

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

ARRIVES IN GREAT BRITAIN - Mrs. R.J. McDonald of 175 Hillsboro Street received a cable over the week-end from her son, Frank, serving with the R.C.A.F., announcing that he had arrived in Great Britain.

FUNERAL AT BRACKLEY PT. - The funeral of the late John A. McCallum was held from the residence of his son, Edward McCallum, Brackley Point, Friday afternoon. Services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. T. A. Wilson. Interment was in Brackley Point Cemetery. The pallbearers were: George Hughes, Neil McCallum, Gregor McCallum, Geo. McCallum, Gregor McCallum, Cleve Robinson.

FUNERAL SATURDAY - The funeral of the late Mrs. Daniel R. Gane was held from the MacLean Funeral Home Saturday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Cahill. Burial was in the People's Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Robert Darrach, Arthur Howard, Seymour Molnais, John Power, George Marshall, Arthur Godkin.

RECEIVES NEWS - Mr. and Mrs. Caleb M. Palmer of No. 21 Quincy, Mass., have received the sad news of the death of their only son, John D. Palmer, who was killed in action in Belgium on December 21st, 1944 at the age of nineteen years. Three other sons are on active service; Richard in the Royal Canadian Air Force, Frederick and Charles in the Army. Mr. C.M. Palmer was a former resident of Freeland, Lot 11, P.E.I.

SIDE, GIRL WEDS IN N.Y. - A wedding of much local interest took place in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, on January 26th when Miss Letitia Gallant, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gallant, Summerside, became the bride of Mr. Murray Hall, Lancashire, England. They were attended by John Jacobs and Marcella O'Brien, both of New York. The honeymoon was spent in the vicinity of New York, after which Mrs. Hall left for Montreal where she is employed. Mr. Hall is a member of the British Merchant Navy.

THE death occurred in Los Angeles, California, on January 6 of Mr. Andrew Harding, formerly of this Province, in the 77th year of his age. He was born at Graham's Road, P.E.I., the eldest of a family of six children.

Graduating from Prince of Wales College, where he passed with high honors, Mr. Harding taught school for a brief period after which he went to the Klondike where he followed the profession of mining. Retiring some years ago he settled in Los Angeles where he spent the last years of his life with his wife, Mrs. Harry Hort, who with his brothers, Gavin in Alberta and Joseph in Pennsylvania, survive him. His father, James, who passed away three years ago, lacking one month of the century mark.

The late Mr. Harding's brother, Mr. Gavin Harding, who sent in the above notice, moved with his family from Charlottetown to Nanaimo, B.C., about two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Deighan, Summerside, have received a telegram from the Department of National Defence advising them their son, Pte. Charles Deighan, has been slightly wounded in action.

This is the second time Pte. Deighan has been wounded, having suffered chest wounds in May, 1944 that put him out of action for a time. He has been decorated for some time serving on the southern front with Pte. Deighan led the army in July, 1940, with the Prince Edward Island Battalion and was awarded the Victoria Cross in April, 1943. He was sent to Italy in June of that year and was serving there when wounded the first time.

Pte. Deighan is well known in hockey circles, having played in both Summerside and Charlottetown. He is 23 years old.

PRESENTATION - On the evening of Jan. 27, over one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Scott, Charlottetown, for congratulations to Harold and his bride to the strains of the Wedding March. Harriet and Doris were ushered to their seats of honor.

Mr. Harold Godfrey and Miss Phyllis MacEwen. A nicely worded address was read by Mr. Ford Wilson and Mrs. Herbert Scott presented the bride and groom with a well filled purse. Harold then on behalf of his bride thanked one and all for their remembrance. Prior to her marriage Doris was presented with silver, a sandwich tray by her girl friends of the P.E.I. Hospital. After hounding the bride and groom, a general luncheon was served by ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Music being furnished by Mr. MacLean and Mr. Francis Doyle on the violin and Messrs Lloyd Scott and Melvin Hyde on the guitar.

ARRIVES OVERSEAS - Mrs. Ralph Boates, Summerside has received a letter from her son, Wm. W.C. Davey, telling her that he is now serving in Holland.

REPORTED MISSING - Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Small, of Lockhart street, that their son, Sgt. James Gordon Small is missing on air operation overseas. Sgt. Small joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in August, 1943, and received his Air Gunner Wings at Mount Pleasant, P.E.I., and went overseas in March 1944 - Moncton Times.

FULTON JENKINS PROMOTED - Fulton Jenkins, who has long ago been appointed Assistant Superintendent of Agencies for Canada with the Metropolitan Life, headquarters at Ottawa, has received further promotion and is now Superintendent of Agencies for Western Canada. Ottawa will still be the headquarters and he will be leaving next month for the Pacific Coast, on a tour of Agencies there. Friends will be delighted to learn of his recent promotion. Mr. Jenkins was born in Prince Edward Island but New Glasgow claims him, for part of his boyhood and young manhood was spent here.

