MONDAY

Mr. Earl MacKenzie and little daughters, Eileen and Irma of Long Creek, are visiting her father, Mr. George MacDougall and sister, Mrs. Florence MacIntosh at Cambridge, Mass., for the summer holiday season.

SUCCESSFUL—Mr. John P. Flood, Green Bay, has received word from Ottawa that he has passed the Civil Service examinations with high marks, which was held recently in Charlottetown. His many friends congratulate him on his success.

Miss H. L. Keefe of San Francisco, California, and her sister, Mrs. S. Loranger of Esparto, California, arrived in Charlottetown last evening on a visit to her old home at Morell. This is Mrs. Loranger's first visit to the Island since she left here over forty years ago. They expect to remain two months.

VISITING BISHOP—Yesterday His Lordship Bishop Hakenley, D.D. was present at the 8 o'clock celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Peter's Cathedral. Administered the Apostolic rite of Confirmation in St. Paul's Church at 11 o'clock; Preached in Christ Church, Cherry Valley at 3 p. m. and preached in St. Peter's Cathedral at 7 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mooney of Stellarton have for their guest, their niece, Miss Dorothy Gilroy, R. N. of Montreal, who is home on her vacation. She will spend the month of July in Charlottetown with her brother, Mr. Gerald Gilroy, before returning to again take up her duties in Montreal—New Glasgow News.

ELECTRIC STORM IN WEST OF PROVINCE—A bad electric storm broke over the western part of the Province on Friday between 9 and 12 p. m. It was particularly felt at O'Leary, Egmont Bay and around Lot 16. There was a good deal of rain as well. No damage from the storm has been reported as yet.—S.

FORMER RESIDENT—Miss Elizabeth Duff, daughter of Mrs. A. E. Duff, Charlottetown, P. E. I., who has been a student at the Halifax Ladies College, received her first collegiate certificate at the closing exercises of the College. Mrs. Duff who has been stopping at the Norfolk Hotel all winter, went down to be present at the closing—New Glasgow News.

SERIOUS LOSS—Two small barns, the property of Mr. Benson Lewis, St. Avars, were completely destroyed by fire Friday afternoon and the large barn adjoining saved with difficulty. When the message was received at the Fire Hall a number of the members of the Fire Department left for the scene with the motor sprinkler and their promptness, and effective work prevented more serious results. Fire which was discovered by the C. N. R. night watchman early Friday morning in a shed in the rear of the residence of Mr. Michael Smith, quite close to the railway property was extinguished by him before the arrival of the firemen who responded to a still alarm. The fire was on the exterior of the shed, about shoulder high. It is not known how the blaze started.

TUESDAY
SAD NEWS—Mrs. J. B. MacDonald has received the sad news of the death after a short illness of her son-in-law, Mr. John Bryson Thompson, Manager of the Imperial Bank of Canada at Kitchener, Ont. As yet no particulars have been received.

LEAVES ON EXTENDED HOLIDAY—Miss Mary McNutt, daughter of Major T. E. and Mrs. McNutt is leaving this morning for Montreal where she will join Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. DesBrisay and their daughter, Miss Betty, who sail Thursday by the S. S. Duchess of Athol on a three months trip through the British Isles.

RENEWING FRIENDSHIP—Mr. F. D. Machon accompanied by Mrs. Machon and young son Bobbie of Detroit, Mich., are visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Le Bert Machon of White Sands. It is several years since Mr. Machon visited his native province and Mrs. Machon's first visit, she being a Saskatchewan lady. Mr. Machon is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now attached to the staff of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, as cereal chemist. This company is one of the largest distributors of groceries and bakery products and is widely known in all American and Canadian cities. The Guardian with their many friends wish them a pleasant holiday in the Garden Province.

REV. DR. SAINT INDISPOSED—It is with regret that The Guardian learns of the serious illness of Rev. Dr. Saint of Kensington. His many friends hope that he will soon be restored to his usual good health. His daughter, who is a nurse in the Prince County Hospital, was called home last week on account of her father's illness. S.

A YOUNG OLD MAN—Mr. John Cann, a former resident of Long River, but now a citizen of Kensington, has passed the four score and eight years' mark by six months and is still going strong. Recently he set a steam boiler and built a flue for Mr. R. Dickleson, one for Mr. William Johnson and has brightened some cement bridges on Town Road. He is not afraid to ascend to the top of the highest chimney.—Y.

