THE GOD OF THE OPEN AIR

"He thinks today as I watched them stray, Through the streets ever changing throng, With their tired eyes and their weary feet, That to them the road must seem long...

I've looked at night over Boston town, With her million lights aglow, And I've longed to tell to the Tollers there...

The things that they ought to know, I wish they could come with me and see, That the world is bright and fair, And hand in hand let their praises sound, To the God of the Open Air.

On a mountain side in the Granite State, I've watched the trains rush by, And I sang with glee, I'm glad I'm free, My home is the earth and sky."

The dying sun set gold and red, And the pines scent filled the air, And the rose grosbeak sang a song with me, To the God of the Open Air.

There's a long, long trail in the Pine Tree State, The most wonderful Trail I know, It runs to the East and its runs to the West,

To the north and the south it goes, Yes, it wanders over the wide, wide world, And one day with the tollers there, I'll tell them all of the wonderful love, Of the God of the Open Air.

O, the love of the God of the world, my dears, Is wide and deep, and strong, It can lift you up and calm your fears, It can cast out sin and wrong, O, children of toil look round and see, At the earth, the sea, and the air, There, in nature's place you will see the Face, Of the God of the Open Air."

Mrs. Perry Sent To Higher Court

Yarmouth Magistrate Considers There is Sufficient Evidence of a Circumstantial Character to Warrant This Action

YARMOUTH, N. S., May 2.—Sitting Magistrate Charles S. Paton this morning committed Mrs. Clara Elizabeth Perry for trial next June on a charge of murdering her husband, Captain George H. Perry, at his home on the night of February 26.

Mansfield Ross, finance of Mrs. Perry's daughter, Eleanor, on the charge that "he, knowing that Clara Elizabeth Perry had committed such crime, did comfort and assist her in escaping justice," was remanded until Monday.

The text of the decision rendered by the magistrate is as follows: "The King vs. Elizabeth Perry, decision of stipendiary magistrate on preliminary examination:

"After carefully perusing the depositions of the witnesses taken before me on this preliminary examination and the cases submitted by the learned counsel for both crown and accused, I have come to the conclusion that it is my duty to commit the accused for trial. I do not consider it my duty, and feel that it would be improper for me as a magistrate to make any comment on the evidence adduced, except to say that I am doubtful in my own mind as to whether or not some of the evidence tendered is admissible. This, however, is a matter for the trial judge to pass upon, and I think there is sufficient evidence, altogether circumstantial to send the accused up for trial.

SEVEN THOUSAND MEN LAID OFF FOR WEEK—The Grand Trunk Railway shops and Canadian Pacific Railway shops Montreal have closed for a week. Seven thousand men are affected. The men, who are temporarily laid off, held indignation meetings, claiming that the McAdoo award under which they are operating was based on the idea that they would be given steady employment.

ASSIST CATTLE PRODUCERS.

—Legislation directing the Secretary of the Treasury to turn over $100,000,000 of the profits of the Federal Reserve Bank to federal loan banks to assist U. S. cattle producers, has been recommended as a part of the congressional programme by P. G. Harding, governor of the Federal Reserve Board, according to a statement by Everett C. Brown, president of the National Livestock Exchange. Enactment of such legislation in the opinion of Mr. Brown, would enable a multitude of livestock men, "who might otherwise have been forced out of the business" to continue production. "Consumers also should receive a benefit from the increase in production thus made possible," the statement declared.

The Old Gardener Says

"Don't be in a hurry to plant your dahlias bulbs, because they give their best blooms in the fall. When you do plant them, though, be sure to put them in the ground on their sides instead of standing upright, and don't plant a clump. You get just as good results from a single bulb, provided it has a strong eye, the most essential feature. Get them down four or five inches, so that they will be firmly anchored and will not be blown down by the first hard wind."

Current Comment

A year ago, after the close of the first session, Mr. Speaker, Duffy was the subject of compliments for his fairness, impartiality and good judgment in the discharge of his duties as presiding officer of the House. But for one or two incidents which we believe to have been ill-advised and wrong, we would be disposed to extend to him a similar commendation, in regard to the session just closed. As a barrister in good standing he is surely acquainted with that primary principle of British as well as Canadian law, THAT NO MAN CAN BE ADJUDGED GUILTY of misdemeanour or wrong, WITHOUT THE PRIVILEGE OF BEING HEARD IN HIS OWN DEFENSE. When as Speaker of the Legislative Assembly he permitted a resolution to be moved and submitted to the House, after formal protest against its regularity had been made, DECLARING A PENALTY, where no specific charge had been made, no enquiry entered into, AND NO OFFENSE ESTABLISHED, he did that which we submit is absolutely without precedent in any British Parliament or judicial institution. The second instance to which we would refer was when, in calling a member of the House to order he used this expression, "Keep order, NOW AND DURING THE REMAINDER OF THE SESSION." We respectfully submit that when the Speaker calls a member to order, "THERE HIS PREROGATIVE AND DUTY CEASES, except to the extent of enforcing the order."

PASS THE CHEER ALONG

If with pleasure you are viewing any work a man is doing, If you like him or you love him, tell him now; Don't withhold your approbation till the parson makes oration. And he lies with snowy lilies o'er his brow; For no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it. He won't know how many tears drop you have shed; If you think some praise is due him, now is the time to slip it to him. For he cannot read his tombstone when he dead's.