THURSDAY

ARRIVES OVERSEAS - Mr. Emanuel Arsenault, Summerside, has received a cable from his son, Captain Harold Arsenault, advising him of his safe arrival overseas.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS - Edwin Reiten farmer of Rolle Bay has been appointed temporary returning officer for Kings County on July 12th of last year and now has ten branches in operation throughout Canada. It will have from 12 to 13 billion dollars worth of surplus goods to dispose of, Mr. Carwell said, and this disposal must be made in such a way as not to disturb the internal economy of the country.

Because the Corporation is now functioning under an economy of scarcity it is very important that all saleable surplus be sold at existing market prices and within War-time Prices and Trade Board ceilings. The flow of funds must be well controlled so that in a transfer of industry from one owner to another, the least possible disturbance will be created.

The annual meeting of St. Elizabeth's Church was held in the church on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. P. O. Cahill presided and opened the meeting with prayer.

Another war veteran in the person of Sapper Vernon MacEwen of Charlottetown arrived home Tuesday night.

Sapper MacEwen enlisted in 1930 and served overseas in Italy, France and in France with the 8th Army.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James MacEwen, and has two children, Mrs. Edna MacEwen, who is in the Navy. His wife and family reside on Edward St.

The one hundred and eighty-sixth anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, Scotland's greatest poet, was fittingly celebrated last night in Charlottetown by the Burns Club in the Prince of Wales College Auditorium.

The entertainment stage directed by Mrs. Arthur Roper was under the direction of Mrs. K. S. Rogers. Mrs. Frances Holt, Traipor, and Mrs. E. J. Rogers were in charge of the major part of the credit for the concert being the outstanding success of the evening.

Mr. D.M. Gass was elected president of the Charlottetown Board of Trade at a dinner held in the Charlottetown last night. Other officers elected were: Mr. W. W. Hyndman, vice-president; W.L. Higgins, secretary-treasurer; Mr. J. A. Nicholson, secretary of the association; Messrs. J.A. Ainsworth, H.C. Bonaker, J.H. LeRoy, Col. G.S. Full, G.R. Keele (ret. Col.), K.S. Rogers, M.P. (ret. Colonel), and A.B. Outcliffe.

J.A. Clark, superintendent of the Electrical Firm, announced he had received a request from the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross to help in the matter of hospitalization for island returned men before the war.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

FRIDAY

The deputy Minister of Veterans Affairs, Walter Wood, Ottawa will probably visit this Province shortly to discuss a request that a 50-bed pavilion be constructed in connection with the hospital in Charlottetown to care for veterans returning from overseas. The announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion last night. The president, Leo Bradley presided.

Lieut. Robert Cunningham MacMillan, D.S.C. and Bar, R.C.N.V. Charlottetown, P.E.I., who graduated recently from a Command course at an Eastern Canadian shore command in the Peace Reserve before the war he was called on active service June, 1940 and prior to enlistment was a road contractor. He served on loan with the Royal Navy for sometime taking part in the siege of Tobruk, receiving his citations while with the R.N. He has more than three years sea-time to his credit. His wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. MacMillan, live in Charlottetown.

News of the sudden death in Summerside yesterday afternoon of Mrs. John Driscoll came as a shock to a large circle of friends. She suffered a stroke about three o'clock and died shortly after without regaining consciousness. Up to yesterday she had been in good health and yesterday morning carried out her usual household duties.

Her death is a great loss to the family. Her husband, Mr. E.C. Dodge, who had lived with her, died less than a month ago.

The late Mrs. Driscoll was the former Margaret Dawson, daughter of the late Henry Dawson and Elizabeth Dawson, who lived in Summerside. Her husband predeceased her in 1932. They moved to Summerside about twenty years ago on his retirement. Previous to that Mrs. Driscoll had been a prominent farmer in Cape Traverse. There were no children.

She leaves to mourn two sisters, Miss Ida Dawson and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Summerside; also one brother, Edwin Dawson, of Charlottetown. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Roman Catholic Church at Seven Mile Bay.

Mrs. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

THURSDAY

ARRIVES OVERSEAS - Mr. Emanuel Arsenault, Summerside, has received a cable from his son, Captain Harold Arsenault, advising him of his safe arrival overseas.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS - Edwin Reiten farmer of Rolle Bay has been appointed temporary returning officer for Kings County on July 12th of last year and now has ten branches in operation throughout Canada. It will have from 12 to 13 billion dollars worth of surplus goods to dispose of, Mr. Carwell said, and this disposal must be made in such a way as not to disturb the internal economy of the country.

