SMELT FISHING POOR—Smelt fishing is very poor in Island waters this season, Mr. S. T. Gallant, Inspector of Fisheries reports. The catches are poorer than those of last year, and prices are correspondingly low.

HEAVY SNOWFALL—The heavy snow yesterday occasioned a tie-up in traffic in parts of the City yesterday. The snow ploughs, however, cleared the principal streets, and greatly facilitated travel by car or sleigh. When the storm abated early in the evening a few citizens cleared the snow from the sidewalks in front of their premises. The majority were satisfied to await a new day before setting to work.

MORE BOOKS OUT THAN EVER BEFORE

LONDON Feb. 10.—(By The Canadian Press)—According to the Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record the year 1930 has been the most prolific in the history of British publishing. Financial stringency is said to have had a stimulating effect on reading, as can be proved from the statistics of public libraries. When money is scarce for the theatre or the talks, then the joys of the armchair and the book are discovered. 3278-11

IN MEMORIAM

MRS WALTER MURTAGH

In the early morning hours of December 29, 1930, the angel of death visited the home of Walter Murtagh Newton and called therefrom his dearly beloved wife, Catherine, at the early age of twenty five years. Mrs Murtagh had enjoyed the best of health until about seven months ago and subsequently entered the Prince County Hospital later she entered the Montreal General Hospital where very little hope was held out for her ultimate recovery. She returned home and, although everything possible was done for her, she failed to recover.

At her home in Newton she exemplified the most marvellous courage and cheerfulness, endeavoring to the very last to hope for the better although fully resigned to the Holy Will of God. She was weekly visited by her pastor Rev. M. J. Smith, D. D., who administered to her the rites of the Holy Catholic Church.

At her home in Newton she will be sadly missed where, besides her husband she leaves to mourn three small children Joseph aged 5, Mary Catherine aged 3, and James Louis aged 9 months.

At her former home in Emerald she will be missed where she leaves to mourn her father, Joseph White, and a number of brothers and sisters. The esteem in which she was held in Newton and the surrounding districts was testified by the numbers who visited the home and the large concourse who followed the remains to St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor and all that was mortal of a truly beloved wife and mother was gently laid to rest. In the cemetery adjoining as the old year was fast ebbing out and there to await a glorious resurrection.

The funeral was under the direction of P. A. Monaghan, Kinkora, and the casket bearers were:—C. Greenan, P. J. Cairns, J. M. Mulligan, W. P. McKenna, A. Greenan and W. White.

Mass Cards were received from:—The family, her father, Rev. W. V. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. John Greenan, John Murtagh, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Farmer, Carrol Hughes, Mrs. Francis McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Carr, Mr. and Mrs. John J. White, Mr. and Mrs. William Deighan, Patricia White, Mrs. James and Mary E. Greenan, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Curley, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Greenan, Mary L. Murtagh, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Greenan, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mulligan, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Breenan, Minnie Cairns, Mrs. Loretta Greenan, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Monaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greenan, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hynes, Aloysius Croken, Mr. and Mrs. John T. White, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacIsaac.

Spiritual Offerings—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Moynagh, Rose Greenan, Teresa Mulligan, Mary Greenan, Mr. and Mrs. Michael McKenna, Clara Greenan, Mr. and Mrs. Michael McKenna and Cynthia Reeves, Mrs. Francis McKenna, Helen Greenan, Jennie Curley, Eunice Greenan.

Letters of Sympathy—Rev. W. V. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McKenna, St. Peter's, Miss Mary L. Murtagh, Brookling, Sask., Miss Lamb, Prince County Hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Murtagh, Lewiston, Me., Miss Isabel Hill, Millview, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Crossgrove, Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. ## Approve New Haig Statue

REPLACES FORMER MODEL WHICH AROUSED OBJECTIONS OF LADY HAIG AND OTHERS

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A. F. Hardiman, the sculptor, has made another attempt upon the national memorial to Earl Haig which is to stand in Whitehall, not far from the Cenotaph. The model of his first effort met with strong disapproval of Lady Haig. Her Ladyship was supported by a considerable body of opinion. Mr. Hardiman, therefore made another model, and this, with his first effort and a bust of the late Earl Haig, has been on view in the Royal Gallery of the House of Lords.

Whatever the merits may be of Mr. Hardiman's original creation, there is not much doubt that it lent itself to criticism by those who knew perhaps a little about art but a fair amount about horses. There was a quaintness and solidity about the original conception which made the distinguished soldier look a deal more massive than he ever appeared to those who knew him, and the charger upon which he was mounted appeared to be of the cart-horse kind.

The new model, much bigger than the other, includes details of harness that were missing, and it shows a Sam Browne belt—which was not on the first; but it does not show the hat, which in the earlier model, the Earl clasped lightly in his right hand.

The great change is the approach of the horse to realism. It is now a noble looking beast, of the ultra-modern type. Previously the horse was squat and broad in neck and chest. The only other statue already erected of Earl Haig adjoins the Parade Ground of Edinburgh Castle.

—TO ATTEND FUNERAL — A telegram received on Tuesday morning the 3rd inst. by Mr Amos Boulter of Springfield West conveyed the sad news that his brother, Mr. Ed. Boulter had passed away at East Waukegan, Mass. the previous day as a result of an injury received by falling from a building. Mr. Boulter lived only two hours after the occurrence of the accident particulars of which have not yet been received. Mr. Amos Boulter left here on Wednesday morning to attend the funeral service which was to be held on Friday. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Boulter's sorrowing widow who previous to her marriage was Miss Beatrice Ramsay of Knutsford and his eighty five year old mother Mrs. Ellen Boulter who has for some time been living in the States with her sons. Mr. Boulter was fifty-five years old. He was a skilled carpenter and while on the Island did a lot of work in this line as well as attending to his farm in Milburn. Several years ago he disposed of his farm and removed to the United States, where he attained a high position with the Bird Manufacturing Co. He won many friends both at home and abroad and will be greatly missed not only by relatives and friends who enjoyed his visits home but also by those from this vicinity who are resident in Boston and vicinity. The sympathy of the community is extended to those who have been called upon to endure such a severe trial.—

The lambs offered were mostly bucks and were sold for $7.

Hogs were moving slowly. Bacon and butchers including lights were sold for $9.50 and between 300 and 400 hogs were sold for $9 to $9.50 fed and watered. Selects were paid $1 premium per hog over bacon.

"DEATH REBUTTED — The sudden death in the Charlottetown Hospital of Miss McIntyre, so soon after the death of her father, a month ago, is very saddening. Miss McIntyre was the sole heir to her father's fine property, etc. She had been sick only a day or two when she entered the hospital. Her remains were brought to her home at St. Columba by train for burial at her parish church cemetery. She leaves no mothers or sisters. There is an uncle, James McIntyre, residing at the Fisherman's Home, Snug Harbor, Long Island, N.Y., and a nephew, Mr. Angus D. McCormack, and his mother, (her aunt) residing at Kinkora School.

The following is the standing of Kinkora School for the month of January:—

Grade X—1, Leslie Keefe; 2, James Ranahan; 3, Eileen Greenan.

Grade IX—1, George Donnelly; 2, Mae McCarville; 3, P. J. Greenan and Mary Keefe (equal).
