FOR COOKING VEGETABLES

Try not to stir vegetables while they are cooking. Never put them through a sieve while hot — air hastens destruction of some vitamins.

—PLAYS PRESENTED — The winning play in the Anglican Drama festival "The Bishop's Candlesticks" and the Summerside entry "Which is the way to Boston" were staged last evening in St. Mary's Hall, Summerside, before a splendid audience which enjoyed greatly the presentation of these two dramas which played off in the finals. Both performances were marked by the same excellent acting which drew high praise from the adjudicators when they were in competition. A well balanced programme of specialties under the direction of Miss Nellie Morrison completed a highly enjoyable entertainment. — S.

—RECEIVE DIPLOMAS — The Montreal Daily Star carries a list of those of MacDonald College and McGill University who received teachers diplomas at the closing exercises last week. It will interest her many friends in her home town of Summerside to learn that the prize in English—the Gardner Kneeland Memorial Prize—was awarded to Miss Ada L. Sudebury, who also, in the Intermediate class was the winner of the prize for Mathematics—the Governor-General's silver medal. Miss Sudebury also was the winner of an Interim Intermediate certificate in a class for women. She is a graduate of Summerside High School and Academy and Mount Allison Academy and Commercial College. She is a daughter of Mrs. Leo Lajoie of Summerside and was a member of the R. C. A. F. (W.D.) for three years. A student at Macdonald College for Teachers for the past ten months Miss Sudebury will be teaching at Quebec High School, Quebec, next year, as a commercial specialist. — S.

—WEDDING BELLS — A wedding of interest took place in the United Church in Berwick, N. S., on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Anita Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Pines, was united in marriage to John Elwood Hiltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hiltz. Rev. C. D. Matheson officiated with a double ring service. The church was decorated with white lilies, tulips and lilies of the valley. Mrs. S. Parker presided at the organ and played several musical selections during the arrival of the guests. To the strains of the wedding march the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She looked charming in her floor length gown of white jacquard crepe with short train, fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves and full skirt. Her shoulder length veil was in cap style and her bouquet was of Better Time roses. Miss Arlene Beckwith, the bridesmaid, was gowned in floorlength apple green sheer with floral headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Earl Robinson supported the groom and the ushers were Jack Bland and Roderick Bethune. During the signing of the register Miss Joan Chisholm sang acceptably "Because" and was accompanied at the organ by Miss Diane Parker. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, the rooms being artistically decorated with spring flowers. Receiving with the bride party were the bride's mother, who was attired in a turquoise figured silk with black accessories and cascade of pink carnations, and the groom's mother, who wore a two-piece mist gray with navy accessories and a cascade of red roses. The bride's table was decorated with a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake flanked by bouquets of cut flowers. Mrs. Lloyd Swindell, aunt of the bride, presided over the tea cups. Assisting in serving were Mrs. George Gillis, the Misses Betty Beckwith, Verna Palmer, Gertrude Fioden, Muriel Swindell, Joan and Joyce Chisholm. The young couple left on their honeymoon trip for Stanhope Beach Inn, P. E. I. the bride travelling in a suit of sparkling dew with red and white accessories and a cascade of Better Time roses. Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz will reside in Berwick, N. S. The bridegroom who was born in Kensington, P. E. I. and when very young moved with his parents to Berwick, N. S., served overseas in the R.C.A.F. He is a nephew of Mr. Hugh F. Morrison, Summerside and Mrs. William A. Bernard, French River. — S.
