FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral of the late Mrs. John H. Watts, Clinton, will take place at her home Wednesday, Feb. 22nd at 1 o'clock.

ABEGWEIT DANCE to-night at Casino. Refreshments.

Matilda Hicken, of Roseneath, spent the week end in Charlottetown visiting her father, John W. Hicken, who is undergoing treatment in the P. E. Island Hospital.

RETURNS FROM HALIFAX — Mr. Roland Paton returned last evening from Halifax where he underwent an operation in connection with his leg wounded in the war. The operation was successful and Mr. Paton has made satisfactory progress since.

"FULL HOUSE—MORE EXPECTED"— Few fines are being paid these days, those convicted for infraction of the Prohibition Act are taking their sentences very lightly, in fact reservations are being made by prospective "guests" who seem to take the whole thing as a huge joke. At time of writing there are twenty-seven prisoners crowded in the jail with three to come and more expected. The Guardian is informed that necessary room can be made for accommodation, and it is understood that preparations are now being made for a tremendous influx of "boarders" within the next week or so. The cells are now all occupied and other rooms are well filled, as many as four beds to a room. It was stated from a reliable source that there is yet some space left in the corridors. A parade of good things to eat is a common occurence these days as friends and relatives of the "chosen" are seen wending their way "hotelwards" with well filled baskets. Said baskets no doubt are not only well received by the "guests" but by the management as well, as the high cost of free board and lodging must be tremendous indeed. One can imagine the happy family that sits down to the various banquets —or do the "guests" dine in shifts?

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding and interesting event took place yesterday morning, Feb. 20th, 1928, at 8 o'clock in Saint Dunstan's Cathedral, Charlottetown, P. E. I., when Henrietta Pearl Burke became the bride of Mr. Thomas Reid Cullen. The ceremony and Nuptial Mass was performed by the Rev. Mgr. Maurice MacDonald. The bride, attired in a Holland blue georgette and cut velvet dress, with black velvet hat and silver trimmings, wore a corsage bouquet of American Beauty Roses. She was attended by Mrs. Wilfred Burke attired in a dress of shell pink and sand crepe de chene with sand satin hat and wore a corsage bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. Wilfred Burke. During the ceremony the ladies' choir rendered very appropriate hymns. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Burke. Among the many lovely presents of silver, cut glass, linens, cheques, china, etc., was a cut glass water jug from the Saint Dunstan's ladies choir of which the bride was a faithful member. The groom was the recipient of two handsome reed chairs and a pair of brass candlesticks from his neighbors and friends. A reception will be held this evening at the home of Mr. T. P. Cullen, Sherwood. After a short honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Midgell followed by the good wishes of their many friends in which the Guardian heartily joins.

The Concert At Cardigan

The Women's Institute of Cardigan staged their repeatedly postponed concert at last, on Friday, February 17th., before a packed hall of ardent well-wishers.

The various choruses, sung by the Glee Club, were exceptionally good as they flowed from the lips of the following members: Mrs. W. Vickerson, the Misses Macdonald, Hume, Harris, Morris, Lewis, and Messrs. Allan, Harris, McLeod, Hewitt and Grant.

Vocal solos by Mr. Howlett, admirably accompanied by his sister on the piano together with instrumental selections by Miss Campbell. Messrs. Banks and Campbell received tremendous applause. The members of the Women's Institute wish once more to thank those artists from Annandale for helping them to make their entertainment so enjoyable, because with them in the spotlight, there were no dull moments to still the enthusiasm of the audience.

The vocal solos by Charlie Harris and Roy Grant, the two popular local artists, were loudly applauded and received hearty encores.

Eight young ladies from the Cardigan High School, gave the audience another fleeting glance at the rapidly disappearing "Old Time Fashions". Their appareal, chorus, and eight hand reel brought forth a noisy mixture of laughter, cheers and handclapping. The members of this forget-me-not club were the Misses McNeill, Macdonald, Lewis, Adams, McAulay, Buchanan, Donahoe and Reville.

