in death at 7.30 a.m. despite all that skill, kind care and nursing could do for her. In early life Mrs. Ellis identified herself with the Baptist Church, of which she was a consistent and faithful member till the call came for her to go "up higher" and enter the church triumphant. During the years that she was confined to her room, it was an inspiration to hear her talk on spiritual matters. She was well versed in the Scriptures, and made them the theme of conversation at all times. She was highly respected, a good neighbor, kind and thoughtful, and a good supporter of her church. She leaves to mourn two daughters, Mrs. James Hopgood, West Cape, and Mrs. George F. Ellis, at home; also, two brothers Harry and John Williams, Bideford. Her husband died 36 years ago.