PAINFUL INJURY—Saturday evening Mr. Bert VanDerstine received serious injuries when he was thrown from a motor cycle to the concrete sidewalk. It appears Mr. VanDerstine was coming along near the intersection of Kent and Weymouth streets when he passed a car. Immediately following was a young lad on a bicycle and in endeavoring to escape striking the lad ran into the curb and was thrown over the handle bars to the sidewalk sustaining a broken collar bone, severing an artery in his wrist and injuring the other wrist.

WEDDING BELLS—On the evening of June 10th, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood, of North Tryon, were very much pleased to have Miss Ruth S. Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, of Crapaud, back at her old home to be united in marriage with Mr. Howard Schurman. The Rev. J. L. Fash officiated. The bride, wearing a gown of flowered chiffon with matching jackette of flat crepe and yellow picture hat, was given away by her father. The room was beautiful, with apple blossoms, lilies of the valley, narcissus and great banks of fern. The married couple left by motor for Nova Scotia and on their return will reside at Bedeque, P.E.I.

Rev. Charles De Wolfe and Mrs. White arrived in Summerside last week from Windsor, N. S., to visit Rev. Mr. White's parents, Ven. Archdeacon and Mrs. White. Rev. Mr. White took the services on Sunday in St. Mary's Church and also at St. John's, St. Eleanors. He will have charge of the parish during the summer months to allow his father, Ven. Archdeacon White, to take a well earned rest and to enable him to recuperate from his recent severe illness. The Holy Rite of Confirmation will be administered next Sunday at St. Mary's Church at the evening service and at St. Eleanors at 3 p. m. Right Rev. Bishop Hakenley, Coadjutor of Nova Scotia, will administer confirmation. S.

DAILY SERVICE—Changes in train schedules on the Canadian National Railways effective Sunday, June 28th provide for the inauguration of a daily service to Prince Edward Island. Train No. 39 will leave Charlottetown 7:00 A. M., same time as at present, arriving Moncton 1:35 P. M. where connections will be made with trains East and West. Service to the Island will be by Train No. 40 leaving Moncton 3:50 P. M. daily, same time as at present, arriving Charlottetown 10:15 P. M. instead of 10:25. This daily service will continue in operation until September 1st, Motor Train No. 205 will leave Charlottetown 7:20 P. M. daily except Sunday instead of 7:30 P. M., arriving Summerside 9:40 P. M., leave Summerside 9:45 P. M., arrive Tignish 12:30 P. M.

Last evening at the Canadian National Hotel, Mr. Martin K. Carmody, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus was the guest at a most enjoyable banquet tendered in his honor by the local Order. There were in all about two hundred present who enjoyed a very pleasant and instructive evening.

Mr. Carmody, Supreme Knight, accompanied by Mrs. Carmody and daughter, arrived in the city by the S. S. Sylvia yesterday morning from the morning service, and in the evening the Rev. W. E. Davigs, B. A., Cardigan, and Rev. Dr. Genge, Ph. D., Marshfield will assist, while Rev. Dr. Harvey Leathem, M. A., D. D., Ottawa, will preach at both diets of worship, and perform the dedication ceremony in connection with the memorial chancel and gifts. Great progress has been made with the alterations, which are now nearing completion. The new organ console has been installed in the chancel, connected with the organ by electric wiring. It has already been tried out with great success by Professor Kendall of Trinity Church and Mr. G. F. Hutcheson. In making the new connections it was discovered that one of the finest stops—the violin cello—had never been connected up, and consequently could never be used. This is a very valuable and effective stop and would have cost $500 had it been introduced now for the first time. Only one other organ in the Island has this stop, viz. the Catholic Church at Tignish.

CLERGY TO ASSIST AT ST. JAMES RE-OPENING AND DEDICATION SERVICES—Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, B. D., will conduct the devotions at the re-opening of St. James Church on Sunday July 5. The Rev. Fred Williamson, M. A., Malpeque, will assist at the morning service, and in the evening the Rev. W. E. Davigs, B. A., Cardigan, and Rev. Dr. Genge, Ph. D., Marshfield will assist, while Rev. Dr. Harvey Leathem, M. A., D. D., Ottawa, will preach at both diets of worship, and perform the dedication ceremony in connection with the memorial chancel and gifts. Great progress has been made with the alterations, which are now nearing completion. The new organ console has been installed in the chancel, connected with the organ by electric wiring. CONGRATULATIONS—Friends in Summerside and Miscouche will be delighted to hear that Miss Elaine Enck, niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gaudet, Summerside, has won the prize in her class for the highest marks in all subjects, at the young ladies school she is attending in Boston, Mass. Miss Enck is especially brilliant in Spanish and French. This young lady graduated from Notre Dame Academy, Miscouche.—S.

