TUESDAY

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Ida Fowle Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. W. Robertson to Mr. Richard Hammond Pettick, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Pettick, was quietly solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents on Monday, June 11th at 2.30 o'clock. The Rev. C. R. Freeman was the officiating clergyman.

CURLING CLUB MEETING.—At the annual meeting of the Charlotteville Curling Club, which was held last night at the rink, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mr. James Paton, President; Dr. T. F. Fullerton, Vice President; Mr. D. B. Stewart, Secretary; Mr. S. Gray, Treasurer; Messrs C. H. Black, D. A. McKinnon, T. C. James, and Col. Davison, Directors.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A young man named Philip Doyle had a narrow escape from drowning on Saturday evening. He stumbled over the side of Full's wharf at a late hour that night. But for the timely appearance of a man in a motor boat he would probably never have been heard from. When pulled out he was almost dead. Dr. Jenkins was summoned and applied restoratives. The man as the result of his experience is now very ill.

BUSY FARMING.—Farm work is going on at a brisk rate now since the warm weather has arrived. The rain which is so much in evidence while it may prevent the farmer doing his work yet it is certainly a boon to the crops which are sown. It is especially good for the hay fields. If the present style of weather last a little longer there will be a splendid crop of hay which will be a good thing for the island as there is generally a shortage here.—G.

A death which caused a widespread regret took place at Wood Islands on May 24th, in the person of Margaret Bruce, relict of the late Mr. Duncan McLennan, in the 70th year of her age. Of late the family has been greatly afflicted. In December last a devoted husband and father was called away. In March, the news was received, that many learned with deep sorrow that an esteemed son, the Chief of Police of Vancouver had been shot by a ruffian. In April came another anxious news, that another faithful son had been seriously wounded at the front. This could not but weigh heavily on one so attached to husband, so fond of sons, as Mrs. McLennan. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church of Wood Islands. The commendations of praise towards her that were uttered on the day of her burial, manifested that her excellent qualities were many, and that the community has lost one of its esteemed women. She has left to mourn three daughters and six sons, Mary and Alice at home; John of Montague, Bruce in a hospital in England; Mrs. Carter, David, Murdoch and Duncan, of Vancouver; and Mrs. (Dr.) Hays, of Malden, Mass., who arrived home in time to pay the last respects to a kind, affectionate mother. Mr. A. F. Bruce, Valleyfield, is a brother of the deceased. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. M. D. MacLeod, Caladonia, assisted by Capt. the Rev. J. C. Martin, Montague. —(Patriot please copy.)

On the afternoon of Friday, June 8th the soul of Mrs. Frank Gillis, a life long resident of Cape Traverse but for the past two years of Charlotteville, passed from a virtuous life of Christian charity and piety into eternity at the age of 65 years.

The late Mrs. Gillis was ailing all winter but rallied a few weeks ago only to be seized with a relapse to which she succumbed.

The deceased lady performed a splendid and exemplary mission in this life, and on account of her high spiritual character was further beloved and admired. She was the Spiritual Front and life of the home, being a truly religious woman of a pleasant and jovial disposition, principles which combined to make her the most tender and loving wife and mother. While she will be most missed by her husband and family, whose sorrow is somewhat lightened in the belief that she is meriting her eternal reward for a well spent life she will be greatly missed by relatives and friends and in fact by all for though of an unobtrusive nature she was a friend to all she came in contact with.

She leaves to mourn a great loss the following family, besides her husband—Mrs. Frank Cheverie and William of Charlotteville, Mrs. Dominick Cheverie and Frank of Moncton. Her sisters who survive are Mrs. Harry Smith, Malden, Mass; Mrs. John McDonald, Everett, Mass, and Sister Teresa, Arthur, John, Daniel, Patrick and William McInnis, formerly Station Agent at the P. E. I. R., now Sergeant with the 15th Batt. of Kingston, Ontario, are brothers.

