

DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

THE CRY OF THE DREAMER

I am tired of planning and toiling In the crowded hives of men; Heart-weary of building and spoiling, And spoiling and building again.

I am sick of the showy seeming, Of a life that is half a lie; Of the faces lined with scheming In the throng that hurries by.

I can feel no pride, but pity For the burdens the rich endure; There is nothing sweet in the city But the patient lives of the poor.

And the child-mind choked with weeds! The daughters heart grown willful, And the father's heart that bleeds! No, No! from the street's rude bustle,

LT.-COL. C. CREW READ. Sussex.

A Few Reasons Why The Premier Silver-Black Fox Co is The "Premier" Co. Because: (1) It's foxes are the best obtainable. (2) The directorate is composed of thoroughly reliable men who have large holdings in the Co. (3) Mr. Thomas Moyses, one of the most successful ranchers of today, has charge of the foxes. (4) It was under Mr. Moyses's management that the Peerless Co., paid 900 p. c. dividend in 1913. (5) A very large percentage of foxes ranches by him have produced litters the first year. (6) With Mr. Moyses's usual success the Premier Co., should pay about 100 p. c. next year. (7) The investor may rest assured that he will get every dollar that he is entitled to. (8) The ranching cost is only 7 p. c. of the increase. Now is the Time to Invest:-- Up to July 1st anyone applying for stock directly to the Co., gets a dividend of 10 p. c. which makes the capitalization only $16,200 per pair. APPLICATION for stock may be made to any of the directors, accompanied by 10 p. c. of the amount. Shares $50 each. Directors Thos. Moyses, President, C. Bedeque, Horace Wright, L.
