Leadership In City Hockey League Is At Stake In Tonight's Game

Army and Saints tangle in a City Hockey League encounter at the Forum tonight with leadership at stake. The game promises to be another typical see-saw fight that these two teams waged the last time they met.

Definite improvement has been noted in the last few games of the schedule. All the clubs are very much in the thick of the fight for the honors and with the schedule on the last lap victories are becoming more and more important. Tonight's battle should, therefore, be one that will be fought at a high pitch from the opening gong.

Both teams are confident of the outcome and both will have their strongest lineups on hand.

Saints will likely dress the same band of players that have been going so well while the Army will have Win Cudmore back at his wing position but will be minus the services of Simpson, their defence man who at present is out of the City.

The game will get underway at 7.45 sharps and an increase in attendance would really be appreciated by the players and league officials.

Navy Team Defeated By Y Squad

Holding their opponents to nine points in each half Y. M. C. A. basketball squad last night atoned for a previous setback when they defeated a team from H. M. C. S. Queen Charlotte 41-18 in an exhibition encounter played at the Y. M. C. A. gym.

Checking closely and finding the basket regularly, the winners were never in danger throughout the fast and at times well-played encounter. George Young on the Y team led the snipers, garnering 10 points with his team-mates G. Gay and A. Rice right behind him with nine each.

Lineups and scores:

Y.M.C.A.—Gay 9, Cullen 7, Young 10, McKinnon 4, McNeill 1, Rice 9, Goodwin.

Navy—Turnbull, Scott 2, Tittley 6, Lawrence, Junkers, Lennox 6, Brooks 4, Wright, Jubenville.

McSpaden Wins Phoenix Open

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 7—(AP)—Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Philadelphia, the winter season's top golf money winner, added a $1,000 war bond to his earnings by shooting a 70 for a two-stroke victory today over Byron Nelson of Toledo O., in an 18-hole play-off to decide the Phoenix Open.

The Philadelphian was in difficulty only once on the first nine. His tee shot went into the rough on the 305-yard fifth. Although tree branches interfered with his swing, he pitched safely to the green.

They ended the nine with cards of 35 each, one under par.

Nelson's prize for second place was a $750 war bond.

New Glasgow Races

REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press

Len Harvey spotted Toronto's Larry Gains 37 pounds at London 10 years ago tonight and pounded out a 15-round decision to hold his British Empire heavyweight championship. The colored battler had Harvey in distress in the opening rounds but the Englishman came back strong to win the unanimous decision.

YEO THEATRES

You Can't Escape Forever

GEORGE BRENT
BRENDA MARSHALL

IT'S THE HIT TO LEAVE YOU LIMP WITH LAUGHTER

SOURIS, THURSDAY, 10th

MONTAGUE, SAT. 7.30 AND 9.30 P. M.

COMING — YEO THEATRES "YOU CAN'T ESCAPE FOREVER" LAUGH-PACKED FILM, STARS GEORGE BRENT AND BRENDA MARSHALL

The film stars George Brent and Brenda Marshall who lend a realistic touch to their roles.

Brent, as the managing editor, runs a story that clearly conveys his suspicion regarding a certain reformer's "natural death." Not having substantial proof, he gets his paper into an embarrassing spot. As a result, he is forced to take over the heart-throb column.

Although disgusted with his new job, and having to take a lot of ribbing, especially from Brenda, who handled the spot before he took over, it is through his column that Brent finds a lead to the exploits of a gang of racketeers.

He asks Brenda to help him, because the leader of the gang uses a lonely hearts club as a blind for nefarious activities. Through a series of exciting and amusing incidents, they bring the racketeers to bay, and in so doing, reveal that the reformer whose death was supposed to have been a natural one, was the victim of foul play. Brent goes back to his old managing editor job, but shows that he gained some valuable experience in running the heart-throb column, by taking the advice he had given out so often—he gets married, and to Brenda, of course.

PORT ARTHUR, Feb. 7 — (CP) — Both Allan and Memorial cup finals will be played in the east this year, Frank Sargent, president of the C. A. H. A. said here tonight in announcing dates and venues for the 1943-44 senior and junior hockey playoffs. The national junior final is booked for Toronto and the senior final at Toronto, Montreal or Ottawa. Both series will start April 15.

ORLANDO, Fla., Feb. 7 — (AP) — The condition of Joe Tinker, baseball star of decades ago, took a turn for the worse today.

Hospital attaches reported that the condition of Tinker, suffering from influenza aggravated by diabetes and a heart condition, was "poor but not critical."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 — (AP) — Hammerin' Henry Armstrong, one time owner of three world boxing titles, knocked out Lew Hanbury, Washington hopeful, in the third round of a scheduled 10 rounder bout here tonight. ## SOME TAKE monastery, Cassino's outstanding historical monument, makes the task of taking this commanding height more difficult. Although the Germans are known to be using it as an observation post and probably have guns in or near its buildings, Allied gunners have been careful not to hit the ancient abbey.

British 8th Army troops inland from the Adriatic Sea drove into the villages of Pizzoferrato, 2 1-2 miles northwest of Sant' Angelo, and Montenerodomo four miles south of Torricella.

The Nazi controlled Rome Radio asserted that an Allied force had been surrounded and wiped out in the Carroceto (Aprilia) area, 21 miles southeast of Rome, with 1,000 taken prisoners, and that German planes had destroyed an Allied tank column in the Pontine Marsh area, east of the Anzio beachhead. There was no Allied confirmation of either action.

De Luce, presumably referring to the incident which caused the first German claim, said the enemy failed to annihilate a British unit which was cut off for a short time north of Carroceto Thursday night and fought its way back safely.

"Events of the past week appeared to have persuaded the command of Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson, Allied commander in chief in the Mediterranean, to present a sombre picture of the Anzio operation to the public," De Luce wrote.

Medium and fighter bombers hammered Nazi transportation lines in the Rome area, while Allied fighters four times ripped into German planes which were intervening in the fighting about Cassino.

Official reports indicated that Allied aerial pounding of the enemy's rail lines in central and northern Italy had forced the Germans to use motor transport to meet the Anzio beachhead threat.
