THE RIGHT MAN.

There's a man in the world who is never turned down,
Wherever he chances to stray;
He gets the glad hand in the populous town,
Or out where the farmers make hay,
He's greeted with pleasure on deserts of sand,
And deep in the aisles of the woods,
Wherever he goes there's the welcoming hand,
He's The Man Who Delivers the Goods.

One fellow is lazy and watches the clock,
And waits for the whistle to blow,
One has a hammer with which he will knock,
And one tells the story of woe;
And one, if requested to travel a mile;
Will measure the perches and roods;
But one does his stunt with a whistle or smile,
He's The Man Who Delivers the Goods.

One man is afraid he'll labor too hard;
The world isn't yearning for such;
And one man is ever alert, on his guard,
Lest he put in a minute too much.
And one has a grouch or a temper that's bad,
And one is a creature of moods;
So it's hey for the joyous and rollicking lad,
For The One Who Delivers The Goods.

Eight Years of Bad Eczema on Hands

Miss Mary A. Bentley Montreal

Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment

Miss Mary A. Bentley, 93 University St., Montreal, writes, in a recent letter: "Some nine years ago I noticed small pimples breaking out on the back of my hands. They became very irritating, and gradually became worse, so that I could not sleep at night. I consulted a physician who treated me a long time, but it got worse, and I could not put my hands in water. I was treated at the hospital, and it was just the same. I was told that it was a very bad case of eczema.

"Well, I just kept on using everything that I could for nearly eight years until I was advised to try Cuticura Ointment. I did so, and I found after a few applications the burning sensations were disappearing, I could sleep well, and did not have any itching during the night. I began after a while to use Cuticura Soap. I stuck to the Cuticura treatment, and thought if I could use other remedies for over seven years with no result, and after only having a few applications and finding ease from Cuticura Ointment, it deserved a fair trial with a severe and long-born case. I used the Cuticura Ointment and Soap for nearly six months, and I am glad to say that I have hands as clear as anyone. It is my wish that you publish this letter to all the world, and if anyone doubts it, let them write me."

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., 30 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

NEW MUSIC MASTER FOR CHARLOTTETOWN

J. T. Thompson, lately Music Master of Truro College, Cornwall, and of Belfast, Ireland, has been engaged by the School of Music, and by the First Methodist Church, as Director of the School, and Choir Master for the Church. He will reach Charlottetown, August 20th, and will enter upon his duties the first of September. The Belfast Telegraph says of him: "J. T. Thompson, M. R. C. O., L. R. A. M., A. R. C. M., organist and choirmaster of the First Presbyterian Church, Rosemary Street, Belfast, leaves early this week for Canada. He presided at the organ for the last time at the evening service yesterday. Mr. Thompson, during his stay in Belfast, won many professional and personal friends and admirers. Besides being a very capable church and recital organist he has at his command a capital pianoforte technique, which enabled him to play Chopin and other classical masters of the literature of the instrument with more than usually good results. His piano touch ranged from the softest tonal qualities to the most brilliant, and his command of velocity never degenerated into mere display; the spirit of the music was interpreted always as being the main element, not technical show. As a church organist, he is perhaps at his best, and both the choral and instrumental portions of the service were carefully attended to. On Sunday evening a short recital followed the service, and it was significant to note the number of those who came from the other church services to hear Mr. Thompson for the last time. As a composer Mr. Thompson's talent is a genial one rather than grandiose and pretentious and the limitation has its wisdom and good sense. The variations on a popular hymn tune served to show that the special qualities and capabilities of the organ are well understood by the composer. His accompaniments to the vocalists were highly sympathetic. In fact we have seldom heard a better organ rendering of Sullivan's accompaniment to "Thou'rt passing hence" than on this occasion; it was subdued, but had all the passionate regret of the subject of the song. In his new sphere as Director of the School of Music and organist of the First Methodist Church in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Islaad, Canada, Mr. Thompson will have scope for his abilities, and his many friends in Ulster will follow his career there with the best of good wishes.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for all Hair Trouble

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, use it according to simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Special Agent, E. A. Foster, Sunnyside.
