William deMille
After the Show
By Rita Wetman

A glowing romance of the stage of those who make it and those who prey upon it.

Of a girl who dreamed of a future, an old man who dreamed of the past, and a rich young waster who wanted all of life—now.

Every scene a thrill, a smile or a heart-tug.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding took place at St. Cuthbert's Church, St. Teresa's, on Monday, February 27th, when Miss Rosella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
John Wood, Peaker's was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mr. Mark Murphy, Vernon River.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. I.R.A. McDonald, parish priest, St. Teresa's. The bride was tastefully attired in a tailored suit of taupes velour with beaver trimmings and hat to match and wore a racoon coat, the gift of her father, she was attended by her sister, Miss Irene, who also wore taupes with opossum trimmings and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Alphonsus O'Donnell, Avondale. Following the church service the bridal party drove to the home of the bride, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, after which they left by the eastern train for Charlottetown, where a sumptuous wedding dinner had been prepared at the Victoria Hotel, returning in the evening to the home of the groom where supper was served at which only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The evening was very pleasantly spent in music and singing. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, a happy and prosperous wedded life.

JOHN A. GAUTHIER
Entered peacefully into rest on Feb. 14th, at his home in North Rustico. The late John A. Gauthier in the 59 year of his age, after a lingering illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude, to the end.

The late Mr. Gauthier was well known and held in high esteem throughout his district, where he lived all his life. His unassuming piety, his straightforward character and above all his peace-loving disposition endeared him most to those who knew him best. His neighborhood has by his removal lost one of its best citizens, a man whose cheerful manner was founded on genuine good will, and unchanging friendship and by his sudden death his many friends and relatives will deeply regret his departure.
He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing wife, four sons and four daughters, Oliver, Napoleon, Andrew Emile and Olive at home, Mrs. John L. Gallant, and Judith in Old Town, Maine, and Ruffino, in Charlottetown. The funeral took place on Feb. 18th, in Rustico Church where the service was conducted by the Rev. Father Chaisson and to the Rustico Catholic Cemetery.

MR. PATRICK CURLEY
It is with deep regret that we learn of the death of Mr. Patrick Curley, who died at his home in Freestown on March 9, 1922 at the age of 62 years. The late Mr. Curley was a man of many excellent qualities. He was visited frequently during his illness by his pastor, Rev. Father McQuaid, who comforted and consoled him in his last hours.
He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing wife, four daughters, Mrs. Gertrude McGeoughy, Alice, Margaret and Jean, and two sons, Walter and Wilfrid, also a large number of friends and relatives.
His remains were followed by a large concourse of people to St. James Church, where a requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father McQuaid, after which the remains were laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. Here to await a glorious resurrection. The pall bearers were: John McIntee, George Mayne, Barney Croken, Peter Doighan, Barney Murphy, Neil Croken.

In St. James' quiet graveyard, Where the trees their branches wave, Lies our dear, dear, loving father in his cold and silent grave.
Friends may think we'll soon forget him,
And our sorrowing hearts may heal, But little do they know the anguish
That is in our hearts concealed.

Says Acid Stomach
Causes Indigestion

Excess of hydrochloric acid sours the food and forms gases Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority.

He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like gargabe sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Sad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

How Marne Battle
Scenes Were Filmed

Elaborate System of Mines to Wreck French Village in "The Four Horsemen"

No general ever worked out his strategy for a decisive battle with greater care than that bestowed upon the plans for the motion picture reproduction of the second battle of the Marne, a feature of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," a Rex Ingram film for Metro, adapted from Vicente Blasco Ibanez's novel by June Mathis. This picture will be shown at the Prince Edward Theatre, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 28, 29, 30.

Although many thousands of men took part in an engagement that, to all appearances, was as deadly as those that proved the turning point of the World War, the arrangements were such as to make serious accident almost impossible.
For many weeks, Walter Grams, chief at Metro's West Coast studios in Hollywood, Calif., and a large force of assistants worked on this system until it was pronounced "fool proof."

This setting for the battle consisted of a complete French village castle, with many turrets and towers, and a background of wooded hills. All the buildings are destroyed by mines and shell fire, just as was the case in the original battle in France.

The castle and all the buildings of the village were built so as to "breakaway" properly at the desired time. There were more than 200 "breakaways" and more than 1500 separate explosions were planned to occur in the village alone.
These "breakaways" were necessary to insure the falling of the buildings at the proper moment.

More than 50,000 feet of copper cable were laid and sixty-two storage batteries installed about the location.
The telephone central control for the setting was a head receiver and breast transmitter worn by Mr.
Ingram. This was directly connected with fifteen telephone control stations placed at various points through the set. These stations could be called at any time by Mr.
Ingram.

All field mines were under the control of a special operator with telephone connections. Hundreds of cannon were placed about the battlefield. They were provided with six shots each and operated by a switch which exploded each charge in proper order.

A battery of fifteen cameras was used for the filming of the battle scenes.

Girl Committed
Suicide Following
Death of Fiance

NEW YORK, March 21.—Brooklyn hearted over the death of her sweetheart, Miss Gladys Rankin, secretary of the Junior League, took her life today by inhaling gas.
To make death doubly sure, before turning on the gas, she swallowed a half bottle of bichloride of mercury tablets.

She was found sitting up in bed, a large picture of the young man she loved, Jean de Baccourt, son of an assistant professor at Columbia University, propped on the pillow beside her. Close by was a newly scrawled in pencil which read:
"Cherie, I do not know where I will meet you, but I will look for you."