The body was taken to the Railway Station on Saturday afternoon and conveyed by train to Cape Traverse. The funeral took place from the home of Mrs. John O'Connor, Cape Traverse Bay and was exceptionally large, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. Father John J. McDonald the pastor conducted the funeral services. The pall bearers, all intimate friends and relatives, were the following:—Messrs John Driscoll, William Deegan, Alexander Deegan, Thomas Howatt, William Waddell and Frank Howatt. Requiescant in Pace.

REPORTED ILL.—The many friends throughout this part of the province will regret to learn that Mr. Joseph Hunter, Georgetown has been very ill for the past couple of days but it is hoped by all that we will see Joe around again soon.—G.

POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court yesterday Golden Carr appeared charged with stealing a set of harness valued at $15 belonging to Louis Essory on May 18th. The case was adjourned to the 18th inst. One drunk was fined $20 or sixty days.

SAFELY IN FRANCE.—A letter from Somewhere in France, from Pte. Percy McCallum, Souris, the 1st Canadian Battery Field Artillery, B. E. F., by his friend Mary A. McDonald, North Lake reports that he is in the best of health and has not received a wound of any kind as yet.

INVALIDED HOME.—Mr. Robert Haynes who left here a couple of months ago for England having joined the navy, has been invalided home. He arrived from Liverpool on Sunday. He hopes to be able to return shortly. Pte. Robert Croake of the 105th Battalion has also been invalided home. He arrived in the City on Sunday.

ELMIRA INSTITUTE.—The Elmira Women's Institute held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Stephen Mellick on Thursday, June 7th at 8.00 p. m. It was decided to canvas the district for wool socks for the soldiers. The institute intend holding a bazaar and ice cream social the latter part of July. Miss MacFarlane was present and gave a "Strengthening Demonstration." Miss Campbell read a paper on "Our Canadian Women" and Miss Harris a paper on "Fighting the Fly." The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Stephen's. After refreshments were served the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held in the Council Chambers last evening. His Worship Mayor Brown presiding, and the following members of the Council present: Messrs. Wright, Rattray, McNevin, Jenkins, Smith, Miller, and McKenzie, also Health Officer Dr. McMILLAN.

The usual number of bills were passed and ordered to be paid. There was no communication to be dealt with.

Tenders were ordered to be called for uniforms for the Police Force, also for the usual supply of coal for the Market House and City Building. Some discussion took place relative to leases of the Market building, but no action was taken on the matter.

The chairman of the Street Committee, Mr. McNevin, stated that the matter of treating some of the streets with Tarvia would be dealt with at a future meeting which would be called just as soon as more information was available.

After some further informal discussion the meeting adjourned.

VISITS CANADIAN GRAVES.—Rev. Principal MacKinnon, chaplain overseas, writing of those Canadian boys who have died in England before reaching the front and whose graves he recently visited at Bramshot, says: "It was not given to these men to die valiantly on the high places of the field. Their lot was to struggle against damp, chill, fever and the miseries of the army but in winter that sought out the weakness in their constitution. But they had responded cheerfully to their country's call, and although neither Contrallette nor Vimy Ridge is inscribed upon their tombstone, they will not fall of a place in the grateful remembrance of Canada." He goes on to say in another paragraph: "Each grave is marked with a simple cross of varnished oak, stating the name and unit of the deceased, except where private contributions have erected more elaborate stones. This can always be done. The graves are well tended. Some unknown hand has strewn lilies on them. I tried to make arrangements to have this regularly performed, but the nearest town where an order could be placed was several miles away and in the present secrecy of labor it was found to be impracticable. In deference to the sad hearts in the home land and in tribute to the brave lives that have been sacrificed I shall do it myself, whenever opportunity occurs."

