No Treatment tried was of the slightest avail.

He had to be Fed with a Spoon just as he lay.

Told Recovery was Hopeless.

Made Strong and Well by DR. CASSELL'S TABLETS.

The following extraordinary cure of a man who suffered from such complete Nerve Failure that he had been in this condition for eighteen months when Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured him. The trouble first showed itself in the year 1908, and I sought advice. This proved useless, and I was steadily getting worse. I was advised to go to an institution where I should have the very best skill available. I was an out-patient there for four months, but nothing they could do for me was of the slightest avail. On the contrary, the trouble got worse. When I went I was just able to hobble on sticks from the station, when I was taken out

I was completely helpless, could not move hand or foot, and had been in this condition for eighteen months when Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured me. The trouble first showed itself in the year 1908, and I sought advice. This proved useless, and I was steadily getting worse. I was advised to go to an institution where I should have the very best skill available. I was an out-patient there for four months, but nothing they could do for me was of the slightest avail. On the contrary, the trouble got worse. When I went I was just able to hobble on sticks from the station, when I was taken out

I had to be carried on a stretcher. I had not the power of a single muscle, was so utterly helpless that I had to be fed with a spoon just as I lay. I was told I could not possibly get better, but I kept on hoping all the same. I tried one thing and another, and disappointment followed disappointment; but in the end I got Dr. Cassell's Tablets, and to the amazement of everybody who knew me I recovered. Gradually power returned to my limbs, and I could be wheeled about in a bath chair. Soon I abandoned the chair for crutches. Then I dropped the crutches and used a stick. Finally I had no need even of a stick

I could go about on good, sound limbs again, cured absolutely. I have been thoroughly sound ever since, and have long been back at work.

PRONOUNCED INCURABLE. Little Girl's Remarkable Recovery.

Mrs. H. Cooper, of Fern Lanes, Fenny Drayton, Nuneaton, England, says:— I shall never cease to praise Dr. Cassell's Tablets for the wonderful cure they have effected in my little girl Hilda. She was completely helpless for no less than three years, and now, after a course of these Tablets, she can go about by herself. The cause of the trouble was her being knocked down by a bicycle when she was three years old. She was very much bruised, but seemed to get over it quite well. Some years later, however, she complained of pains all over her body and began to lose the power of her limbs, until soon she was quite helpless. We had the best advice, but the case was considered incurable. She became a helpless cripple, unable to move hand or foot, and it was thought that she could not live many months.

However, finding that everything we tried failed, I thought I would just try what Dr. Cassell's Tablets would do. The result amazed me. The first sign of benefit was that Hilda improved in general health. She began to eat better. Then slowly, but quite surely, power returned to her limbs, and she was able to get up for a little. It is only six months since I first got the Tablets, and now she is cured and is in the best of health.

THE LATE MR. STANWAY.

The Guardian notes by the late Montreal papers the passing away on the 25th inst., of Mr. William Stanway, a wealthy and highly esteemed resident of that city. The late Mr. Stanway was an Englishman by birth and a cultured gentleman in the fullest sense of the word. He was an extensive holder of Bank, Street Railway and other stocks, and a member of Montreal's most exclusive Clubs. Mr. H. G. Stanway, residing in this city, is a brother.

ISLAND PRIEST ABROAD.

The parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Everett, Washington, was recently declared an irremovable rectorship, and Rev. J. E. O'Brien has been appointed its first irremovable pastor by Bishop Edward O'Shea of Seattle, says the California Maple Leaf. In order that a parish may be irremovably established, it must be sufficiently large, having an appropriate church and presbytery, parochial schools for boys and for girls, and have sufficient income to support these institutions. Rev. Father O'Brien is a native of St. Augustus, P. E. I., and for the past eighteen years has been one of the most active of the Catholic clergy in the State of Washington.

POINT PRIM.