In the dialogue, "Trusting Too Far", Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allan, Mrs. Vickerson, and Marion Adams spent some very embarrassing moments in the presence of their worthless servant, impersonated capably by Roy Grant, who allowed himself the too frequent use of a certain intoxicant; in the midst of an informal visit from Miss Hume and Miss Morris, a more or less tragic scene was narrowly averted by the timely appearance in the Allan homestead, of Cyrus Shaw and Earl Macdonald. These gentlemen relieved the situation charmingly and for their display of gallantry in seeing the lady visitors home, they received mighty applause.

In the other dialogue, Miss Mary Macdonald, interpreted the difficult role of heroine with her usual remarkable ability. Miss Marion Adams lovingly encouraged her in moments of despair as the heroine thought that her father, "Mr. Hewitt", was forcing her affections on one whom she did not love. Leo McNeill and Roy Grant as Mr. Carleton and son, although a little "peppery," on several occasions during their role of action, went home satisfied that "All's Well that Ends Well."

On the whole the program was delightful, the participants in the various numbers played their parts nobly and well, and judging from the plaudits and favorable comments, the audience was overjoyed to have been guests of the Women's Institute.

The sale of pies was an entertainment in itself, as the multitudes watched and enjoyed the tactics of Mr. Scrimgeour, coaxing in his own inimitable manner, the funds necessary, to keep the street lights burning.

For the evening's entertainment, the Rev. M. J. Mooney acted as chairman.

The Programme:—

Chorus—The Open Road—Cardigan Glee Club.

Instrumental Music—Miss Campbell, Messrs. Banks and Campbell.

Drill—Old Time Fashions—Eight High School Girls.

Vocal Solo—Mr. Harris.

Vocal Solo—Mr. Howlett.

National Anthem.

"Ladies Must Dress" At The Capitol

VIRGINIA VALLI, LAWRENCE GRAY AND FINE CAST IN DELIGHTFUL COMEDY ROMANCE DIRECTED BY VICTOR HEERMAN FROM AN ORIGINAL STORY.

Virginia Valli, playing the feminine lead in "Ladies Must Dress", which had its initial showing at the Capitol last night, brings to the screen one of the gayest portrayals she has essayed in many months. She is surrounded by a small but excellent cast. The list includes Lawrence Gray, in the leading masculine role, and Tallam Cooley of Helen and Warren fame. Others in the cast are Nancy Carroll and Earle Foxe.

In this sermon of laughs Victor Heerman, who wrote and directed the story, seems to have had one of his happiest inspirations when he selected Miss Valli for this production. She is ideally cast as a plain little stenographer in a big department store. The story is packed with humor.

Virtually all the trouble arises when Miss Valli, playing the role of Eve, discovers that her sweetheart (Lawrence Gray) is secretly ashamed of the clothes she wears. She has been diligently saving her money to pool with his own bank account so that they could marry.

Perhaps some of the most humerous and instructive episodes occur when Miss Valli, as the girl, begins to dress up and attract the favorable attention of other men, which causes her lover to become furiously jealous.

A lesson for husbands, wives and sweethearts is probably the best definition for this picture, and the best part of it is that it is preached with laughter.

