

Remember When

(By The Canadian Press)

Detroit Tigers' player-manager, Gordon (Mickey) Cochrane, was named the most valuable player in the American Baseball League five years ago today.

Mt. A. Wins Over St. F.X. And Dalhousie At Maritime Intercollegiate Field Meet

Rangers' Farm System Proves Real Value

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17 (CP)—New York Rangers' farm system, which six years ago with initiation of the first amateur hockey school, showed its real value when manager Lester Patrick lined up his clubs here today for the coming campaign.

The scramble for replacements is practically settled this year. Only two vacancies require serious deliberation. They were created by sale of right winger Cecil Dillon and relegation of Larry Molyneux to Philadelphia Ramblers.

Activities of the Ranger chain began with the school Oct. 9 and will include at the end of the month, Rangers, National League entry, and Philadelphia Ramblers, International-American Leaguers, New York Rangers, and Philadelphia Ramblers.

Rangers have an overflow of candidates and six or seven will likely be optioned to Butch Keeling, former Ranger coaching Kazias City Greyhounds of the American Association.

EXCELLENT BUT HARD

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP)—Australian cricket balls were used in some English first class matches this year at the request of the Australian Board of Control.

STUCK WITH SPARROWS

OAKLEIGH, Australia (CP)—The Field Shooters' Club here lost 1,000 starlings when the wire netting around its aviary was cut.

Some Island Athletes Who Have Enlisted

Many familiar faces will be missing in Island sporting circles for a while due to the number of athletes in the Province enlisting for active service.

Bucky Walters Voted Most Valuable

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—Bucky Walters, Cincinnati's 27-game winner, learned today, probably with mixed feelings, that he had been voted the National League's most valuable player for 1939 by the Baseball Writers Association.

Shore To Play Against Bruins Teammates

HERSHEY Pa., Oct. 17 (AP)—The spectacle of Eddie Shore playing against his Boston Bruins' teammates was assured today when that National Hockey League All-Star came here to compete arrangements with manager Art Ross for a two-game exhibition series between his Springfield Indians of the International-Hockey League and the Stanley Cup defenders in Boston on Oct. 30 and 31.

Maple Leafs Get Down To Serious Training As Season's First Snow Falls

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Oct. 17 (CP)—The first snow of autumn fell today as Toronto Maple Leafs got down to serious business in the campaign leading to the National Hockey League schedule that opens Nov. 2.

Halifax Team Seeks Entry In C. B. H. L.

HALIFAX, Oct. 17 (CP)—Harry Butler, Halifax sportsman, said tonight he had applied to the Cape Breton Hockey League for a franchise for a Halifax team.

U.S. And Canada Golf Champs Meet Today

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17—Bud Ward of Spokane, Wash., United States amateur golf champion, met today in Vancouver the Canadian amateur king, here tomorrow in what might be called an unofficial play-off for the North American amateur crown.

Canadiens To Play Pre-season Exhibition Tilts

MONTREAL, Oct. 17 (CP)—Coach Pete Muldoon announced today that Montreal Canadiens would play three exhibition games, in addition to the Siebert Memorial Game Oct. 29, as tune-ups for their National Hockey League start against Chicago Black Hawks here Nov. 5.

PLAY BALL DOWN UNDER

BALLARAT, Australia (CP)—In 1930, the Baseball Umpires' Association was launched here with four teams and 36 players. Today there are 29 teams and more than 300 players.

RIDES CURIO

ROBERT, Tasmania (CP)—A freak bicycle built by E. Meadowcroft of Hobart is now ridden constantly by H. Rushton who finds the armchair seat very comfortable and praises the double-chain drive.

TWO SPORTS GONE

BRISBANE, Australia (CP)—J. B. Figgis, a yachting enthusiast, and Len Mossop, a cricketer, died in Brisbane the same day. The two veterans were 46 and 55 respectively. Mossop had five cricketer sons.

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—It is appropriate that Wladyslaw Raczekiewicz (pronounced Ratch-KYE-veesh) should head the new Polish government-in-exile formed recently in Paris.

Outstanding Upset At Track Meet In Ont.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17—Len Robinson provided the outstanding upset of the annual intramural track meet of the University of Western Ontario today when he sped to a close win over Johnny Loaring, British Empire Games sprinter, in the 100-yard dash.

WHOLE TEAM TO ENLIST

LONDON (CP)—At a banquet given the touring Australian Rugby Union football team, Dr. W. F. Matthews, manager of the tourists, declared the whole team would join the forces on their return to Sydney.

MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA

John Henry has been a racing judge for many years, but recalls his worst day in January, 1935, when he officiated in two races ending in dead-heats, two wins by half a head, and one by a neck.

BELLE RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On September 19th the Belle River Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Singleton with eleven members and two visitors in attendance.

OLDSTERS MEET

ESSENDON, Australia (CP)—Stars of a gathering of former Essendon footballers here were Harry Heath and Charlie Watt, both 83, who played in 1878. Heath of the reunion was Alex Dick, who captained the team to their first league victory in 1891 and retained the position in 1892-3-4.

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

Remember!

Player's MILD cigarettes have waterproof paper which does not stick to the lips

EXILE BY BIRTH LEADS IN EXILE

&lt;