A boy to work in Drugstore, one wishing to learn the business preferred. E. A. FOSTER, Central Drugstore.

Foster's Beef Iron and Wine

This is a delicious tonic worth trying. We never ask anyone to buy the second bottle—they always buy it without asking. Delicious to the taste, it contains iron to enrich the blood, peptonized (digested) beef to feed the tissues and choice wine as an appetizer.

If you feel worn-out tired and run-down you need a tonic; you couldn't find a better one than this—like all our remedies it is of the highest quality 50c and 75c bottles.

SPORTING NEWS

PROSPECTS FOR THE FAST N. B. AND MAINE LEAGUE

ST. JOHN, March 29.—Now that the meeting of the New Brunswick and Maine League has been held, the air is filled with baseball gossip. Every where fans are talking about the prospects for a fast league this year. The four teams which will represent Bangor, St. Stephen-Calais, Fredericton and St. John, will be made up of the best players available. The club presidents and managers are actively engaged corresponding with promising recruits and several of the best are being signed on. That St. John is to have a good representative team is evident from the information given out by Manager Frank Leonard of the Marathons Philadelphia.

SEVENTEEN YEAR OLD CATCHER YOUNGEST IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

PENSACOLA, March 27.—In John Bassler, recruit catcher, Cleveland has training at Pensacola one who is probably the youngest catcher at any time in the history of the American League. Bassler is only seventeen years old. What is more he looks it. There are many players who are far into the twenties, but who like to pose as about nineteen, and then get away with it. But when Bassler was asked his age and replied soberly, "I'm seventeen," there was not a player within hearing but believed the boy, and eyed him up with renewed interest. Young as he is, Bassler has already seen service in different parts of the country. His first professional engagement was with York in the Tri-State League, the early part of last year. The season was over before he drifted to the coast, and while there was induced to sign up in the winter league, in which Ole Olson played. Olson always on the lookout for promising young players, was impressed by his catching from the very first, and before the league had closed he induced his young protegee to come down to Pensacola to try out. One would take Bassler for a high school boy if he happened to see him about the lobby. No one takes him for a ballplayer, and when it was learned that he was "one of the bunch" there was much craning of necks about the lobby to see him. Bassler is showing much promise. His service in the winter league evidently helped him very much, for he already is showing all the earmarks of a big leaguer. He is learning rapidly, and if he doesn't make good right off the bat it is a cinch that the Naps will keep a tight hold on him wherever he goes.

FOX MEETING

(Continued from page 1) assembled in connection with the first meeting of one of the most important and gigantic businesses that had ever gone through on this island, and he was glad to be able to tell them that it had been carried through by the promoters representing the shareholders and himself in the most amiable and harmonious manner. As they knew he had sold out his right, interest and good will to the new company and had agreed to remain as manager for a year, or longer should the directors desire it. The deed was about to be passed and would be completed within the next hour or so by which the ranch and all that he held in it would pass to the shareholders. He did not think they would be disappointed with their bargain; they had had men of good business capabilities and judgment acting for them, and they might be sure these would not have closed with him if they had had any doubts the ranch was not worth the money paid for it. He knew it was worth the money, and the prosperity that had attended him on it would continue to attend the new proprietors. He could assure them that it was with regret he parted with the ranch; he was truly sorry in one sense he had sold it as he had unbounded confidence in its future; but they might feel assured that any success he had had with the ranch in the conditions of the sale would be shared by the new company. He had felt justified in estimating from past experience, and nothing had occurred since to mar his anticipations; indeed he would not be called upon to implement his guarantee (applause). The necessary stock was almost in existence now to cover the whole guarantee. If any shareholder had any doubts with regard to his share now for what he had paid for it, he thought an offer of that kind showed them an offer of a good opinion of the fox business as ever he had had. He had no fear for the future, and the only reason he had transferred his business, in which he was still a large holder, was because he was getting on in years, having spent half a lifetime in the more years he had to live a little more freedom to enjoy the profits which the industry had given him. That was the sole reason he had sold out. He had made enough to provide for himself and his family in comfort, and thought he was entitled to the enjoyment of the remaining years of his life. (Applause). In conclusion he assured them that there was no reason that he knew of why the company should not enjoy the same measure of prosperity that he had done.

SEALERS MAKE GOOD CATCHES

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., March 30.—With a catch of 36,000 seals, the steamer Staphano returned today, the first of the sealing fleet operators in Newfoundland to report. She brought forward to the steamer Nascopie had 27,000; the Florizal, 22,000; the Sagona, 23,000; the Eagle, 12,000; the Bellavente, 10,000; the Bonaventure, 8,000; and the Adventure, 7,000. Others of the fleet had poor luck. Advice from the Gulf of St. Lawrence indicate that the prospects for a good season are excellent.

SWALLOWED PIN IN A GLASS OF BEER

MONTREAL, March 29.—The evil results of beer drinking have often been demonstrated, but never before in the way they were manifested to Biliano Garaldo, who is the plaintiff in an action now being heard in the Superior Courts. The defendants are Messrs. Sergius and Lande, bottlers and grocers, from whom Garaldo says he purchased a bottle of beer containing a pin. So great was the plaintiff's thirst at the time that he dispensed with the usual custom of drinking it directly from the bottle. Instead an operation was performed upon him, and a pin extracted from his bladder. Luckily it went down the foremost, or it might have proved fatal. As it was, Garaldo complains that he has been permanently injured, and asks that $1,750 be awarded him. The defence is a general denial.

