WORLD NEEDS NEW LEADER, HE SAYS

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 8.—The world's call for leadership for men with vision and character, was stressed by President James R. Angell today in the matriculation address at Yale University. "Modern society has been for seven years undergoing the most tremendous indictment it has ever sustained, and whether it is to survive in its present form, or is to be materially modified or is to go the way of the civilizations of antiquity, is still uncertain," he said. "The indictment has been ostensibly directed against its political and economic organization, but essentially is an assault upon the moral and religious fabric of the social order. If capitalism, for example, is the evil thing often alleged, it is evil primarily because men do not conceive themselves as members, one of another. If monarchial absolutism is evil, it is so in the first instance because men possessing the supreme power regard themselves and their interests as wholly superior to the rank and file of mankind. If Democratic forms of government have failed to secure that increase of human happiness and justice which has often been confidently predicted for them, it is in part at least because no form of government, as such, can protect against the malfeasance of men whose purposes are sinister and selfish. "The University community is in exactly the same case. No matter how intelligent its organization, how ingenious its devices, how generous its resources in men and materials, it cannot attain to its full usefulness as a member of every member of it is earnestly devoted to the execution of his own particular part of the general task. "Modern society is calling as never before in our lifetimes for leadership, for men with vision and character, with trained intelligence, with hope and confidence in the finer humanity that is to come, and where shall such men be sought, where shall they be bred, if not in our colleges and universities where are gathered all the history and civilization and science and art have to teach of God and man and nature.

Civilian Clothes at The Prince Edward Monday, Oct. 17

At the Prince Edward on Monday evening, Oct. 17th the Klark Urban Company. "Civilian Clothes" the opening play of the week is termed a comedy drama and has plenty of high grade comedy and also contains as well much pathos and its selection for presentation just now is timely, centering as it does about demobilization and the problems that the return from military to civil life presents. The Klark Urban Company produced this play last season and owing to the great success and many requests for its reproduction for this season. The story and the parts taken in it are as follows: Harden Klark a late captain of the A. E. F. and a real man, has married in France Florence Lanham, a Red Cross worker personated by Maisie Cell, the daughter of aristocrats of Kentucky in the hands of Mr. Thos. Bower and Lillian Deane. Florence keeps her marriage a secret, believing her husband to have died and being ashamed of his humble parentage she is being offered marriage by a member of her own set, Billie Arkwright (Billie Webb) when her husband returns to find that she has not the courage to acknowledge the son of a cobbler. "Desiring to learn manners (and teach them) her husband enters the service of her own set, thereby creating a number of awkward complications, the unravelling of which gives much amusement, and makes up one of the cleverest this company has produced. Other plays for the week are: "The Hottentot," "Smoot," as "Silk," "The Other Wife" and "The Divorce Question."

EFFORTS OF FIRE DEPARTMENT APPRECIATED BY BUSINESS MEN.

Chief Ranahan Receives Cheques From Messrs. C. J. Gallagher, Manager of the Prince Edward Theatre and John McLeod & Co., Tailors.

That the work of our Fire Department at the conflagration Sunday week is appreciated by citizens and especially the business men, who were affected is shown by the following letters received by Chief Ranahan. The men, through their chief, wish to return hearty thanks to the thoughtful donors and assure them the amounts received will be placed in the Firemen's Fund at the Bank. Following are the letters:

Charlottetown, Oct. 5th, 1921 To Mr. Thomas Ranahan, Chief, Charlottetown Fire Dept. Dear Sir: Please accept the enclosed cheque ($25.00) for the Firemen's Fund, as a token of the writers appreciation and recognition of the splendid work performed by the Charlottetown Fire Brigade, Sunday morning, Oct. 2nd. Since becoming a resident of Charlottetown a little over seven years ago, I have always admired the excellent work of the Charlottetown Fire Brigade, although it is work voluntarily done; yet I have never, in my experience in various cities, where the Fire Department are salaried institutions, with everything in the nature of fire-fighting equipment, saw a body of men more efficient or energetic in the performance of their duty, than our Charlottetown Fire Fighters, with the limited equipment at their disposal, they certainly, to my mind, perform wonderful work. Sincerely yours, C. J. GALLAGHER.

Thomas Ranahan, Esq., Chief Fire Brigade. Dear Sir.—Enclosed please find our cheque (for $50.00), as an acknowledgment of our appreciation of the heroic fight put up by the Fire Brigade in checking the fire, which started on our premises last Sunday morning, and confining it to almost the first building in which it started. Charlottetown has every reason to be proud of its Volunteer Fire Brigades. We are sincerely yours, JOHN MACLEOD & CO.

The foregoing letters were duly acknowledged by Mr. Fred Lango, secretary of the Fire Department, who in thanking the kind donors, added the department was pleased they appreciated their services and they would always be ready and willing to do their duty. TRUTH AND CONSCIENCE An unsigned letter, with 40 cents enclosed, came to the R. W. Furnas Ice Cream company Friday, it read: "A little contribution to the com-science fund." "During the Slippery Gulch celebration in Indianapolis some months ago I had occasion to purchase—and consume—some refreshments to the extent of 40 cents from the man in charge of your concession. "Neither of us having the proper change we 'let it go' for the moment. I forgot it. "Truth" being the slogan in this fair city this week, I am glad I'm here to reimburse you. "Please put the enclosed in the proper place."—Indianapolis News. Sale Goes Through Customer—But why is the price of this parcel so high? Because you see maan he knows the family secrets of the people who owned him. Boston Transcript.

Fifty Dollars a Month

(Guaranteed to you by the Canada Life)

How Fifty Dollars a Month looks to the Average Man

Age 20—Happy on Fifty Dollars a month.

Age 21—Fifty Dollars a month is not enough.

Age 35—Thinks he can easily afford to "spend" Fifty Dollars a month

Age 50—Things are not going as well as they were.

Age 55—Strange how these assets have depreciated! Fifty Dollars a month is good interest on $10,000, and not to be despised.

Age 60—He finds Fifty Dollars a month pension, added to what income is left, brings happiness.

You know of men well up in years who are still "drudging along". They cannot stop if they would, but must go on to the end of their days working for a living. You can avoid that.

Why Not Pension Yourself? Why not "take stock" of your present financial position—to size up your personal affairs and decide on a plan for the future?

Our New Pension Plan

guarantees that upon reaching a certain age in life, you will receive a monthly cheque for $50.00, $100, $200, $250—as you may now decide—and this monthly payment cannot cease as long as you live.

An Income for Life

Think what it may mean to you to be certain of an income right up to the end of life, when you consider that 97% of people in their later years are partially or wholly dependent upon others for support.

When they were younger they did not have the chance now offered you. It was not then possible to secure such a convenient and certain provision as this Monthly Pension Plan.

And This is Not All

Suppose some day before you reach age sixty you meet with a mishap and become totally and permanently disabled through accident, illness or any cause. (Such a thing has happened soon after men have secured this new policy of the Canada Life.) Immediately, the payment of further premiums would be cancelled. The Canada Life would become responsible for sending you $50.00, $100, $200, $250, a month, as arranged, for the rest of your life.

There are many other benefits. An average deposit of only a few dollars a month will return you $50.00 a month later on.
