Egan then presented Father McQuillan, who was formerly of Charlottetown, with a pair of field glasses on which was the inscription: "Presented by St. Mary's Gentlemen's Teaching society to Rev. P. McQuillan, March 1916." Father McQuillan, who taken by surprise thanked the teachers for their kind remembrance and spoke about the pleasure it was for him to be associated with them. Rev. Dr. Foley, rector of the cathedral, Rev. Dr. Curran, president of the Gentlemen's Teaching society, and J. A. Neville, spoke about the work Father McQuillan had accomplished in St. Mary's parish during the time he had been attached to the cathedral, and wished him "bon voyage" and all good success, until after the awful strife is ended, when he would be with them all again to do his duty still.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES MCKAY.

The death occurred at Springfield, Lot 67 Wednesday evening, after ten days illness of Mr. James McKay aged 67. Mr. McKay was one of the progressive farmers of this part of the province. Through his industry and intelligence he acquired a very large farm, and at his death was the owner of four hundred and twenty-five acres, all of which he cultivated in the most up-to-date manner. He was a prominent member of all the organizations of his community, and was always on the lookout for ways by which he could improve himself. He attended several sessions of the short course both at the Agricultural College, and at the University of New Brunswick. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. His wife predeceased him several years ago. He leaves to mourn the following sons and daughters: D. L. McKay, Duluth; Calvin, Heber, Ira, John, William at home and Elmer with the 106th Battalion; Miss Cheater; McLeod, French River; Blanche, Mabel, Emma and Ada at home. The funeral takes place today to Clifton Cemetery.

MRS. DANIEL TAYLOR.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Daniel Taylor of St. Peter's Island took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her father Mr. Douglas Currie, Kent Street, Rev. G. C. Taylor and Rev. D. McLean officiated. The funeral was one of the largest seen here for some time, many being present from the country as well as the City. The remains were conveyed to West River where interment took place in the Presbyterian Cemetery. The Rev. D. McLean officiated at the grave. There is much sympathy for the bereaved husband and family of three children, and also the parents. The late Mrs. Taylor was a most estimable woman. She enjoyed excellent health until two years ago when she was stricken with sickness from which she never fully recovered. She was a kindly, christian loving woman, friendly and considerate to all, and her early death will be greatly mourned by all who knew her. Her memory will be cherished not only by those who were near and dear to her, but by the large number of people who attended the funeral from West River, strikingly evidenced the esteem in which the bereaved families are held.

MRS. JAMES DRAKE, CORNWALL.

On Saturday evening, February 26th, the spirit of Mrs. James Drake, Cornwall, was released from suffering body and winged its flight to the realms of the blest. On Monday afternoon, February 28th the funeral services were held at the funeral home attended by a most representative company of relatives, friends and neighbors, desirous of paying their last tribute of respect and affection. Her pastor, Rev. George Orman conducted the services and based his remarks upon the following passages Revelations of the Chapter 16 and 17th verses, also Romans 8 Chap. 18 verse.

The hymns selected by her son Lemuel H. were most appropriate. Jesus Lover of My Soul, Safe in the Arms of Jesus, and Blessed be the Tide that binds. For sometime previous to her decease Mrs. Drake had been a sufferer and there were indications that her departure might be expected but she rallied again. Her bereaved husband after a union of 35 years deeply felt her loss, as do her children. A faithful wife, an affectionate mother, has passed to her reward. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following daughters, Mrs. Hector McLean, Miss Maggie Drake at home; Lemuel H. at home. The sisters are Mrs. George Reid, Chicago; Mrs. Hamm and Mrs. Roderick Mackenzie, California; brothers—Edward McCallum and Neill McCallum, Brackley Point. The following were the pall bearers: Messrs. Hammond Crosby, William H. Boyle, Hector McNeill, Samuel Frizzell, Archie Macdonald, Hugh MacMillan.

UNTIL THE DAY DAWN AND THE SHADOWS FLEE AWAY.

JAMES H. DEVEREAUX.

The sad news was received in Charlottetown yesterday of the death in Boston of Mr. James H. Devereaux, School Inspector for the Western Inspec-toria of the Queens County. Mr. Devereaux was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Devereaux, of New Haven, and had taught school, first at Tignish and latterly was Principal of Kelly's Cross a position which he ably filled for some twenty years. His school at Kelly's Cross held probably the highest record in the past list to Prince of Wales College and from it came perhaps the greatest number of professionals, of any school in the province including eight priests and three hundred teachers. He was appointed School Inspector about four years ago and in this capacity also provided a faithful, earnest and conscientious worker. His death, which followed an operation in the Massachusetts Hospital, Boston, is a great loss to the educational life of this province and a serious blow to his wife and family who will have the heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends in their sudden bereavement.

A Most Extraordinary Cure of Epileptic Fits

MOTHER HAD APPEALED TO THREE DOCTORS IN VAIN—CURED FOUR MONTHS AGO BY USE OF DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

This letter from Mrs. Noxell is endorsed by Mr. H. J. Mahaffy, druggist, Port Colborne, Ont., as being true and correct. While it reports a most remarkable cure of epileptic fits by use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, it only goes to corroborate similar cures reported by others.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Noxell, R. R. No. 1, Humberstone, Ont., writes: "I cannot help writing to you, as I want you to know what a blessing Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills have been to my boy. He was taken with very violent fits, would twitch all over, his eyes would turn towards his nose, his jaws set and his lips turn almost purple. He would clench his fists tightly, become unconscious and then go into a long sleep. After several hours he would wake up sighing and so weak he could not stand. I was afraid he would die and took him to the doctor, who pronounced his case epilepsy. As his medicine was not effective and the fits continued, I took him to another doctor at Port Colborne, Ont., who seemed to make him worse.

"As the boy's nerves were in such a state that he could not sit down or lie down, and the fits continued, I took
