THANKFULLY received at Falconwood one package of magazines from Miss Ellis.

REV. R. J. CAMPBELL will preach at Heartz's Hall on Sunday the 30th. inst at 3 o'clock.

A large number of citizens took advantage of the excursion yesterday afternoon by the Jacques Cartier to Orwell and Brush Wharf.

THE Matriarch of the P. E. I. Hospital desires to convey her thanks to the ladies of St. James church for kindly remembrance yesterday—a freezer of ice-cream.

WE regret to learn of the very painful accident which happened to Robert Gillespie, of New London, on Monday. While cutting hay, he somehow got his foot caught in a wheel of the mowing machine and had it badly crushed.—Farmer.

REV. WM. C. MURDOCK preached for the Orangemen of Kiamare L. O. L. 1463, on Sunday evening last, in the Lct 11 Presbyterian Church. A number of Orangemen marched in procession from Mr. Aust'n Ramsay's residence to the church. The spacious building was packed to the doors and a large number could not gain admittance. It is estimated that between four and five hundred people were present. Mr. Murdock preached a very eloquent and instructive sermon from Croin. 10 Chap. and 1 Verse: "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." The Orangemen wish to convey their sincere thanks to Mr. Murdock, also to the Lot 11 and Tyne Valley choirs for preparing and rendering such appropriate music.

TRYON NOTES.—MRS. A. R. Lewis and Miss Lena Lewis, of Summerville, Mass., are spending a few weeks in Tryon, the guests of Mrs. S. E. Reid.—Rev. Robert Bynon, formerly of Tryon, preached in the Baptist church on Sunday evening. He is visiting his sister, Mrs. Peter Howatt.—Mr. Welton Howatt is spending his vacation at his home in Augustine Cove.—Mr. Angus McDonald, who has had one of his farms advertised for some time, sold it on Wednesday to Mr. Simmons of Lct 16 for a handsome sum. Mr. Simmons is to be congratulated on his having secured one of the best farms in the neighborhood.—The Methodist Sunday school picnic was held last week in Mr. R. F. Lord's field. The day was perfect and the picnic everything that could be desired. Mr. Chas. Grogett and Mr. Alexander Dunbar have exchanged farms. Mr. Grogett desiring to go into farming more extensively than heretofore.—A very painful accident occurred in Tryon on Tuesday last while Mr. Minto Robblee was cutting hay. He was engaged in going the first round and was attending to the hay which was heavy and very much beaten down by the rain, and did not notice his young brother, who was picking up sticks ahead of him. He ran into him cutting both his feet, one very badly, he felt of the foot hanging only by a piece of skin. The young fellow ran around the machine to Minto with his foot in this condition, and held the two parts together while his brother carried him to the house. Drs. Robertson and Dockerty were immediately telephoned for and bound up the feet which had bled considerably. He is doing as well as can be expected.

"Necessity knows no law." It is a law of Nature that the blood must be kept pure, and Hood's Sarraparilla does it.

Swarms of People at the Bee Hive daily confirm our belief that we'll have a bigger rush next half year, than we had last. First half was a star though.

SCOTTISH gathering—The following changes are made in the programme of the Scottish games: No 1 is changed from "heavy hammer" to "light hammer," and no 4 is changed from "light hammer" to "putting stone," and is thus changed from an amateur event to a professional. The corrected programme appears in this issue.

NEW INVENTIONS.—The following inventors have recently been granted patents by the Canadian Government through the Agency of Messrs. Marion & Marion, Solicitors of patents & Experts, New York Life Building, Montreal; 63,353, Emery Coulon, Blaton, Belgium.—Manufacture of artificial stones 63 348, Sauveur Parotte, Ste. Agathe de Lotbiniere, P. A. Plante, Quebec, P. Q.—Acetylene gas generator; 84,613, George Adams, Franklin Centre, P. Q.—Combined needle and Thread Holder.

ELLERSLIE NOTES.—Haymaking has begun here and although the crop is not as good as that of last year, it will be a fairly good one, and the quality will be very much better. The other crops are looking well.—Mrs. Wm. McLes Walbank and family, Montreal are spending the summer at her old home, Biddeford. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dystant and family, who have been spending a few weeks on the Island returned to Halifax yesterday morning. Mr. Edward England left this morning for Montreal where he will undergo an operation in one of the hospitals. We sincerely hope to hear of his complete and early restoration to health.—Captain and Mrs. Richards celebrated the fifth anniversary of their wedding on Monday. A number of their immediate friends were invited in, and a very pleasant evening was spent.
