

HORSE RACES AT FREETOWN

The races at Freetown on Thursday, 18th inst., proved to be something of more than usual occurrence, and despite the down pour of rain, drew out a fair field of horses, also a large crowd of eager spectators who filled the entire course (one half mile) the condition of the track was all that could be wished for.

Summary: Breeze Jane (Bramble) owned and driven by Otto J. Murphy 1. 1. 1. Bonanza Princeton (Princeton) owned and driven by Hugh Smith 1. 1. 1. Dewy (Royal Dean) owned by J. F. Williams driven by J. W. Palmer 1. 1. 1.

Throughout the entire race Breeze and Bonanza acted well, and finished each heat the latter about a length behind. Messrs. Murphy and Smith are to be congratulated on procuring such excellent horses, which will no doubt be favorably heard from in the parks in the near future. Bonanza Princeton is a beautiful dark brown, packing, gelding, and by his high form and style fully characterizes his royal sire (Princeton), and indeed might be called Money Maker II.

A Hint to Ladies When Shopping.

If you wanted anything badly, and when you got to the store were persuaded to take something else instead, when you came away wondering you feel a little disappointed? As if somebody had "got one over you" and not for your benefit, mind, but for their own profit?

Just when you proved that the something which was represented as being "just as good" as what you asked for was not as good—was not to be compared even with the real thing, wouldn't you feel still worse? This is just the case about Kam-Bak. Like all good things it has many imitations. When buying it just ask for Kam-Bak and see that you get it. The name is protected by law, and is clearly seen on each packet. Don't have anything else! Then you won't feel that somebody has made a few extra cents out of your lack of firmness.

Jack Crawford, the Western Poet and Scout, will give daily, afternoon and evening an illustrated lecture and monologue of life on the prairie. For forty minutes, visitors can go through all the experiences of early western life, in addition to this lecture, exhibitions of moving pictures will be given. A lot of new subjects have been received from abroad. Among them are humorous scenes, quaint bits of scenery in far-away climes, important happenings, athletic contests and mysterious happenings. The wonderful Postoffice will reproduce well-known scenes and plays. A number of new figures and groups have been added to the wax collection. The new King of Belgium has his place among the "Rulers of the World." Many new groups are in process of construction and will be placed during the coming week. In addition there will be many rearrangements of existing groups. Muscular and Mental Fatigue Broken Sleep and Bad Dreams Cured by a Simple Remedy.

"My sickness had so many curious symptoms that I think I shall try and describe them," writes Mrs. A. Maury. "Muscular fatigue seemed to follow every slight exertion. I would soon feel the weakness of the muscles of the back, limbs and arms. Even the fixed position of light sewing would be sufficient to bring on tiredness. In a little while, if I picked up a book, the letters would look blurred, and if I didn't drop it, headache would result. My thoughts would not go freely—I was irritable. The stomach seemed to be out of order. I was unable to get to bed, and when I finally fell asleep I had to give up trying to do things, and began taking raw eggs and milk, whether I had an appetite or not. I also took Perrozone. I am glad now I did this. Perrozone gave me an appetite and added digestion of my food. I could soon see how my blood was being renewed, and its color reddened. When my blood improved my nerves also improved, and by persistence with Perrozone, lots of food and rest, I recovered perfectly from the load of worries and anxieties that made my life so miserable. I am now every minute weak and worried woman, to use Perrozone, one or two tablets with meals."

It's a vitalizing nourishing tonic—full of the properties needed for building the body—that's what Perrozone is—try it. It's per box, six for $2.50. All dealers or The Canadian Perrozone Co., Kingston, Canada.
