Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all. The mail train arrived in this city at ten ten last evening.

The Northumberland arrived in this city at 8.25 last evening.

Mrs. Lemoir of Oakland, Cal., arrived in the City Wednesday night and registered at the Victoria.

The double tenant house, Phillips property on Hillsboro Square, will be sold by auction at 12 o'clock today.

Anybody wanting kindling at a low rate should call at J. D. McLeod's, the old corner on the new site of the Bank of Commerce.

The funeral of the late Geo. A. Howatt, Augustine Cove, whose death took place Wednesday night, will be conducted today at 2 p.m.

Mrs. A. E. Ings and daughter Olive arrived in the city last night by the Northumberland, from Windsor, N. S., where the latter has been attending Edgell.

The highest temperature registered yesterday was seventy above. At nine a.m. the mercury stood at fifty one above and at nine p.m. at fifty-nine above. The coldest registered the previous night was fifty-five above.

Any person desiring to purchase a closed coach of American manufacture, and body of oval shape with glass sides and front, capable of seating six persons besides driver, also a landau should apply at Guardian at once.

Owing, no doubt, to the want of proper advertising the eclipse last evening at sunset did not attract many spectators. The next time Nature has a treat in store for her numerous admirers, she will doubtless announce the fact in good time.

Wallace Lea, L. H. Smith and F. Oakes of Tryon, N. W. H. Ferguson, Miss Higgins, Mrs. Boates and son, and Miss F. Cameron of Hampton, J. S. McQuarrie of Victoria; Mrs. Toombs of Rustico; P. Smith of Calif., and D. S. McQuarrie, Cra-paud were passengers to this City by the Harland yesterday.

At the annual meeting of Central Royalty District School the supplement was increased to $35. Hector McRae retired and T. P. Cullen was elected trustee in his place. This increase in supplement was bonus for a teacher who would teach agriculture household science and vocal music to the older pupils on Saturday.

Messrs. Auld Bros. shipped by New-derland last night were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. Special mention should be made of the picture entitled "The Drunkard's reformation." It was a strong temperance lesson that could not fail to impress upon the minds of young and old and teach the lesson desired. Mr. Sayce's singing was all that could be desired and he will no doubt receive bumper houses during his stay in the city.

The moving pictures at New Wonder-land last night were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. Special mention should be made of the picture entitled "The Drunkard's reformation." It was a strong temperance lesson that could not fail to impress upon the minds of young and old and teach the lesson desired. Mr. Sayce's singing was all that could be desired and he will no doubt receive bumper houses during his stay in the city.

The Annual Meeting of the Margate School District, was held on June 15. The meeting was called to order by the Chairman D. Profit, with J. A. Mayhew Secretary.

The financial report of the Secy. A. Johnstone was very satisfactory and stood accepted.—J. A. Fyfe was appointed trustee in place of Mr. Johnston, retiring. On motion carried Frank Glyden was chosen auditor. After a lengthy discussion the district felt the strong need of keeping the school graded and was very unanimous in voting an increase of supplement to both departments, also a raise for current expenses. Other matters of interest were taken up and satisfactorily disposed of. One item being for the trustees to make it compulsory for all parents in the district to send their children to school in conformity with the act.

Charlottetown Steam Navigation Co., Ltd

Charlottetown Picton Service Change Of Time Commencing Tuesday June 1st. The S. S. "Northumberland" will leave the Company's wharf daily, except Sunday, at 8:20 o'clock a.m. Returning will leave Picton about 4:30 p.m. G. W. WAKEFORD, Charlottetown, May 28th 1903. Manager

Dr. Darrach of Kensington visited the city yesterday. He registered at the Victoria.

Miss Bessie Mosher of Windsor, N. S., came over on the Northumberland last evening on a visit to her cousin Miss Maud Goff.

The Ladies Choral Club of New Glasgow who were to have given a concert in this City in the near future have decided to postpone their visit for the present.

H. N. Lingley of the Canadian Express Co is making an official tour through this province. At present he is in the city and registered at the Victoria Hotel.

Among the passengers arriving in the city last night by the Northumberland were Bishop MacDonald who made the round trip, Rev. S. J. Woodrooff and Captain J. Read.

Owing to the big Saturday Guardian and the large number of advertisements therefor it is necessary that all "changes" of matter reach this office not later than ten a.m. Friday to insure insertion in first following issue.

A number of the members of the Phoenix Cricket Club are practicing at Victoria Park in the mornings from five to eight o'clock. This looks as if they meant business and no doubt they will put up a good showing against Stellarton on Dominion Day.

The tern schooner Empress, at present in Montague, has been chartered by the Dominion Coal Co. to carry coal for the next three months between Sydney and Yarmouth. Captain Lowry will be in command. It is understood the steamer will leave in a few days for Sydney.

Among the passengers arriving in the City by the mail train last night were, G. J. Chambers, wife and children, Ottawa, Mrs. MacMillan, Ottawa, A. A. Griffin and wife, Montague, N. M. McLean, St. Peters, Miss M. Sidewich, Cardigan, Miss N. McKinnon, St. Peters, and Captain Joseph Read of Summerside. All registered at the Victoria Hotel.

The annual school meeting at Central Bedeque was well attended. Albert Schurman was elected trustee in place of George Green who retired. $50 was voted as supplement for the teacher and $55 for repairs and other expenses. Miss White who has taught with good satisfaction for a year is resigning at the close of the school year. Midsummer holidays will be continued. Trees have been planted and the grounds much improved.

Yesterday morning the Police Court was occupied with the Prohibition case against Daniel Murray. The liquor in this case, a cask of beer belonging to Murray—was seized from the premises of John Dalziel where it had been kept for safe keeping. It was seized on a separate warrant. A number of witnesses testified that they had beer to drink at Murray's but didn't give any strong evidence as to its quality. The case was adjourned till Saturday. The case against Patrick McAleer was dismissed.

A. McNeill, Chief of the Fruit Division, Ottawa, who came to the city by the Picton boat Wednesday, left for O'Leary yesterday morning, where he will address a meeting on Co-operation in the Packing and Marketing of Fruit, and on the general care of orchards. Mr. McNeill will speak at Springfield, Bedeque, Montague, Georgetown, Hazelbrook and Bay Fortune. Co-operative fruit packing associations have been in operation a comparatively short time in Canada, and as one has started in this province, every fruit grower who possibly can should make it a point to be present at one of these meetings and hear with what success they have met.