(Special to the Guardian)

Miss Beatrice Gallant, 18 year old daughter of John Peter Gallant, of Borden, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, when she was struck by a freight car in the station yard at Borden. The young lady was waiting to cross the track and had stood there for some time when she thought she would try to get across, as the cars did not appear to be moving. There was a long line of cars with the engine on the end farthest from where the girl was waiting. As she went to step on the track, the slow moving line of cars struck her and before they could be stopped one or two had passed over her, badly lacerating her right forearm. The cars were immediately stopped and Dr. Bell of Cape Traverse brought to the scene. After rendering first aid the doctor rushed her to the Prince County Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the arm below the elbow. Miss Gallant is resting as comfortably as can be expected under the circumstances, although suffering a good deal from shock. S.

WEDNESDAY
TIME EXTENDED—In reply to a telegram, L. T. Beaton, Bonshaw, sent Mr. J. H. Myers regarding the extension of time for applying for field inspection for certification on potatoes. Mr. Beaton received a reply stating that the time for application was extended to July 1st.

UNDERWENT OPERATION—Little Master Alex. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Murphy, of Emerald, was taken to the Prince County Hospital last Tuesday morning and operated on for appendicitis, and is now doing as well as can be expected. His many friends and schoolmates are looking forward to his speedy recovery.—E.

KEEPING HIS HAND IN—Mr. Stewart MacNutt, I. O. E. student at London University studying law, has an interesting and brightly written article on Hyde Park in a recent issue of King's College Record. Mr. MacNutt was formerly actively engaged in journalism here and being a grandson of the late Mr. W. L. Cotton has journalism in his blood.

IRVIN-STEWART—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. D. MacLeod, 1127 Washington Blvd., Oak Park, Chicago, June 10th, when Miss Muriel Stewart, of that place, became the bride of John B. Irvin, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John B. Irvin, of Philadelphia. The bride, who was unattended, looked charming in a pale blue ensemble of chiffon and carried a bouquet of pale roses and ferns. The happy young couple left on a motor trip through the lakes and Philadelphia. On return they will reside in Chicago, where the groom is connected with a well known advertising company. Mrs. Irvin is the daughter of Mr. J. I. Stewart, of Stanley Bridge.—(Island papers please copy).

CLERGY TO ASSIST AT ST. JAMES RE-OPENING AND DEDICATION SERVICES—Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, B. D., will conduct the devotions at the re-opening of St. James Church on Sunday July 5. The Rev. Fred Williamson, M. A., Malpeque, will assist at the morning service, and in the evening the Rev. W. E. Davigs, B. A., Cardigan, and Rev. Dr. Genge, Ph. D., Marshfield will assist, while Rev. Dr. Harvey Leathem, M. A., D. D., Ottawa, will preach at both diets of worship, and perform the dedication ceremony in connection with the memorial chancel and gifts. Great progress has been made with the alterations, which are now nearing completion. The new organ console has been installed in the chancel, connected with the organ by electric wiring. Only one other organ in the Island has this stop, viz. the Catholic Church at Tignish.

A FINE LITTER—MacIntyre Bros., French Village, are the proud owners of two one-year-old pups, which have a litter of eight young minks each. Beat this, who can?

TIME EXTENDED—The time limit for applying for seed potato inspection has been extended to July 1st, according to a wire received yesterday from Mr. J. H. Myers, M. P.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS—Mr. Moffatt McLean of Summerside has received the sad news that his brother, Thomas D. McLean, passed away on May 19th at his home in Penitencio, B. C., after a short illness of three days. The deceased was the son of the late Henry McLean of Glenholme, N. S. In 1922 he married Miss Ruth Cavanagh of Earncliffe, P. E. I. who has the sympathy of many Island friends in her sad and sudden bereavement, two small children, Master Billy, aged 7, and infant daughter Ruby Florence Loraine, are also left; other relations are his mother, Mrs. Henry B. McLean, two sisters, Mrs. George Trenholm and Mrs. Benjamin Bernie, and two brothers, Claire and Fred all of Halifax; Mrs. E. A. Murray of Truro; Mrs. David Sullivan of Moosejaw; Mrs. Clarence Henderson of Oxville, Alta.; and Mrs. William McLaine of Vancouver, B. C., and Moffatt of Summerside. The funeral took place on May 19th, from his home to the cemetery at Penitencio. Mr. Seymour Young, writing in the Truro Daily News of Mr. McLean's death, speaks of him as one of his dearest friends loved for his kindness of heart, loyalty to his friends and for those many admirable qualities of mind and heart that are characteristic of the best type of Canadian citizenship. He went to Penitencio about 20 years ago and there by diligence, thrift and unremitting toil made a home for himself and family. To the bereaved relatives the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.—S.