Livestock Report

MONTREAL, Feb. 20. — Cattle receipts 972. Cattle trading was slow and prices about steady. There was only two or three lots of good steers. The best brought $10.90. A few choice light heifers were sold for $9.00 and some medium steers were sold around the same figure. The balance of the cattle were made up almost entirely of canners, thin heifers and common cows, culled from dairy herds throughout the province of Quebec and prices for these ranged from $3.00 to $5.00. Quotations:—Butcher steers, good $9.50 to $10.90, medium $8.75 to $9.25; common $7.75 to $8.75. Butcher heifers good, $8.50 to $9.00, medium $7.50 to $8.00, common $4.50 to $7.25. Butcher cows, good $7.00 to $7.50, medium $5.00 to $6.25, canners $3.00 to $3.50, cutters $3.75 to $4.50 butcher bulls, common, $5.00 to $6.25. Calf receipts, 1,192. About 80 percent of the calves offered were grassers and these sold from $5.75 to $6.00 with the odd small lots at $6.50 or better. Veals were in good demand but prices were around 50 cents below last week's level. Common light suckers sold from $11.00 to $12.00, fair kinds $13.00 and good veals picked out brought $13.50 or better. Very poor calves were not wanted. Quotations:—Good veal $13.00 to $13.50, medium $11.00 to $12.00, common and grassers $5.75 to $6.50. Sheep receipts 262. Common lambs brought $11.00 to $11.50 and a few good ones were weighed up at $12.00. Sheep were scarce and prices ranged between $5.00 and $6.50. Quotations:—Ewes $5.00 to $6.50; lambs, good $12.00, Common $11.00 to $11.50. Hog receipts, 2,150. With a lighter offering of hogs, prices stiffened. Local butchers paid $9.75 flat and took a large percentage of the hogs. Packers were bidding $9.50 on a graded basis for the balance when graded on bonus of $1.00 per hog paid on selects and 50 cents per hog cut taken on shops; sows sold from $7.75 to $8.00 with a few light ones at $8.25.

A spring novelty is the rainy day spat in colors to match raincoat, and it is developed in a featherweight rubberized fabric with side buttoning buckled under the instep with fancy turned-down cuff.

Why Suffer

From Rheumatism when Minard's Liniment will bring soothing relief.

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

They Gave Wonderful Relief at Once

SAYS ONTARIO MAN OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Mr. H. E. Lewis Highly Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills for All Kidney Troubles.

Rondeau, Ont., Feb. 20 (Special) —"I have used your Dodd's Kidney Pills to some extent and find them to be all you claim," writes Mr. Herb E. Lewis, 77 Cathcart Ave. Rondeau, Ont. "They take away all irritations and at once give a wonderful relief. I would also recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills for any kind of kidney trouble."

The road to good health lies through the kidneys. If they are kept strong and well, all the impurities are strained out of the blood. If they are weak and out of order, the impurities stay in the blood and disease is the sure result.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys and enable them to do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood. Healthy kidneys make a healthy body.

There is no reason why anyone should continue to suffer when Dodd's Kidney Pills can be obtained from druggists everywhere, or The Dodds Medicine Co., Ltd., Toronto 2.

CANADIAN FINANCING URGED BY GOVERNOR

MONTREAL, Feb. 20. — Hopes that Canadian money and Canadian engineers, or, at any rate, money and men of the British Empire, will be used in all Canadian engineering undertakings were expressed by his Excellency Viscount Willingdon, Governor-General of Canada, who addressed the members of the Engineering Institute of Canada at their annual dinner here tonight.

"I have observed a great many engineering works and projects in this country," his Excellency said. "I have also observed that of these much has been financed and a great deal of the engineering work has been done by gentlemen who are of another country. Perhaps this is inevitable. But I sincerely hope that within a short time all your works will be financed from within Canada, or at least, from within the Empire, and that the engineering work will be accomplished by the best of their own country and their own nation."

IMPERIAL COD OIL FOX AND DOG BISCUIT — IMPERIAL — Their Choice — A BALANCED RATION

Reg. Trade Mark

"NOT BY MEAT ALONE"

Leading fox ranchers have demonstrated that, in addition to meat, it is absolutely necessary to feed a liberal supply of IMPERIAL BISCUITS daily during the winter season, in order to keep the bowels regular, and also to ensure the females having an adequate supply of milk during the lactation period.

IMPERIAL COD OIL BISCUITS are made from a formula which has been prepared with these results in view and which reliable tests, extending over a considerable term of years, have proved to be signally successful.

Ranches, which have continued the feeding of IMPERIALS regularly in winter, have had the largest litters of young foxes and also the highest average of pups raised to maturity; in addition, they have practically eliminated the destroying of young by the females.

For assured results feed IMPERIALS throughout all the winter season.

IMPERIALS are sold by leading distributors or direct from the factory.
