

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

BOSTON, September 1—John E. Lodge, son of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, was married late yesterday at the rectory of the cathedral of the Holy Cross to Miss Mary Catherine Connolly, by Rev. Father Finnigan.

LONDON, Sept. 1—A native St. Petersburg correspondent of the Jewish world describes an alleged campaign to drive the Jews out of commerce and industry. He asserts that the government agents everywhere are active in their endeavors to kill off trading by the Jews.

All the government contracts, says the correspondent, find their way solely into the hands of the Black Hundred supporters of Premier Stolypin.

Special to The Guardian. CHESTERFIELD, Sept. 7—Prosecutor Vendenburg declared today he had decided not to request the reopening of the Beattie case on account of the discovery of an alleged eye witness.

The State considers it already has a sufficiently strong case against Beattie.

The alleged eye-witness was a farmhand employed near the scene of the crime and said he actually saw Beattie kill his wife, knock her from the automobile and shoot her as she lay insensible on the ground.

Witness said he witnessed the deed, and the following day Beattie gave him a suit of clothes and money to go away.

He kept quiet at first, because he was afraid. The man says he does not want Beattie to escape from punishment. He will testify.

STAMFORD, Conn., Sept. 3—Because his employer, Patrick Fahey, refused to give him money to purchase intoxicants, Joseph Heider seized a shotgun this afternoon at the Fahey barn in Springdale, a suburb of Stamford, and shot Fahey dead. Fahey was on a staircase in the barn when he was shot. Heider in the lift above fired down at him. The charge from the shotgun tore away the right side of Fahey's face and part of the neck.

SHOT WITH SON'S GUN. The gun was the property of Fahey's son. He had left it in a closet.

The Renewal a Strain.

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health.

Kola-Bigie is a sparkling, clear, absolutely pure and refreshing beverage that will make you enjoy life to its full. It will tone up the system, remove thirst and brace you up generally. The best summer drink on record. Ask your dealer for it. Bigelow & Hood, Toronto, N. S.

AT LAST, A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

"Fruit-a-lives Cured Me" Says Mrs. Baxter.

"I was a helpless cripple from Rheumatism for nearly a year. All down the right side, the pain was dreadful and I could not move for the agony. I was treated by two physicians without help. I saw 'Fruit-a-lives' advertised in 'The Telegram' and decided to try them. After I had taken one box, I was much better.

When I had taken three boxes, I could use my arms and the pain was almost gone. After taking five boxes, I was entirely well again. The cure of my case by 'Fruit-a-lives' was indeed splendid because all the doctors failed to even relieve me. 'Fruit-a-lives' cured me. Mrs. LIZZIE BAXTER.

Fahey was in the barn. Heider was under the influence of liquor, the police say. Fahey had discharged him for being intoxicated and the police say he fired the shot in revenge.

Fahey staggered down the steps and out of the barn. Twenty feet from the staircase he fell dead. His wife and children were running from the house toward him when he died. Heider staggered away and disappeared in the woods. The police were notified and began a search for him. At 8.30 tonight he had not been found.

Fahey was in the marble and granite business and he also dealt in real estate. He was well to do. He is survived by a wife and children. A NE'ER-DO-WELL. One of his daughters has been teaching school in New York. Heider, a ne'er-do-well, was once a clever athlete.

lete. He won fame here as a baseball catcher. For a number of years he has had no set occupation, but has drifted about from place to place doing odd jobs. He has had many friends despite his careless habits. He had been in no serious difficulty before. He is of middle age and unmarried. His parents live in Stamford.

There were no witnesses, the police say, to the shooting. Arthur Wilson, another employee of Fahey, was in the loft of the barn at the time. He says he heard the shot and saw Fahey stagger and fall. When he looked for Heider the latter had disappeared. Wilson told the police Fahey spoke sharply to Heider about his condition shortly before the shooting. Fahey had come in from Stamford in his automobile. "There has been too much drinking around here," he is quoted as saying to Heider. "It will have to stop."

THREATENED WITH DISCHARGE. Heider then demanded his money and Fahey refused to give it. Heider said something insulting and Fahey is quoted as replying, "I'll slap your face if you ever speak like that to me again. You'll get through here tomorrow."

Heider then went up stairs and said to Wilson, "I'll settle this with Fahey right here. I'll show him he can't boss me." The next thing Wilson knew Heider had the gun in his hands and had fired down upon Fahey.

Special to The Guardian. HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 5—In the 2.25 trot today Billy C., a son of Brazilian's, got the change belonging to the first money after a hard battle for the place with Briar Queen who forced him to a mark of 2.187.

It took five heats to decide the race and there was much speculation as to which might win and no doubt some were hurt badly in the pools as the Queen was the favorite.

Orwell Bell got third money, was well hunched throughout the race and showed much gameness; possessing the qualities of a classy trotter.

In the 2.35 trot Protein a Moncton entry won the big end of the purse. Bottom, a Fredericton entry, got second. Best time 2.231.

The track was fast and good and there was nothing to it in this race except Protein.

The attendance was good today. Monday almost nineteen thousand people viewed the splendid racing. The cattle parade in front of the grand stand looked good.

There will be a battle tomorrow in the free-for-all between Mary Cromwell, King Arion and Queen Marie.

The floods are the worst that have been experienced in many years. The province of Anhwei is submerged to a greater depth than ever before.

It is estimated that 95 per cent of the crops have been destroyed. PEKING, Sept. 4—Summer floods along the Yagete-Kiang and its tributaries, and also other great rivers, are repeating in various provinces the conditions in Anhwei and Wiangsu, which have not yet been relieved.

In the province of Anhwei early in August, hundreds of thousands of acres of rice were destroyed by the floods and half a million persons were rendered homeless.

Many thousands of square miles are now submerged and the bodies of hundreds of people lie unburied. "The damage to the ship," he stated, "is less than I had expected. There is nothing whatever to justify the report that she cannot be repaired, or that she would not be seaworthy after repairs.

Mr. Desbarats could not give no estimation as to what it will cost to fix up the ship. Temporary repairs are now being made, awaiting the departure of the Cornwall from dro dock.

Not Salts, Oil Or Pills But Cascarets

No odds how sick your stomach; how hard your head aches or how Bilious—Cascarets make you feel great

You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage-way every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.