CELEBRATES DIAMOND JUBILEE—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McCourt of Emerald celebrated the 60th anniversary of their wedding day, June 23rd, 1931. They were the guests of honor at a dinner party at the Queen Hotel, Summerside, yesterday. A special table was reserved for the party, which included their ten children, Patrick, Michael, Louis, John, Walter, Annie, Catherine, Emma, Katie and Precilla. Only one break has occurred in the family, a daughter Beatrice, (Mrs. Everett McKenna) having passed away some time ago. Other guests at the party were two grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Delahgan, Emmitt Clow, Thomas Hammill, and Nell Crocken. After the guests had enjoyed the special dinner provided by Mrs. Perry, the genial hostess at the Queen Hotel, congratulations were extended to the happy couple and complimentary speeches made by some of the guests. The party then returned by motor to their home in Emerald where a reception was given in honour of the aged couple at their own home where their friends and neighbors called to extend heartiest congratulations. An address was read and Mr. and Mrs. McCourt were the recipients of some lovely gifts. In spite of 60 years of married life they are both well and happy and look forward to many more years of happiness together.—S.

RECEIVED DEGREE—Mr. L. R. Johnston, who has been attending Tufts Dental School, Boston, was among the graduates who received the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery on Tuesday, June 16th. Dr. L. R. is a son of Dr. J. A. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, who wish him every success in his chosen profession.—T.

VISITING NATIVE PROVINCE—Mr. Richard Arnett of Oshawa, Ont., is visiting his native province after an absence of forty-five years. He is the guest this week of his nephew, Mr. J. F. Arnett of Summerside. Mr. Arnett is delighted with the improvements in Summerside and considers that it compares favorably with any town of its size in Canada. Before returning to his home he will visit friends and relatives in Boston, Washington and Providence, R. I.—S.

THURSDAY
Miss Catherine McIntyre quietly celebrated her 105 birthday yesterday, June 24 in her room at the quiet farm house of her nephew, Mr. Peter S. McIntyre of Kensington. With whom she has lived for a number of years. The old lady is tenderly cared for by Mrs. McIntyre.

DEATH REGRETTED—The death occurred in the city yesterday afternoon of Mrs. George Gaudet, mother of Mr. W. A. Gaudet, business manager of the Patriot. The sad news will be learned with deep regret by many friends in this city.

The death took place at her home at Murray Harbor on May 17th of Mrs. Henry Sencabaugh. She had been ill for several months with heart trouble, but was apparently recovering when the end came quite unexpectedly. The funeral was from the home to the Murray Harbor cemetery, a large number of friends attending. Mrs. Sencabaugh was a highly respected woman who took an active part in community life.

RETURNED FROM INTERESTING TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Muttart, of Summerside, returned on Monday evening from an interesting trip to Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton and Quebec. They attended the Grand Lodge of the Orange Order, which was held at Hamilton, Ont. They also visited Niagara Falls, and the Houses of Parliament at Ottawa, where they were the guests of Mr. A. E. McLean, M.P., and Mrs. McLean.—S.

WINS GOLD MEDAL—Miss Norma Callbeck, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Callbeck, of Summerside, and a student of Notre Dame Academy, Miscouche, has received the gold medal for the highest marks in music. Miss Callbeck has completed four books of the progressive series of music in two years. Her average marks were 98 for practical music and 97 for theory. Miss Callbeck is to be congratulated on her achievement.—S.

PENSIONS TRIBUNAL—Fourteen out of the twenty five veterans who appeared before the Pensions Tribunal in Charlottetown last week had their claims granted and three others were sent to Hospitals for treatment and further consideration. A big proportion of the cases had been rejected previously, some of them three or four times by the Pension Board or the now defunct appeal board. Great satisfaction is felt by members of the Canadian Legion by the successful presentation of so many comrades. President J. J. Leightizer of the Legion was present at every hearing. His sympathetic attitude and ready desire to be of use in any way possible was commented on by Mr. N. W. Lowther, soldiers' advocate for the Province. Capt. Ewen McKenzie, formerly of Flat River, brother of Dr. David McKenzie, noted Island medico, now of Montreal, was a member of the sitting tribunal. Because of the broadening of the Pension Act returned men have increased opportunities and hope of establishing pensionable disability claims.

