GOLD NUGGETS IN A GOOSE - A well-known citizen had the agreeable surprise of finding gold nuggets in his Christmas goose this year. It was purchased in the usual way from his butcher and when his good-lady was cleaning the bird she came across several small lumps of gritty material which glistened. She gathered them together, and after washing them, submitted them to a jeweler who duly certified that they were the precious metal. Inquiries go to show the goose was reared at Colville, and whether there will be a prospective mine there, or whether the goose had merely a penchant for jewellery as a digester, remains to be proved.

HAMPSHIRE SCHOOL CONCERT The Hampshire Concert and Christmas Tree were held Thursday evening, December 22nd, in the beautifully decorated hall at Kingston. Much credit is due Mr. Golden Barrett. It is needless at this time to make further comments on his workmanship as an artist. The large attendance of parents and interested friends were all delighted with the little tots who recited and sang in their own inimitable way. Their precision and grace reflect very creditably on Miss Florence Dockendorf, teacher for almost five years and Mrs. Cecil Stewart, who acted as organist.

The beautifully decorated Christmas Tree was laden with many gifts by the parents and pupils. There was also a gift to each pupil from their teacher.

Mr. Stephen Ackland was chosen as Chairman, the duties of which he performed to the satisfaction of all in his pleasant and genial manner. The high standard of order brought forth many comments on his ability as a worthy man in the right place.

Following was the excellent programme: Chorus, Christmas Time. Recitation, "Welcome", Frances Larter. Exercise, "Christmas Greeting" by three boys. Solo, "When Christmas Chimes are Ringing", Mary Edwards. Dialogue, "Little Pitchers". Recitation, "The Snow Storm", Eleanor Ackland. Duet, "Santa Claus is Coming", Stanley and Dale Proude. Recitation, "The Christmas Birthday", Verna Kitson. Solo, "Santa Claus", Phyllis Easton. Dialogue, "Jake Hayseed in the City". Recitation, "The Crippled Dolly", Mildred Tremere. Chorus, "We'll Get Ahead of Santa Claus", School. Recitation, "Just Looks Like Pa.", Alec Larter. Exercise, "Merry Christmas", by fourteen pupils. Recitation, "A Christmas Wish", Johnny Edwards. Dialogue, "Old Saint Nick", Clifton Stewart. Recitation, "Santa's Home", Dorothy Easter. Sale of Candy. Duet, "Sing a Song for Santa Claus", Peggy and Gladys Easter. Dialogue, "A Sudden Discovery". IN MEMORIM MR. PETER R. MATTHEWS. A gloom was cast over Alberton and vicinity when it was learned that Mr. Peter R. Matthews of Alberton had passed away on Saturday night, Dec. 17th, 1927, after only a few days illness. Twelve days before his death he was stricken with paralysis and all that medical aid and tender nursing could do was to no avail and he passed peacefully to rest on the above mentioned date.

The funeral service which was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence was conducted by the Revs. Mr. Morrison and Mr. Weir. Mrs. Edward Forsythe very sweetly sang, "I Will Sing of My Redeemer," a favorite hymn of the deceased. The pall bearers were his six nephews, Messrs. Samuel, Herbert and Frank Fraser, Percy MacNeill, Eldred Hutt and Emerson Matthews.

The deceased was well and favorably known throughout the province and will be greatly missed in the community where he has resided for so many years. He firmly believed in and practised the golden rule and was ever ready to give