The half yearly examination of Point Prim School took place on Friday, the 29th. The large number of parents and visitors present, shows the interest which the people are taking in the advancement of education. The pupils were examined by their teacher, Miss Catherine Campbell, assisted by the parents. Their correct answers shows that they have been receiving a very careful training. After the examination a programme consisting of songs, readings and recitations was splendidly rendered by the pupils. Candy was then passed around. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. All expressed themselves well pleased with the progress of the school.

A PLEASANT VISIT.

On Thursday the day being fine and mild, and roads good, Mr. Hensyon, Mr. MacNelson and Miss Holmquist, of Charlottetown, decided to take a drive to the country, making their objective the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore, Pownal, where, after a pleasant drive, they arrived and were accorded a hearty welcome. A very social time was spent in interesting converse and vocal and instrumental music. Miss Holmquist, who has a powerful and melodious voice, sang several choice solos. A remarkable feature of the pleasant meeting was the different nationalities represented: Mr. Hensyon, "Denmark," Miss Holmquist "Sweden," Mrs. A. A. Moore, "Norway," the other two ladies "England" and Mr. Moore, "Scotland" for ever. The merry party returned to Charlottetown in the evening well pleased with their day's outing.—Com.

DIED IN CALIFORNIA.

It is with deep regret we announce the sudden death in this city on Jan. 8th of Jas. P. E. Howatt, formerly of Summerside, P. E. I., where he is still fondly remembered by many of his school days companions, says the California Maple Leaf. After attending the schools of his native town he attended St. Dunstan's College, Charlottetown, until the death of his mother, Mrs. Julia Howatt. From Summerside he removed to Denver, Colorado, where he was for many years engaged in the drug business. While in that city he made his home with his aunt, Miss Katie Murray. He made hosts of friends on account of his gentle disposition, his courteous manner and kindness to all. About three years ago he left the Rocky Mountain city, and came to Oakland, where his sister resided, and where he hoped the balmy California air would prove beneficial to his health. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing sister, Laura, Mrs. Cecil M. Smith, of this city, and a brother, John, of the Island Railway, Charlottetown. The late Mrs. Edward Brennan, Seattle, Wash., was an aunt of the deceased. The funeral was held on January 11th, from the residence of his sister, thence to St. Anthony's Church, East Oakland, where a requiem Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. John W. Sullivan, for the repose of his soul, after which all that remained of popular Jimmie Howatt was interred in St. Mary's Cemetery, the following old-time friends acting as pall bearers: W. Bradford Hibbert, Joseph T. Harrington, E. L. Desjardis, J. E. Flaherty, M. A. McInnis, a formerly of Summerside, and R. Luscombe, his late employer. To the relatives we extend our sincere sympathy.

POULTRY DISCUSSED.

On Wednesday evening, January 27th, Mr. Richard Creed addressed an Agricultural Conference at Stanchel. Rev. D. McLean presided. The meeting was very large and a lively interest was taken, which goes to show the appreciation which these Agricultural Conferences are receiving. Mr. Creed dealt quite largely on the Poultry Industry, showing that in 1913 $46,000,000 worth of eggs were imported into the United Kingdom. Of this total $42,000,000 worth came from countries which are now involved in the war. In dealing with oats and barley he pointed out that $25,000,000 worth came from countries which are now affected by the war, and while it is essential for the British Empire to have oats for their horses of the front, which must be supported to transfer the artillery and also cavalry, along with innumerable other requirements of the army, the question which now confronts us is, where is this amount of oats going to come from, and are we ready to do our share to help supply this demand which is so essential, even though it should require some special effort on our part. He said that he did not advocate as a general rule the use of fertilizer, yet, at this time it is a case of necessity, and necessity knows no law, and that he would advocate the sowing of Nitrate of Soda on the grain crops to increase the yield for the year 1915. He also thought that farmers could vary well buy Cotton Seed to feed their cows instead of so much oats, and in this way they would be making a good financial exchange, and at the same time help to supply the shortage of oats. A discussion led by Rev. D. McLean followed after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Creed for his instructive lecture. The National Anthem was then sung, and the crowd dispersed.

