Mrs. Wilfred Dunphy was a business visitor to the city on Friday.

Mrs. Roddie O'Hanley was in the city on Saturday on business.

Mr. J.B. Jay, Morell, postmaster, was in the city on Friday on business.

Mr. Fred Morrissey, who was visiting his old home here has returned to his home in Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Jane Flynn has left for Boston to spend two months with her sons and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lapierre are preparing to leave shortly for Montreal where they will spend the winter months.

Miss Agatha MacDonald has taken a position in the city. She left on Wednesday for her new duties.

Mr. Maurice Martell will be the new janitor for the church in Morell Village this winter, we are informed.

Mr. Ed Donnelly, City, was a week-end visitor with his sister here, Mrs. M.B. Keefe and Mr. Keefe.

Mr. John Keefe who conducted a grocery business for some time on the Morell road is at present moving the store away from the road up to his house where he will carry on the business.

Mr. Hector Perry arrived here over the week-end to visit his mother. Hector has not been here for a number of years now. He makes his home in Halifax.

On Sunday His Excellency the Bishop of Charlottetown arrived to confirm two groups of children. His Excellency arrived with his secretary Rev. Father McCardie in time for 9:30 Mass at the Church of St. Lawrence and confirmation was given after Mass. In the afternoon the Bishop and his party arrived at the Little Flower Church where a number of children received their confirmation. In his address the Bishop warned of the terrible things that come from drink and drunkenness and warned young and old to be aware of this great enemy. He told the children to always remember their pledge to abstain from all liquor at all times.

*FILLED FOOTWEAR at the Montague Shoe Store.

Mr. E.V. Jay, of the staff of Holman's Ltd. was here on business Tuesday and Friday of last week.

Mr. Horace McEwen, painter and decorator, City, and formerly of Bristol, was here on business last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McEwen who spent the summer months at their summer home here, have returned to their home in the city.

*PLAN TO ATTEND the big Community Fair at Montague on October 6th, 7th and 8th. There is fun for all so come and bring the family.

Mr. Doug McEwen is having a new house built in the village. He built one a few years ago but has sold it and now has several carpenters working on the new one that he hopes to move into this fall.

Mr. George Barry has purchased a lot of land in this vicinity and had his house moved out to the highway from St. Peter's Harbor. It is more convenient for him as he is employed with Dingwell and Rossiter's Morell store.
