Wilson returning to Cleveland, Ohio; and Miss Foster to visit Niagara. A new warehouse is about to be erected on Fitzroy Street near the corner of Queen by Alexander Horne. This was the site of the old Cahill home, which was one of the oldest buildings in this city. The material used in this building although very rough was in the best of condition, attesting to the skill of old time laborers. Colin Craig, Middleton, possesses one of the finest orchards of 125 trees in this province. These trees bear on an average of one barrel a year of Crimson Beauties of which he sent a sample. The orchard which covers about two acres is pronounced by a gentleman from Annapolis to be second to none in the Annapolis Valley. Mr. Craig entertains quite a number of visitors who come to see through the orchard. He will probably make a shipment next week. The home of William Buchanan, Eldon, was the scene of a happy event on the 31st ult. when his eldest daughter, Miss Hannah Mary, was married to Arthur Robinson McMann, of South Boston, Mass. Rev. S. Mr. Archibald secretary of the Y.M.C.A. received a most appreciative letter with $5 enclosed from a father whose boy was in attendance at the Maritime Boys' Camp. The letter was expressive of the benefit which his boy derived at the camp and the money was to help clear of the camp financial deficit, which still stands at about $50.00. Any further donations will be gratefully received. Few people realize the great work that is done at these camps. This year forty-four boys for the first time publicly declared their faith in Jesus Christ as a personal Saviour and expressed their determination to do all in their power to extend his kingdom. The experience of past years goes to prove that the great majority of the boys who thus declare themselves at these camps, stand by their decisions. Most of the boys at camp declared they had had the best time of their lives.

The steamer Northumberland arrived from Picou at eight forty last evening. The temperature yesterday was much warmer than for some days past and went as high as seventy-six degrees. The Misses Kate and Margaret Little have returned to Stellarton, after spending two weeks' well earned holidays in Charlottetown. One of the chief attractions of the evening are the moving pictures at New Wonderland and nightly large crowds gather to see them and hear the pretty songs. Last evening's pictures were of a high standard and the song exceptionally bright and pretty.
