Head of Hillsboro And Vicinity

Miss Etta Jardine was in the city recently on business.

Mrs. Alonso Birt was a visitor in the city the guest of her sister Mrs. William Condy.

Miss Joyce Jardine spent a few days in the city visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Douglas were visitors to the city in the past week.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the school where the annual auction sale was put on and a neat sum of money realized.

The recent heavy snowfall is keeping the roads in bad condition, but a few days of sunshine will soon dry them up.

Mr. Walter Douglas, Potato Inspector in Souris, spent Sunday at his home in this district.

Mr. Frank Jardine and Mr. Walter Myers are busy at the potato house at Douglas. Owing to the scarcity of refrigerator cars there are a lot of potatoes still in the warehouse.—Hills.

NEED HOSPITALS

MONTREAL — (CP) — Local hospital accommodations for treatment of children now is critical, Dr. John de Belle, general superintendent of the Children's Memorial Hospital, reported. On one week-end alone, 12 children needing hospital treatment had to be turned away, said Dr. de Belle.

played the senior team of Charlottetown at Charlottetown recently. The Charlottetown team won by a very small margin. This team also defeated the York team in the playoff shoot in York by a still smaller margin. Although the two competing teams were well matched, Charlottetown team was presented the trophy. Now again the junior teams of Charlottetown and York had two lively matches, one in Charlottetown, and then the playoff match was shot off in York last night. Charlottetown although only with 6 points over defeated team took home the glory of a well-matched shoot.

The regular meeting of Day Spring Mission Circle met at the home of Miss Minto Foster on Tuesday, April 12th, with the leader for the evening, Miss Francis Vessey, opening the devotional period by singing "Blest be the Tie That Binds." The Study Book was used. Two chapters were read, by Miss Frances Vessey and Mrs. Howard Watts. "Do You Know" facts were read by Mrs. Peter Proud, Mrs. Earl Ling, Mrs. Dewar Swan, Mrs. Raymond Vessey, Mrs. Louis Vessey, Mrs. Allan Swan, Mrs. J. H. MacCallum and Miss Gladys Crockett. Bible Quiz, Matthew, Chapter 10, was put on by Mrs. Howard Watts. "O Canada" brought the devotional period to a close. President Mrs. Dewar Swan opened the business period. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll call responded to by 20 members; 1 new member joined and one visitor was welcomed. Answered roll call by verse of scripture with word Vanity. Discussion of ways and means of raising allocation. Collection of $10.24 was received from Sunday's Part-time service. Collection for evening $1.55. Invitation was extended to Central Christian Church to bring their play to York Hall. Watch for date. Discussion of style vase and inscription on vase was continued. Roll call for May meeting to be answered by verse containing walk. Bible quiz, St. Matthew, chapter 11. Refreshment committee for play was appointed and all members take sweets. Sale of candy; all members making up 3 lbs. of sugar. Place of meeting was not definitely decided. Lunch was served by committee in charge. Meeting closed by Benediction.

The teaching of music in York Hall to the school children by Mr. Johnston, highly talented musician of Charlottetown, has been well worth while as a great improvement in the singing is noted.

Preparation for the spring work is now on. Most farmers have all turnips and potatoes (seed and table stock) shipped. Messrs. W. D. Cooke, Ira Lewis, Allison MacMillan and several private shippers all aided in shipping the large volume of produce grown in this locality.

The senior and junior departments of York School are again opened after the Easter holidays and the pupils are very glad that they are now on the last lap of the school year. A steady improvement in all grades show the results of our two painstaking teachers. They were very much interested in the newer methods and regulations discussed at the Teachers' Convention in Charlottetown.

Among the activities of York Small Bore Rifle Club during the winter months, were two interesting shoots in competition for the lovely trophy donated by York's enterprising merchant, Mr. Vernon Dennis. The senior team of York

York And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vessey had as a welcome guest over the week-end, Miss Sue Jones of Hazelbrook.

Mr. Allison Profit, president of the Farmers' Association, was a guest of Mr. Robert Chappell on Tuesday.

Mr. King of the Holstein Pure-Bred Breeders' Association was in the community this week inspecting and testing the Holstein herds.

Mr. Walter Mallett has now the community's grain cleaner in operation and many of the farmers are taking advantage now to have their seed grain in readiness.

The snow storm of April 16th has again made the road throughout York and Covehead in a very slippery condition. About 2 miles of this new improved gravel road had been dragged and presented a road of mid-Summer appearance.—L.
