CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Gallant, New Orleans, were pleasantly surprised on the evening of March 1, when their neighbors gathered at their home to extend their heartiest felicitations, the occasion being the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. A congratulatory address was read to Mr. and Mrs. Gallant and a suitable gift presented. Although taken entirely by surprise, Mr. and Mrs. Gallant in their usual courteous manner thanked their guests for their thoughtfulness, after which a delicious luncheon was partaken of. The remainder of the evening was spent in pleasant social intercourse, then all departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gallant many years of wedded bliss.

Crop failures are more likely to occur in India than in any other country in the world because of its tropical location and dependence on monsoon rains.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN D. MacQUEEN

The death occurred suddenly at Uigg on February 22nd, of Mr. John D. MacQueen in his 70th year. He had been about his farm work as usual every day and was unloading hay from a sleigh when he collapsed and in a few minutes had passed away. The doctor arrived somewhat later and found the cause of death was heart failure.

Mr. MacQueen was a son of the late Donald MacQueen and his wife Anne Shaw MacQueen. He was born on the old homestead at Uigg where he spent his entire life. He was twice married. His first wife, the former Jessie MacLeod, predeceased him some twenty or more years ago. The present Mrs. MacQueen who survives him and who was with him at the time of his sudden passing, was formerly Miss Lorna Shaw of Lorne Valley.

Mr. MacQueen was a very friendly man and a fine neighbour. He was a member and regular attendant of St. Andrew's United Church and frequently worshipped at neighbouring churches when there was no service in his own.

The funeral took place on February 24th from the nearby Baptist Church, Rev. A. S. Weir conducted the service and was assisted by Mr. Byron Howlett, student pastor of the church. A large gathering of friends from Uigg and surrounding districts were in attendance. Interment took place in the cemetery beside the church.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. MacQueen in her bereavement.

The pallbearers were Messrs. S. E. MacLeod, Ernest Shaw, Joseph McIsaac, Bernard MacPherson, William MacKinnon and Milton Furness.
