EQUAL TO IT.

It was characteristic of the late Lord Coleridge that he always had the right word for everything. At college it was his duty as a fellow to read the lessons in chapel, and one day he by mistake read the second lesson where he should have read the first. To conclude it in the orthodox way was hardly correct, as it was not the second lesson but the first, nor could it well be described as the first lesson, as properly it was the second. A moment's hesitation supplied him with the appropriate word, "Here endeth the wrong lesson."

How to Ascertain If You Have Catarrh

Look for Symptoms of This Treacherous Disease in the Following List.

"Is your breath bad?"
"Is your throat sore?"
"Do you cough at night?"
"Is your voice raspy?"
"Does your nose stop up?"
"Have you nasal discharge?"
"Do you spit up phlegm?"
"Has your nose an itchy feeling?"
"Have you pain across the eyes?"
"Is your throat irritable, weak?"
"Do you sleep with mouth open?"
"Are you subject to sneezing fits?"
"Do your ears roar and buzz?"
"Are you hard of hearing?"

If you have any of these indications of Catarrh, cure the trouble now—stop it before it gets into the lungs or bronchial tubes—then it may be too late. The remedy is Catarrhozone," a direct breathable cure that places antiseptic balsams and healing medication on every spot that's tainted by catarrhal germs.

"No one can know better than I the enormous benefit one gets from the very first day's use of Catarrhozone," writes T. T. Hopkins, of Westvale, P. Q. "I had for years a stubborn case of bronchial catarrh, ear noises, headache, sore eyes, stopped-up nose and throat. It affected my appetite and made my breath rank. Catarrhozone cured quickly."

The dollar outfit lasts two months, and is guaranteed; smaller size, 50c., sample size, 25c., at all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

Provincial Legislature

anything satisfactory it has been decided to proceed, as intimated in my letter of August 26th. Yours faithfully, (Sgd.) Gil. Gaudet.

THE GOVERNMENT'S POSITION

The tone of this letter is worth noting. Having asked me in his first letter what the intention of the Government was, the writer volunteers in his last the statement "The Trustees are aware that they are not in any way answerable to the Government for anything which they have in mind to do, etc."

This statement was utterly uncalled for and had no meaning unless to sound a note of defiance.

The further statement that the trustees "had given the Government an ample opportunity to settle with them" is untrue and could only have been made as a cover for the attack which they had evidently pre-determined. It reminds one of the ancient fable opening with, "How dare you disturb the water which I am drinking."

It was impossible for the Government to give effect to any agreement it might make without legislative sanction.

The claimant, however, after a delay of over forty years could not wait until the next meeting of the Legislature, but rushed into court with no fewer than 6 suits. Two of those have been tried and judgments went against the tenants. Proceedings had been taken to set aside both verdicts.

The principal ground is that the trustee under the marriage settlement of Lady Wood is not the person entitled to this land, and if the tenants or Government should pay this Trustee, they would be answerable in action to the persons really entitled, that is, that they would have to pay twice.

The Government retained eminent counsel to defend these cases on behalf of the tenants and are advised that the plaintiff has no title to the land in question, and consequently had no right to bring the action, an opinion in which I concur.

The solicitors to whom this matter was referred by the late Government and whose opinion seems to have been acted upon, commented as follows:

SOLICITORS' OPINION

"An important question also arises as to whether or not the Trustees of Lady Wood's will acquiesced in the sale of the reversion by the Government to the tenants holding the land under long term leases. The trustees of the will were made parties to a Chancery suit instituted against them shortly after her decease, in which suit the property in question came prominently before the Courts. Their attention was unquestionably called to the fact that the property in question was claimed by Lady Wood in her lifetime. One of the present trustee claimants was the agent in this Province for Lady Wood, and was the Solicitor for the Defendants in the Chancery Suits, and if he believed and continued to believe that the property passed to the Trustees of whom he was one under said will, he surely would have during the past thirty-seven years, made some claim to the property or attempted to dispose of it to the Government, more especially as he has resided in this Province continuously during that period, and being a practising solicitor, would be likely to know that the tenants were dealing with the Government as the owner of the reversion. It is difficult to understand why the Chief Justice and Attorney General holding office at that time, also trustees under the will and who were parties to the suit did not proceed to act under the trusts of the will created for the purpose of carrying out a philanthropic object, if they considered the trusts operative."

INCREDIBLE NEGLECT

The record of the sale of these lands shows that the sales took place by the Government in the years 1877, 1878, 1879, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1890, 1900 and 1909.

Is it not almost incredible that all these things could have happened over so long a period before the eyes of the men whose duty it was to have protected the beneficiaries under the will—the deaf and the dumb and the Indians— and that they should not have moved their hands to protect those dependent people? Now after the lapse of all these years, when most of those who knew the facts are gone, the trustees are suddenly possessed of a zeal so great that they could not wait until to-day to allow the Legislature to deal justly with the matter, but must rush into Court to put costs either upon the innocent victims of their neglect or the people of this country generally.

