PRINCE EDWARD MONDAY—TUESDAY

Everyone should see "Crossfire," Dore Schary's outspoken detective story against anti-Semitism. The thing to admire in the film is that it frankly links anti-Semitism with murder, brands the anti-Semite as a dangerous menace to society who must be stopped. . . . Young makes a powerful five-minute speech against intolerance . . . one of the few times that a Hollywood film has had the courage to speak up forthrightly on a subject of deep concern to all people.

Miss Mary Craig, Charlottetown, is a visitor to Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Hutcheson.

Mrs. Barbara Stewart, who has been visiting in Montague for two weeks, guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. MacDonald, has left for her home in Ottawa.

Dr. Gordon Scannell, New York, is spending a few weeks at his home in Georgetown on his annual vacation.

Mrs. J. A. Lawson, Charlottetown, was a recent visitor to Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beck.

Rev. Harry Vickerson, Ontario, is a visitor in Montague, guest of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacGregor.

Miss Julia Prosper, Georgetown, who recently graduated from Grade XI, Montague, has joined the staff of Clark Bros., Montague.

His many friends will be glad to learn that Mr. Austin Fraser has returned home from the King's County Memorial Hospital where he underwent treatment for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin MacPhail, who have been spending the summer in Ottawa, have left for their home in Ottawa. While in Montague they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. MacDonald.

Mr. Lyle Boehner, who was recently married, is having a house constructed on the new MacDonald avenue. On the same street, Mr. Arnold Vandierstine and Mr. Harold F. Landry are also constructing new houses. Last fall Mr. George Nicholson was the first resident to construct a house on this new street.

On Wednesday night a house warming party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Peardon on the occasion of their moving to a new residence. The many who attended were entertained with dancing. Lunch was served by the ladies to the assembled guests, who tendered Mr. and Mrs. Peardon many lovely gifts.

On Monday night the Montague Tennis Club held a meeting in the Curling Rink with the president, Mr. Harold Stewart presiding. It was reported that the show held at Yeo's Theatre was very successful. The tennis courts were reported to be in excellent condition and that many of the members were playing in the evening. The work expended during the early part of the year has been of distinct advantage to the members during the summer, and with the presence of the Red Cross instructors for six weeks many have learned to play, thereby forming the nucleus for tennis clubs of the future.

Fishermen are undoubtedly interested in learning that the August run of trout is now entering the streams, and with flying start many of the anglers are already out on the banks. The work expended during the early part of the year has been of distinct advantage to the members during the summer, and with the presence of the Red Cross instructors for six weeks many have learned to play, thereby forming the nucleus for tennis clubs of the future.

"PRINCESS BEAUTY SALON," Souris, closed for holidays, Sept. 1st to Sept. 11th inclusive.

Mr. Cyrus A. Shaw, Montague, is receiving congratulations on having successfully passed his second year C.A.U. examination with the Great-West Life Assurance Company.

A number of young people from Montague enjoyed a delightful dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sadie MacKinnon who will return to Ottawa this week after spending the past three weeks in Montague. A special feature of the evening was a jolly sing-song around a huge bonfire.

"ARRIVAL AWAITED"—The congregation of St. Mary's Parish, Montague, are looking forward to the arrival of Father Louis A. Dougan who has been recently appointed to that charge. Father Dougan has been assistant at St. Mary's Cathedral, Halifax, for the past year and a half, and is expected to return to the Province the latter part of this month to take up his new post.

The death of Mrs. William Power, formerly of Queensport, N. S., occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Daniel Power, Montague, on August 19th. Mrs. Power had been confined to her bed since coming to Montague nearly two years ago. Her remains were conveyed to Queensport where the funeral service was held on August 21st. Relatives from Montague attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. William Power, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Power and their son, Hugh, and Mr. Levi Power and his daughter, Eva.

The July meeting of the Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, was held at the home of Miss Russell MacLaren, New Perth, with the president, Mrs. James Currie, presiding. The meeting opened with the hymn "The Lord's My Shepherd" followed by the Scripture read by Mrs. Emory MacNeill and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. The study entitled "Our Commission" was led by Mrs. N. J. Nicholson. This chapter was especially interesting as it dealt with the missionary work of the Gordons who had been Frasers and MacLarens. Her many years of faithful service in the Society were fittingly acknowledged by the members when they presented to Mrs. MacLaren a Life Membership Certificate. A presentation being made by Miss A. J. MacLeod who spoke very feelingly of the untiring interest of the honored member not only in the Missionary Society but also in many other organizations of the Church. Although taken by surprise, Mrs. MacLaren, in a few well-chosen words, expressed her appreciation for the honor bestowed upon her, after which the members sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds." A delicious lunch was served on the piazza by a committee of the ladies.
