CARS COLLIDE.—Two cars were in collision at the corner of Queen and Richmond streets in the city at 1:45 yesterday morning. Both cars were badly damaged but none of the occupants of either vehicle was seriously injured.

SERVICE FOR TRAINEES AT BEACH GROVE.—The 202 young trainees of the 21-year-old class, who have completed over half of their 30-day training period, turned out for church parade yesterday morning. The Protestant party under the leadership of Lt-Colonel F. I. Andrew, Commanding Officer of the unit, attended service in the recreation room of Beach Grove Inn which was conducted by Rev. G. S. Tanton of Port Hill. At the same time, 9:15 a.m., the Roman Catholics under the leadership of Rev. J. J. MacDonald paraded to the recreation hall and attended Mass which was celebrated by Rev. George McCormack of the St. Dunstan's Basilica staff.

THE morning sermon by the Rev. I. Judson Levy, B.A., was "The Last Book" Based on the story in 2 Kings 22:8. "I have found the book of the law in the house of the Lord." The book of the law had suffered one of its long periods of religious and social decline. The people had followed false gods, the book was lost in a broken and forgotten temple. The king, a heathen, reformed, King. The book of the law was found, and read and followed. In our modern days, for all too many people the Bible has become a lost book. Let us recall the fact that men sacrificed and suffered and died that this book might be placed in the hands of the people. As a part of such effort we may justly claim most of our social and moral reforms. Authorities claim for the Bible the highest place as a teacher of noble English. That is true, and more than that. In it we find the highest standards of morals and righteousness, the most glorious expressions of eternal hope. The Bible must be re-established not only in public worship but as a vital factor in our daily living, so shall religion regain its power. How poor is the soul of him who does not know the word of God! The morning anthem was Mendelssohn's "But the Lord is mindful of His own." Mr. Levy's eloquent evening sermon was "The Future of the Evening Anthem" was "Invisible" (Thimble). Mr. Russell Jones sang Evillie's "Out of the Deep." It was indicated that, under the auspices of the Prince Edward Island Baptist Association, the Indian service of the new minister of the congregation, the Rev. I. Judson Levy, B.A., would take place on Wednesday evening, October 30th, at 7:30. The Rev. J. G. Duncan, Moderator of the Association, will preside.

TEA BUILDING CANADA'S LARGEST HANGAR AT DORVAL. MONTREAL, Que.—Work has begun on the construction of a new hangar for the Trans-Canada Air Lines at Montreal's new airport, now under development at Dorval. The TCA directors authorized acceptance of the tender submitted by J. A. A. Leclair-Dupuis Limited, of Montreal. Co-operating with the Dominion Department of Transport in its construction program, the TCA expects to have the hangar ready for occupancy by July first next year. The Department of Transport is laying out runways and erecting an administration building. As a commercial airport, Dorval will replace St. Hubert, which will be taken over for war purposes. The TCA building will be the largest hangar ever erected in Canada as one unit. Retail sales of gasoline in Canada during the first half of 1940 amounted to 355,437,000 gallons compared with 146,729,000 gallons in the first six months of 1939 according to the Industrial Department of the Canadian National Railways.

ST. JAMES CHURCH. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather there was a good congregation at the forenoon service. About a hundred of the Veterans Home Guard under Major Duvall attended, and received a cordial welcome from the Minister, Major R. Moorhead Legate, D.D. Choosing for his text the words of St. Peter in his First Epistle, Chap. 3, Verse 15, "Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you," Dr. Legate emphasized the fact that Christianity was not merely emotional, but reasoned conviction as well. In these days of storm and stress especially every Christian should stand on a sure foundation, and be able to give the reason for the faith he holds. The Women's Guild with the hymn, "The Lord's My Shepherd" (Smart).

In Memoriam MR. JAMES DUFFY. On Monday, October 14th, 1940, there passed peacefully to his reward, at his home 106 Sydney St., an aged and highly respected citizen in the person of James Duffy. Born at Port August, August 1858, a son of the late Peter Duffy and Mary Gillan he came to Charlottetown fifty-three years ago and engaged in the trucking business at which he proved himself capable and trustworthy, as evidenced by his long service with the firm of Miller Brothers, and A. E. Toombs, music dealers. Charitable in word and deed the late Mr. Duffy has left a glorious heritage to his own family and all those who had the privilege of knowing him. In the present day conflict his life stands out as an example of everything good. During his illness he was attended by Rev. Louis Douglas, Mass., and George McCormack, who also administered the Sacrament of Extreme Unction. There are left to mourn, besides his widow, nee Bridget Beagan of Donagh, P. E. I., his daughters, Mable, Mrs. John L. Moreside, North Rustico, Frank, Charlottetown, "Wilfred gave his life in the battle of the Somme in 1916", Ernest in the Halifax, and Anne and Mrs. W. D. Briggan, Charlottetown. The surviving sisters are Ellen, Mrs. Norman MacDonald, Donagh, Bridget, Mrs. Charles Heam, Charlottetown, Mary, Mrs. James Ryan of St. John's, and Margaret, Mrs. George, Mrs. Frank Hughes, Port August. Predeceasing him were two brothers, Peter and William, and a sister, Margaret, Mrs. James Ryan of Port August. Surviving also are nineteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Wilfred and Ernest Duffy, R. C.N.V.R. of Halifax, lived with their grandfather since childhood. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from his late residence to St. Dunstan's Basilica on the morning of October 17th, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis Douglas, who also conducted services at the grave. The pall-bearers were: W. J. Moran, M. Forsythe, David Cavanagh, A. E. Toombs, James McAnulty, and W. D. Drake. May his soul rest in peace.

G. A. B. MACDONALD. Word has been received in this city of the death in Penitentiary, B. C., of George A. B. MacDonald, a former resident of Charlottetown, where he conducted a drug business first on his own account and later as partner with Lieut.-Col. D. A. MacKinnon, the firm being known as the Two Macs. Subsequently the partnership was dissolved and Mr. MacDonald continued in business alone. In 1914 he disposed of his interests and removed to Penitentiary where he has since been engaged extensively in fruit growing in the Okanagan Valley. He leaves to mourn a widow (nee Miss Minnie Peebles), one son Colin, in Penitentiary and two daughters, Jean of Winnipeg, wife of Dr. Jack Hazard who is now overseas, and May, who is married to Mr. Warren, a railway man in Ontario. Mr. MacDonald was a prominent and respected business man and was well known throughout the Island. The bereaved family will have the sympathy of many friends in this province.