READY TO DEAL JUSTLY

But notwithstanding the wrongs which have been occasioned by the acts or omissions of the trustees, we are ready and willing as we always have been, to deal justly with all concerned.

If the trustees had shown the same zeal in looking after the interests of their poor wards as is now being shown in prosecuting the bona fide purchasers from the Government, this difficulty would never have arisen.

It is our misfortune that there has fallen upon our shoulders the burden of forty years of others' wrong-doing, and that a contest has been forced upon us which we would gladly have avoided, but cannot, owing to the attitude taken by the prosecutors. We have no choice but to defend these cases to an ultimate conclusion.

In the meantime the Government will consider the most effective method of protecting the purchasers of the land and reserving all rights of the owners of the freehold.

BILLS AGREED.

The following bills were reported agreed to.

An act respecting the Legislative Assembly, and acts to incorporate the Maple Leaf Silver Black Fox Company, Limited; The Lewis Granite and Marble Works, Limited.; The Ives Black and Silver Fox Company, Limited, and the Cardigan Silver Black Fox Co.

Hon. Murdoch McKinnon tabled the report of the Department of Agriculture.

A number of bills were reported from the private bills committee.

The House then adjourned until this morning at 11 o'clock.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIN

MEETING.—The first meeting of the executive of the Provincial Horsemen's Association will be held in the Prowse Block on Monday evening at 8 p. m.

ST. JAMES SERVICE.—Rev. T. Fullerton will preach in St. James Church at both services tomorrow. The morning subject will be "In as much as you did it unto me." In the evening he will preach on David Livingston.

SOCIAL.—An enjoyable pie social was held at Pownal Hall last evening at which a large number of the residents of the community were present. The pies were numerous and excellent bringing large prices.

INQUIRIES FOR FOXES.—The Canadian Fox Exchange. (Messrs McKinnon and Newsom, Managers, have disposed of all the options on 1913 foxes held by them. They now have several inquiries from abroad and want several pairs of high grade black foxes. When writing state pedigree fully.

WASHOUT.—This province is having its share of the recent washouts by floods. Yesterday the train from Cape Traverse to Charlottetown, which should have reached the city at 10.10 a. m., did not get in till 12.20 p. m., being delayed two hours and ten minutes. The delay was caused by a washout on the track at Albany, which took considerable time to repair. At Crapaud the villagers were alarmed by the freshet. The melting snow and the recent heavy rains caused the water of Crapaud River to swell and the force of the flow broke away the dam at Leard's Mills, the logs in the pond, released from their mooring, were carried down the stream and driven with tremendous force against the side of the mill breaking it in and causing considerable damage. The bridge at Crapaud Corner is also badly damaged, and, although still passable, is in a very dangerous condition. No estimate of the amount of the loss can be obtained at present.

QUICK SALE OF FOX STOCK in the Smith Silver Black Fox Company, Montague. Yesterday The Guardian published an item stating the success the Smith Fox Co were having with 1913 litters and the excellent prospects for this stock to pay big dividends in September next. The Canadian Fox Exchange, City, were successful in securing a further allotment of stock yesterday morning which had not been disposed of in St. John, N. B. So great was the demand for it by investors in Charlottetown that before evening the entire amount was almost subscribed. A telegram was forwarded to the treasurer in St. John asking for a further allotment and the following answer was received. To the Canadian Fox Exchange, Charlottetown, P. E. I. "Cannot allot more stock until we figure up sales and hear from others." A. C. Jardine, Treasurer. Messrs McKinnon and Newsom have had splendid success with this their first stock selling effort. They will handle only the best and investors may rest assured that any proposition they recommend may be thoroughly depended upon. They hope to possibly be able to secure a few more shares in the Smith Company and will accept applications subject to allotment for about two or three thousand dollars worth. This will be a case of first come first served as they cannot favor one party more than another.

Porto Rico Telephone Bonds

Canadian investors are generally well acquainted with Porto Rico, not only because of the extensive trade relations which Canada has with the Island, but especially because of the large amount of Canadian capital there invested.

The franchise of the Porto Rico General Telephone Company is exclusive, covers the local and long distance telephone system of the Island, and serves a population of over half a million, which is considerably greater than that of the Province of Nova Scotia.

This Company's last report shows very gratifying operating results for 1912. In round figures the profits were $38,000—over twice the bond interest. We offer the First Mortgage 5 p.c. Gold Bonds in denominations of $500 at 105 p.c and interest to yield 6.66 p c. Owing to our limited quantity we advise prompt decision.

"Si-Wel-Clo" Noiseless Syphon Jet Closets

To those about to build or remodel, the silent features of a Siwelclo Closet are too important to overlook. You've often been embarrassed by the noisy flushing of the Bathroom Closet, and the more distinguished your guests, the more noise the Closet made—it seemed as though the water would never stop. The answer to this perplexing problem is INSTALL A SIWELCLO—properly installed in any part of the house, even in the lower Hall—it is impossible to hear it in the next room.
