CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

(From F. B. McCurdy & Co's Private Wire.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—The special report of the weather bureau showing Texas precipitation for the month of December was received by the New York Cotton Exchange this morning. The report covered 180 stations in the state and while it showed comparatively little rain in the Western part there were 56 stations reporting precipitation ranging from about 2½ up to 8 inches for the month. While many expressed the opinion that not even this rainfall was sufficient in view of the prolonged drought, the effect of the statement was to modify recent bull arguments regarding the Texas season in the ground and after opening 2 to 5 points higher the market sold off to a net loss of about 9 to 11 points under bear pressure and scattering liquidation. But there was nothing to indicate that the bigger bulls were letting go of their long cotton. The absence of outside speculation which has been so much commented upon for the past month left a comparatively small scattering long interest to liquidate and as soon as it was seen that no important lines of long cotton were coming on the market prices steadied on covering by scalping shorts. Prominent bull interests came into the market on the rally and prices in the late trading recovered to about the closing figure of yesterday after Ma had sold to 14.03 or within ten points of Wednesdays low level. Outside of the Texas rain statement there was little or nothing in the way of fresh news. Private advices from the South are becoming rather mixed but so far such weakness as would encourage aggressiveness on the part of short sellers below the 15 cent level had not developed. Southern spot markets today were unchanged to one eighth of a cent higher. The intosight for the week was 289,642 bales, spinners takings were 320,000 suggesting a decrease in the visible of 31,000 against 62,000 last year.

Have you worn "Lustre Loom" Underskirts? They look like silk but wear better.

Miss Jacqueline McDonald, City, returned yesterday from an enjoyable visit to Boston and New York.

H. D. McEwen, Morell, and John McLean, M. L. A., Souris, came over by the Earl Grey yesterday.

There will be a meeting of the North Winsloe Congregation held in the Church on Wednesday evening next at seven o'clock.

Mr. Fullerton will preach in St. James' Church tomorrow Morning Subject—Eighteen years in St. James' Church, Evening—The profit of religion.

The subject of the sermon next Sunday morning in the Baptist Church by the Rev. Z. L. Fash, B. D., will be "Songs in the Sanctuary." In the evening the subject of the sermon will be "The Salvation of the Soul."

Chas S. McDonald, of Covehead, was in the city yesterday. He reports the roads splendid for wagons, but somewhat rough for sleighs, and he also states that he had the honour of being the first with a team to cross over the new steel bridge which has just been finished by the government over the pond known as Wright's on St. Peter's Road.

Yesterday afternoon in the Police Court the Stipendiary Magistrate heard a case urged by the Children's Aid Society of four children who were being brought up in a neglected manner and in surroundings which were other than moral. It was shown that the children, who ranged in ages from 11 to 2 years were living in unhealthy quarters, their mother was incapable of supporting them in a proper manner and their education was being neglected. His Honor ordered the children to be taken to the R. C. Orphanage where they could receive proper attention and care.

The annual meeting of Cornwall Creamery Co., was held at Cornwall on Tuesday 11th. There was a fair attendance of Shareholders and patrons. The President, J. P. Crosby, occupied the chair and in opening the meeting referred to the successful year's work. The Secretary then gave a statement of the years work, which showed there had been some needed improvements made during the year. There had been a new floor laid in the making room, cement pillars put under the factory and the smoke stack was rebuilt. After the meeting adjourned those present organized themselves by calling H. MacMillan to the chair when the following resolution was submitted by J. P. Crosby, seconded by D. Murchison:—"Whereas we understand the local government contemplates the building of a permanent bridge across the North River, therefore resolved that this meeting of electors believe that the old site is too far up the river and a more suitable bridge could be built from McEwen's Point to Lewis Point and suit all parties in South Queen's, who have no access to the railway, and we urge our government to make an immediate survey at the proposed site." D. H. Murchison is the Secretary.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

(From F. B. McCurdy & Co's Private Wire.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—The opening was quiet but strong with substantial overnight advances shown in all the leading issues. The commission house sentiment appeared to be better although orders were extremely scarce. Selling ex-dividend Reading opened up at the equivalent of nearly a point advance and showed firmness from the start. Almost all day long this stock was the undoubted leader of the market and for the first time in almost a year the spectacle was given of an important Railroad stock recovering its full dividend in one day. During the whole morning the market was dull but quiet and strong. In the afternoon, however, increased activity developed and along with it increasing strength The market broadened out and all the active issues participated in the upward movement substantial gains being shown throughout. The strength was helped along by the estimates of the cash movements for the week which showed that the local banks had gained about $20,000,000. Call money eased off to 2½ at which rate renewals were very freely made. The highest prices of the day were reached in the last fifteen minutes and the tone was thoroughly strong throughout with heavy covering of shorts in progress. The close was active and strong at the highest prices of the day.

Total sales 561,000.

BRAHMIN TEA

Owing to the numerous Teas now offered for sale, all, or nearly all claimed to be the best on the market, it seems scarcely necessary to call your attention to the famous BRAHMIN TEA.

I have no hesitation in stating that you cannot equal the TEA anywhere else at the same price.

It is an admitted fact that in many places in the United States and Canada you would pay from twenty to fifty cents per pound more and you would not get a better article or even as good.

Do not confound BRAHMIN TEA with cheaper grades claimed to be just as good, BRAHMIN TEA stands in a class altogether by itself.

Ask your Grocer for HASZARD'S BRAHMIN TEA and prove the above assertions.
