HERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW

THAT RENTED HOUSE THEY'D BEEN LIVING IN FOR YEARS WAS BEING LOST TO THE OWNER WHO HAD DECIDED TO MAKE A FEW CHANGES—

WE REALLY SHOULD SPRUCE UP THE PLACE. THAT FENCE IS AN EYE-SORE!

NEP! AND THE HOUSE COULD USE A COAT OF PAINT. MIGHT AS WELL GET THE PLACE LOOKING DECENT AS LONG AS WE'RE LIVING HERE!

SO RIGHT AFTER THEY GAVE THE JOINT A FACE-LIFTING THE OWNER ALSO DECIDED TO MAKE A FEW CHANGES!

THANKS TO MRS. LOLA DOE, RT. 15, BOX 254, MILWAUKEE, WISC.

I'M SELLING THE HOUSE, FOLKS! MIND IF I SHOW THESE PEOPLE AROUND?

MY! WHAT AN ADORABLE PLACE! WE'LL TAKE IT!

WILL NEXT WEEK BE TOO SOON TO TAKE POSSESSION?

AFTER THAT START, ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN!

AGENTS: MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Albert Aitken, Mrs. Byron Stewart, Miss Harriet Clair. AGENT GEORGETOWN: Waldon Lavers.

The Guardian may be bought at any of the following places in Montague: Miss S. A. Llewellyn; Mrs. Clay. In Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar and N. H. Richards & Son.

FITTED FOOTWEAR at the Montague Shoe Store.

At the close of the regular meeting of Acme Rebekah Lodge, Montague, the members enjoyed a social evening of bridge and a ten-cent lunch was served by a committee of the ladies.

Mrs. John Turner left for his home in Halifax after spending the past several months in Montague, guest of his mother, Mrs. Edward Turner. Her friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Turner is much improved in health after her recent illness.

It is with pleasure that we note that the three businesses burned in the recent Masonic Temple fire are continuing at new locations with Hyndman Co. Insurance office and Maritime Electric on the south side of the bridge, and the Montague Electric at MacLeod & Greene's.

The regular card party sponsored by C. W. L. was held in Little Pond Hall the 23rd. A good time enjoyed and nice sum realized.

MONTAGUE 7, ST. PETER'S 1

Bristol and Vicinity

The Misses Margaret and Gertrude Henneberry have taken up residence in the village with Mrs. Amrose Barry, for the winter months.

Mr. Anselm Lapierre, who has been employed as cook on the dredge at Egmont Bay since last summer has returned to his home here.

Miss Teresa Rossiter and Miss Mary McInnis teachers at Morell School were in the city on Saturday on business.

P. A. Macdonald, proprietor of the Morell restaurant was a business visitor to the city on Tuesday.

Friends of Mr. John C. Peters, will be pleased to learn he is slowly recovering his health after being confined to his bed since early last November.

Friends of Mrs. John O'Neill, will be sorry to learn she has entered the Charlottetown Hospital to undergo an operation and all wish her a speedy recovery.

The sincere sympathy of this vicinity is extended to Mrs. Nellie Macdonald, on the recent sudden death of her thirteen year old son Keith, killed in a shooting accident near his home.

Our attention has been called to another old-timer in this vicinity who is still going strong. He is Michael McCarthy, who will be ninety years young very shortly. Hall and hearty Mr. McCarthy, attends early mass every morning at the parish church.

Mr. Jerry McAdam, owner and manager of the fleet of trucks known as McAdams transfer and bus service was a business visitor to the city Saturday. No doubt more new trucks will be added to his line this spring as fresh fish will be trucked to Boston.

DANIELS AND CUTLER

On Wednesday, December 28th in the Chapel of Our Lady Congress Hall, a quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized by the Rev. Father Brennan of Helen Bernice, daughter of Peggy and David Cutler of Montreal, (formerly of Charlottetown, P.E.I.) to George Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Daniels, Fort William, Ont.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked very charming in a blue velvet street-length dress, matching hat with pink feather, pink mitts and pink shoes. Her bouquet was of pink roses. The bridesmaid was Elsie Saligan and Conroy. The reception was held at the Queen's Hotel. The couple will reside at Fort William, Ont.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Bert MacDonald of Montague, P. E. I., was an out-of-town guest.

Address and Presentation

On Wednesday evening, January 4th, a number of friends gathered at the Victoria Hall, the occasion being presentation to the bride and groom Mr. and Mrs. Ivan L. Howatt (nee Lorraine Lowther).

The bride and groom were taken to decorated seats by Miss Annie MacDonnell and Mr. John Knox, while Mrs. Keith Boswell played the Wedding March.

Mrs. Scott MacQuarrie was called upon by Mr. Keith Boswell to read an address while Mrs. Norman Boulter presented a well filled purse. Ivan in his jovial manner, on behalf of the bride, thanked all present for their gifts, and all joined in singing "For they are jolly good fellows."

While lunch was being prepared by the ladies, Mrs. Kenneth MacLean and Mrs. Ruth Boulter kept the time occupied by singing. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing, music being furnished by Mrs. Keith Boswell and Mr. Alan Boswell. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Howatt many years of happiness.

The following is the address: Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Howatt. Dear Lorraine and Ivan:—We, your friends and neighbours of Victoria and surrounding districts, take this opportunity of expressing our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes on this most important event in your lives.

We are indeed happy that you plan to make your home here. Our youth is our greatest asset, and we sincerely trust that more boys and girls will see fit to settle in our beautiful village.

To you Lorraine and Ivan we wish to extend our hope that your future may be blessed with health, wealth and happiness.

We appreciate your upright qualities and friendliness and your ever readiness to help others. At this season of the year it is doubly appropriate that we exercise the spirit of giving. On behalf of your friends and neighbours we ask you to accept this gift together with our best wishes that fortune will smile on you and your path be strewn with happiness.

Signed on behalf of your Friends.

Canadian Farmers Marketing Union

OTTAWA, Jan. 30 —(CP)—Canadian dairy farmers today are considering a proposal that they organize under marketing legislation to protect themselves in the future.

The proposal was contained in a statement of policy issued following the annual convention of the dairy farmers of Canada.

About 60 delegates re-elected Gilver McMillan, Huntingdon Que., as president and voted to retain the Association's present headquarters in Toronto under direction of Eric Kitchin, secretary-manager.

"The dairy farmers of Canada recognize their responsibility to supply the consumers of Canada with the most efficiently produced, high-quality dairy products," schoolroom. Sterling Bruce and Barry Dawson were appointed to assist the program committee for this meeting. There being no further business, the following program was carried out: Due—Joan Howatt and Sterling Bruce, Health Dialogue by ten pupils. Two games were very much enjoyed by all after which the meeting adjourned.

Splendid Cough Syrup Easily Mixed at Home

To get quick relief from a distressing cough, mix this recipe in your own kitchen. Once tried, you'll say it's your favorite cough medicine, and it's so simple and easy.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. Anyone can do it. No cooking needed. (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.)

Then get 2½ ounces of a special from any drugist. This is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for its Pinex is Swift Acting. Saves Money. Easily Mixed.

Quick action on throat irritations. Put the Pinex into a 16 ounce bottle, and fill up with your syrup. Thus you make 16 ounces of very efficient medicine, and you get four times as much for your money. It tastes fine and never spoils.

And for quick, satisfying relief, it is splendid. You can feel it penetrating the air passages and taking hold of the cough. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and eases the soreness. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get your usual sleep. Must try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.