WEDNESDAY

A very sad gloom overshadowed the community of Bedouque on Monday June 4th when Mrs. Cahill beloved wife of George Cahill passed peacefully away to her eternal resting place in her forty fourth year of her age. She was Eliza Jane Connick, only daughter of Michael Connick formerly of Carleton. Deceased had been in usual health until a few days previous to her death, when she was stricken with a severe attack of plural pneumonia and this accompanied with childbirth proved to be an antagonist; and despite of all that loving care and the best medical skill could do death claimed her for its own. Mrs. Cahill will be greatly missed by her husband, and the six little children, whose ages range from the youngest to the eldest, three days to nineteen years respectively, to whom she was a kind and loving wife and a model mother. She possessed in a remarkable degree the qualities that distinguish a truly Christian woman. Her cheerful disposition and kindly interest in the welfare of old and young made her beloved by friends and neighbors and gained for her the esteem of a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Never was she known to speak an unkind or uncharitable word; but was always ready to sacrifice herself in performing a good work or act of charity for another. For the greater part of her life she devoted her energies as organist in the parish of Seven Mile Bay and thus rendering the services more becoming of their dignity. Her life was exemplary and truly a preparation for death which found her ready, having been prepared for the last end by the reception of the Sacraments and the last rites of the Holy Church administered by her pastor Rev. J. J. McDonald. Her funeral took place on Wednesday the sixth to Seven Mile Bay Church and was followed by a concourse of friends and neighbors to the number of seventy-five carriages. The Requiem Mass was sung by the pastor after which the remains were laid to rest. The services at the grave were conducted by the pastor assisted by Rev. A. J. McIntyre. The peace and tranquility of mind and spirit with which she passed away bespoke for her a happy eternity.

The funeral of the late Lindley Ferguson took place from the old homestead Meadow Lea Farm, French River, on Wednesday 6th June to the Gethse Memorial Cemetery. Service was conducted by Rev. G. Irvine and was very impressive. "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" a special favorite of the deceased was sung very touchingly by Miss Laura McEwen. Many beautiful flowers came with the remains from North Bay. Wreaths, Miss Irene McKenney, Division 99, Order of Rail Telegraphers, Telegraph Department T. and N. O. Railway; W. J. Kelly, J. McLellan, P. Pickard, S. Loisel, N. J. Sullivan and Miss Katie Coyne, Crescent Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Oldham and Spray from friends at Hotel Cecil. The deceased left home in 1906 going to Sudbury, Ont., where he was employed with the C. P. Ry. and a position with the T. and N. O. Railway as Linesman. Advancing rapidly he was soon made Inspector of Telephones and Telegraphs which position he held at the time of the sad accident which resulted in death being instantly killed at Boston Creek, June 1st at 12.45 p. m. by coming in contact with a high tension wire of The Cobalt Power Co. He was 33 years old being born Dec. 16th 1883.

A short service was conducted by his pastor Rev. T. J. Ferguson before leaving North Bay. The remains arrived home June 4th in charge of Mr. J. McLellan accompanied by his friend Miss Irene McKenney, Toronto and Mr. D. A. McNeill, Moncton. He leaves to mourn their loss his mother, Mrs. Lucy Ferguson, one brother and one sister at home. He was very popular as a boy and young man around his home and among all his companions and the same popularity he richly earned and enjoyed all through his life. Much sympathy is felt and expressed that such a bright and promising career should be cut off by this sudden and sad death.

These passed away at Earncliffe June 1st 1917 an aged and respected resident, Mrs. Margaret MacPhee, widow of the late Mr. Martin MacPhee at the ripe age of eighty-three. She was a true Christian in word and deed. She was beloved by all who knew her. She was a member of Belfast Presbyterian Church for over fifty years, where she was laid to rest beside her husband and son. The funeral service was conducted at the home by her Pastor Dr. McEwen of Orwell Sunday 2 p. m. She leaves to mourn forty sons, five daughters, eighteen grand children, six great grand children, one brother and one sister, besides a large circle of friends and relations. The pall bearers were as follows: Messrs John Tweedy, Andrew McInnis, Robert McKinnon, Edward Morrissey, Truman Jenkins and Daniel McIsaac.

At the Yarmouth Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp, held at Tusket Falls in August, I found MINARD'S LINIMENT most beneficial for sun burn, an immediate relief for colic and tooth-ache.