MORE THAN 40 PER CENT

Mr. WARBURTON in seconding the adoption of the report said that the shareholders were promised not less than 40 per cent. That was a conservative estimate, and while they were not prepared to definitely promise more than that, he could assure them that it would not be a bad return and most of them would be glad to see it. The report was adopted, as were also the by-laws of the company.

FRIEDMANN TO VISIT HALIFAX

HALIFAX, N. S., March 29.—Will Dr. Friedmann, the Berlin physician whose name is famous all over America because of his demonstrations at New York and elsewhere of treatment which he claims cures Tuberculosis, come to Halifax, and demonstrate his "Health can arrange it," and, failing that, the Board will send its chairman to New York to witness Dr. Friedmann's method of treatment, if permission for him to be present at such can be obtained. That the members of the Board mean business is evidenced by the fact that when the chairman suggested there might be objection to the expense of Dr. Friedmann's visit here or of the trip to New York a couple of them volunteered that if the city would not allow the expenses their allowances as board members could go towards the expense account either of the Berlin physician or the chairman.

RUMORED RESIGNATION

LONDON, Mar. 29.—There is a persistent rumor credited by well informed people that Lord Strathcona will resign the high commissionship of Canada during the coming year. He will be ninety three in July and, although he attends regularly to his official duties, his physician, Sir Thomas Barlow, has forbidden his frequent attendance at public functions, although so great is Lord Strathcona's interest in everything appertaining to Canada that not infrequently he disobeys this advice. Lady Strathcona, too, is in more indifferent health than she was a short time ago, and some of the presentations at the recent court, which ordinarily would have been made by her, were made by Mrs. Harcourt, the wife of the colonial secretary. The resignation of Lord Strathcona has frequently been mooted, even before the banquet at the Canada Club at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech seemed to leave little room for doubt, but this year it is said he will really relinquish the office which he has adorned for such a number of years.

MAGNETIC WAVE MUMMIFIES A SEVERED HAND

PARIS, March 29.—A severed hand mummified simply by application of human magnetic currents, without the use of chemicals, was shown Thursday to the members of the Second International Congress of Experimental Psychology. The hand was cut from a body in the public morgue and was subjected daily for forty-five days to magnetic influences emanating from Dr. George Durrille, the secretary of the congress, Mme. Reinault and Mr. Picot. The hand was examined and touched by many psychologists. It appeared much like the hand of an Egyptian mummy. It had lost three eighths of its weight by evaporation. Durrille explained to the congress that the result had been brought by vital currents from the operators, and suggested that similar processes might have been used in ancient Egypt.

ALBERTA MAN PLANTS HOMESTEAD IN CEMETERY

OTTAWA, March 29.—The unusual story Canada's Gazette contains the story this week of a man who homesteaded in a cemetery. The man is Joseph Little, who in 1907, obtained a patent for land close to the town of Blairmore. It was found that his patent covered the Blairmore cemetery and the Blairmore people protested. The government ordered acres of cemetery site and now deems it as a grant to the minister of public works of Alberta, in trust for the town of Blairmore.

SELF-ACCUSED SLAYER INSANE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., March 29.—John Babbitt, the prisoner at the county jail, who was recently told the officials that he was the slayer of Miss Emma Brooks at Kingston, N. Y., has been adjudged insane and yesterday County Solicitor Gupitt asked the court to commit the prisoner to the state insane hospital. Miss Brooks was murdered four years ago. New York state authorities said, after interviewing Babbitt, that his description of places and incidents connected with the murder coincided with the facts in the case.

PUBLICITY AGENT FOR WOODSTOCK

WOODSTOCK, N. B., March 29.—The Woodstock board of trade has settled down to work in earnest. A meeting last night in the town hall was well attended by manufacturers and merchants and all are enthusiastic. A. D. Holyoke, chairman of a publicity committee, reported that they had outlined a plan of advertising through Canada, the United States and Europe, and recommended that S. L. Lynott, director of the Carleton Sentinel, be appointed publicity agent. This was adopted.

BISHOP OF LONDON AND SPIRITUAL HEALING.

LONDON, March 29.—The Bishop of London (Dr. Ingram) has made the following statement:

In the course of his mission in St. Paul's Church, Knightsbridge, he received a letter from a mother about her daughter of fifteen, who was lying seriously ill with a nervous breakdown. The girl had heard the Bishop preach before she became ill, and begged her mother to send him a petition for prayer. "We are told by St. James," wrote the Bishop, "that he will anoint the sick with oil, and the prayer of faith will save the sick. The Bishop's narrative of what followed is thus reported in the 'Guardian.' 'Within twenty minutes I was in the room. The poor little child had been raving and shrieking during the afternoon and at first it seemed until I went up, almost unlikely that it was possible, without frightening her, to pray for her and carry out the directions of St. James. But this extraordinary thing happened. As I went into the room and said, 'Do you know me, dear?' 'Yes,' she said, and slipped her hand into mine. 'She had not slept for a long time. With the mother and the nurse I knelt at the bed. We had two prayers then I anointed her on the forehead with oil, prayed for a blessing on it, placed my hand on her head, and gave her the blessing, and at a deep moment she sank back into a deep sleep and slept for hours during the night, and, thank God, if it is His will, she is now on the way to recovery. I knew that evening that Jesus was personally with us, and I could not stop thinking of the raising of the girl's daughter. It seemed almost as if she had been sent in, but it was offered by bedside and will be again offered tonight.'
