In Memoriam

MRS. LESLIE MAC EWEN
It was with feelings of deep regret that citizens of York Point and vicinity received the sad news of the death in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Tuesday, September 14th, of Mrs. Leslie MacEwen in her 69th year. Although a great sufferer of many years, Mrs. MacEwen bore her illness with that fortitude and courage which always marks the life of a true Christian. For her the hills of adversity were long and steep, but when the summit was finally reached, she knew that in the great beyond there would be rest and peace.

The late Minnie (Robertson) MacEwen was born in North River, the daughter of John and Annie Robertson, and received her education in the public school of the district. Before her marriage she taught music and many will remember her as a patient and kindly teacher. She was greatly interested in the activities of the church and community, and when her health permitted took an active part in them.

Besides her sorrowing husband, there are left to mourn two sons, Gordon and Reginald, four grand-children and the following sisters: Ethel (Mrs. Ira Rodd) Milroy; Katie (Mrs. Alec MacRae) Edmonton, Alberta; Mary (Mrs. Berkeley Greaves) Sandwich Island, B.C.; a brother, Duncan, predeceased her one year ago. Her funeral which was held from her home, was very largely attended. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. K. Charman, who also conducted the service at the grave. Interment was in Cornwall Cemetery.

In Memoriam

MR. PATRICK CREIGHAN
On Saturday morning, September 11th, 1945, the Angel of Death hovered over the community of Shamrock and claimed for its victim Patrick Creighan, aged 71 years. Paddy as he was widely known was a man who possessed a kind and pleasant disposition. Quiet and unassuming yet taking a keen interest in education and everything else that was for the good of the community. In politics he was a loyal and life long supporter of the Conservative Party.

He was a faithful and devoted member of the Holy Catholic Church and during his illness was frequently visited by his pastor, Rev. F. McQuaid, who administered to him the last rites of Holy Mother the Church. His funeral, which was very largely attended took place on Monday morning to St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. McQuaid, P. P., who also conducted the services at the grave. The pall bearers were Aeneas Hughes, Jos. Hughes, Jos. Hagun, James McKenna, Bennett Duffy and Louis Trainor.

Besides his sorrowing wife are left to mourn one sister Mrs. Sarah Malone, Kinkora; also one brother Bert Creighan, Haverhill, Mass. The many Mass Cards and Messages of Sympathy received testify to the esteem and respect in which the deceased was held. May his soul with the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. Patrick Creighan wishes to thank her numerous friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown to her during the illness and death of her husband.