When the Court met Mr. Gordon Holmes said he wished to make an explanation. It had been suggested that Mr. Clark was subpoenaed by Mr. Johnston, and did not appear. That was not correct; Mr. Clark was not subpoenaed at all, as a matter of fact

RETURNED FROM HALIFAX—Dr. A. T. McDonald returned on Tuesday evening from Halifax, N. S. where he attended the Maritime Rifle Shoot.—S.

PASSES CIVIL SERVICE—Mr. John D. Fraser, teacher, Fort Augustus, received word from Ottawa that he has passed the Civil Service Examinations for clerk, grade 2, with high marks. His many friends congratulate him on his success.

ISLAND GRADUATES—Among those graduating in Public Health Nursing from the University of Toronto appear the names of Margaret E. Loft, of Charlottetown, and May H. Leslie of Morell. Miss Loft expects to take a position with the new Provincial Department of Health here, about the first of July. Congratulations.

WEDDING BELLS—The marriage of Thomas W. Hayer of High Bank and Agnes Gertrude Buell of White Sands, was solemnized on May 9th, 1931, at the Parsonage, Murray Harbor, Rev. T. R. Goudge officiating.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS—Mr. and Mrs. James Calder, two of Charlottetown's most respected citizens, were yesterday receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends on the 56th anniversary of their marriage. The Guardian joins in wishing them many happy returns of the day.

ELDERS ELECTED—The election of elders in the North Bedeque and Freetown United Church resulted as follows: For Freetown, Louis Cairns and Brewer Auld; for N. Bedeque; Archibald Stavert and Austin Jardine. These will be ordained at the usual preparatory service in the N. Bedeque Church on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. G. N. Somers of Margate will give the special address.

FIREMEN ANSWER CALLS—At two o'clock yesterday morning fire discovered in a building known as McCarthy's stable was quickly brought under control and extinguished by the firemen. Later in the morning, about 10 o'clock an alarm brought the firemen to the residence of Mr. Edward Haywood, 309 Fitzroy Street, where the kitchen roof was ablaze. This was extinguished without difficulty. The only damage done was a hole made in the roof.

FIRE CALL LAST NIGHT—The firemen responded to a call about 11:45 last night for a fire in the cellar of Mr. Menton Whitlock's Bookstore, Great George Street. On arriving the firemen could find no blaze, only a dense pall of smoke coming from the back cellar. The chemical was used with a little water to quench the smoulder. There was little damage, if any, to the cellar, but it is expected that the smoke, which enveloped the store caused a rather heavy loss of stock.

The final session of the Grand Communication was called to labor at 7:30 p. m., when after certain routine business had been disposed of, the election of officers was proceeded with and resulted as follows: Grand Master, John E. Sinclair; Deputy Grand Master, R. A. Gordon; Senior Grand Warden, S. M. Daniel; Junior Grand Warden, F. M. Pidgeon; Grand Treasurer, W. J. Drake, P. G. M.; Grand Secretary, Ernest Kemp. The Grand Master made the following appointments: Grand Chaplain, Rev. E. Bridge-water; Grand Lecturer, J. M. Murley, P. G. M.; Senior Grand Deacon, C. E. McNutt; Junior Grand Deacon, Howard Ward; Grand Marshal, Robert McLaren; Senior Grand Steward, Frank McFarlane; Junior Grand Steward, J. L. Douglas; Grand Standard Bearer, R. K. Clements; Grand Sword Bearer, Elmer MacLeod; Grand Pursuivant, Lloyd Proude; Grand Tyler, Robert Douglas; Treasurer, Benevolent Fund, W. K. Rogers, P. G. M.

The installation of officers was then proceeded with in accordance with ancient Masonic custom. W. P. Doull, P. G. M., as installing officer assisted by the Grand Marshal.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the Right Rev. Dr. Hakenley for his inspiring and timely sermon at St. Peter's Cathedral during the afternoon.

FRIDAY
VISITING SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nicholson and little daughter, Jean, are visiting Summerside, the guests of Mr. Nicholson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nicholson.—S.
