—OLD RESIDENT PASSES.—One of Souris' oldest residents in the person of James McIsaac passed away Friday 6th in the 77th year of his age. For 55 years he lived in Souris, with the exception of a few years spent in Sydney. He was born on his father's estate a mile out of Souris town. On coming to age he disposed of the entire estate to four different parties. Andrew Bushey, James Keys, Wm. Ledwell and Charles Isaac, making four of the finest and most fertile farms on the entire Souris Line Road. He followed the machine business both here and in Sydney, of which he was an expert. One of his sons made the supreme sacrifice in France. His wife predeceased him two years ago, since when his daughter kept house for him. A son in Boston came home to his bedside the week he died. Another son is a locomotive engineer located at Borden. Mr. McIsaac was highly respected by the people in Souris who knew him best.

PERSONALS

—Mr. Stephen H. McAulay, Souris Line, has returned from Boston much improved in health, after undergoing an operation in one of the hospitals.

—Friends of Mrs. F. A. McAulay, nee Marguerite McPhee, will be pleased to learn that she is now practically well as ever, after her long and dangerous sickness which confined her for over two months in bed with her nurse in attendance, and daily visits of the doctor for one full month.

—Father Rooney's visit to Boston was the occasion of a grand reunion of the East Point boys and girls in Boston, in the Intercolonial Club, Roxbury, of which the priest was the central figure. A real reception was tendered him by the sons and daughters of his St. Columbia parishioners. Father Rooney is expected home this week.

self on tour of Britain, France, and Canada, in the 1927-28 season. As the team neared Australia on the return journey, the problem arose as to who should have the mascot, a preserved koala, or little native bear, ornamented with the team's colours. Like a modern Solomon, the manager, Gordon Shaw, decreed that the first boy-baby born to a member of the team, should win the prize. That innocent little bear, which visited the greatest football fields of the world, has caused many heartburnings and much rivalry. So far four of the footballers have married since the tour and each has been blessed with fatherhood of a daughter.