FROM SALISBURY.

Following are extracts from a letter received by Mrs. George Walker, Charlottetown, from her son, Frank, who enlisted with the first contingent, now in No. 1 Ambulance, Burnham Camp, Salisbury Plains:—"10th January, I have just come off hospital duty, which we have to do every second week. Sunday passed here just the same as any other day, only of course if the weather is fine we hold a church service. The weather here is even better, if possible, than it has been before. A lot of small villages are completely flooded out, and people have to get around in row boats or rafts. The nave and transepts of Salisbury Cathedral are completely flooded. This is a very ancient Roman Catholic Church, one of the finest of its kind in England, and the pride of the people of Salisbury. I have been through it several times. It stands majestically in the centre of the town and its tall and graceful spire can be distinctly seen from our camp. There are a great many handsome old buildings here. A great many of the country holdings are hundreds of years old, their roofs thatched with straw, their ancient walls covered with ivy and they stand just as they did when Shakespeare and Bacon were alive. The only stay in England the more I realize how venerable a country it is. In fact the very ground we are sleeping on was used by the ancient Roman soldiers as a camp before the time of our Saviour.

PRAYERS FOR PEACE.

His Lordship Bishop Morrison, of Antigonish, N. S., recently issued a call to the pastors and people of his diocese, to offer special prayers on a set day for the restoration of peace in Europe, says "The United Canada," Ottawa. It is authoritatively stated, that so impressive were his words that nearly all denominations in Nova Scotia joined him in prayer. Bishop Morrison, who is a native of P. E. Island, and Bishop O'Leary, of P. E. Island, are two of the youngest prelates in all Canada.

SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court on Saturday last finished the last jury trial on the docket and then adjourned until Wednesday next when arguments for new trials, etc., will be heard. In the action brought by Theodore Ross against George W. Gagner which occupied the attention of the Court from Thursday afternoon until Saturday, the jury after a short absence found for the plaintiff and fixed the damages at $100. The suit arose out of a distress for rent made by the defendant upon the plaintiff and placing a man in his dwelling house under a distress warrant, the plaintiff contending that the seizure of his goods and the placing of the man in charge was illegal, whilst the defendant claimed that he had a right to seize. McQuarrie, K. C., and McCallum for the plaintiff; Johnston, K. C., for the defendant.

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cape Wolfe, Canada.—"Last March I was a complete wreck. I had given up all hope of getting better or living any length of time, as I was such a sufferer from female troubles. But I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am in good health and have a pair of twin boys two months old and growing finely. I surprised doctors and neighbors for they all know what a wreck I was.

"Now I am healthy, happy and hearty, and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies. You may publish this letter if you like. I think if more women used your remedies they would have better health."—Mrs. J. T. Cook, Lot No. 7, Cape Wolfe, P. E. I., Canada.

Because your case is a difficult one, and doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of women—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

THE ICE BOATS.

The boats left Cape Traverse at 8.20 a.m. yesterday with 24 bags mail, and Tormentine at 8.25 with 51 bags. There was no crossing from this side on Saturday owing to the high wind and severe weather. Sunday, however, 6 boats with 42 bags left Cape Traverse at 12.30, arriving at Tormentine at 4.00. A special train took the mails to Sackville.

"FINE LECTURE."

Tuesday evening, January 26th, saw a goodly representative of the people gather at the Baltic Hall to hear the famous lecturer, Rev. E. E. Styles, of Souris, deliver his popular, instructive and all-ways much appreciated lecture on "Twelve and a half years in the West Indies." The chair was well filled by Mr. Alfred Fraser. Attention of the best order was given the reverend lecturer as he eloquently described the country, climate and people, in his natural, inimitable and humorous way amid bursts of laughter by the enraptured audience occupying one and a half hours, after which over fifty West India views were thrown on the canvas and several local and patriotic views hurriedly got up by M. S. Acorn, the Souris artist. The singing of the National Anthem closed a most pleasant and profitably spent evening.