Because the Corporation is now functioning under an economy of scarcity it is very important that all saleable surplus be sold at existing market prices and within War-time Prices and Trade Board ceilings. The flow of funds must be well controlled so that in a transfer of industry from one owner to another, the least possible disturbance will be created.

The annual meeting of St. Elizabeth's Church was held in the church on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. P. O. Cahill presided and opened the meeting with prayer.

Another war veteran in the person of Sapper Vernon MacEwen of Charlottetown arrived home Tuesday night.

Sapper MacEwen enlisted in 1930 and served overseas in Italy, France and in France with the 8th Army.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James MacEwen, and has two children, Mrs. Edna MacEwen, who is in the Navy. His wife and family reside on Edward St.

The one hundred and eighty-sixth anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, Scotland's greatest poet, was fittingly celebrated last night in Charlottetown by the Burns Club in the Prince of Wales College Auditorium.

The entertainment stage directed by Mrs. Arthur Roper was under the direction of Mrs. K. S. Rogers. Mrs. Frances Holt, Traipor, and Mrs. E. J. Rogers were in charge of the major part of the credit for the concert being the outstanding success of the evening.

Mr. D.M. Gass was elected president of the Charlottetown Board of Trade at a dinner held in the Charlottetown last night. Other officers elected were: Mr. W. W. Hyndman, vice-president; W.L. Higgins, secretary-treasurer; Mr. J. A. Nicholson, secretary of the association; Messrs. J.A. Ainsworth, H.C. Bonaker, J.H. LeRoy, Col. G.S. Full, G.R. Keele (ret. Col.), K.S. Rogers, M.P. (ret. Colonel), and A.B. Outcliffe.

J.A. Clark, superintendent of the Electrical Firm, announced he had received a request from the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross to help in the matter of hospitalization for island returned men before the war.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

The annual meeting of the United Church of Canada was held in the Summerside United Church on Tuesday night, the first session beginning at 2 o'clock.

After quorum music nicely rendered by the organist, Miss Geldart, the meeting opened with the hymn, "Christ For the World". Miss Marie MacDougal then led the prayer.

FRIDAY

The deputy Minister of Veterans Affairs, Walter Wood, Ottawa will probably visit this Province shortly to discuss a request that a 50-bed pavilion be constructed in connection with the hospital in Charlottetown to care for veterans returning from overseas. The announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion last night. The president, Leo Bradley presided.

Lieut. Robert Cunningham MacMillan, D.S.C. and Bar, R.C.N.V. Charlottetown, P.E.I., who graduated recently from a Command course at an Eastern Canadian shore command in the Peace Reserve before the war he was called on active service June, 1940 and prior to enlistment was a road contractor. He served on loan with the Royal Navy for sometime taking part in the siege of Tobruk, receiving his citations while with the R.N. He has more than three years sea-time to his credit. His wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. MacMillan, live in Charlottetown.

News of the sudden death in Summerside yesterday afternoon of Mrs. John Driscoll came as a shock to a large circle of friends. She suffered a stroke about three o'clock and died shortly after without regaining consciousness. Up to yesterday she had been in good health and yesterday morning carried out her usual household duties.

Her death is a great loss to the family. Her husband, Mr. E.C. Dodge, who had lived with her, died less than a month ago.

The late Mrs. Driscoll was the former Margaret Dawson, daughter of the late Henry Dawson and Elizabeth Dawson, who lived in Summerside. Her husband predeceased her in 1932. They moved to Summerside about twenty years ago on his retirement. Previous to that Mrs. Driscoll had been a prominent farmer in Cape Traverse. There were no children.

She leaves to mourn two sisters, Miss Ida Dawson and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Summerside; also one brother, Edwin Dawson, of Charlottetown. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Roman Catholic Church at Seven Mile Bay.

Mrs. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

FRIDAY

The deputy Minister of Veterans Affairs, Walter Wood, Ottawa will probably visit this Province shortly to discuss a request that a 50-bed pavilion be constructed in connection with the hospital in Charlottetown to care for veterans returning from overseas. The announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion last night. The president, Leo Bradley presided.

Lieut. Robert Cunningham MacMillan, D.S.C. and Bar, R.C.N.V. Charlottetown, P.E.I., who graduated recently from a Command course at an Eastern Canadian shore command in the Peace Reserve before the war he was called on active service June, 1940 and prior to enlistment was a road contractor. He served on loan with the Royal Navy for sometime taking part in the siege of Tobruk, receiving his citations while with the R.N. He has more than three years sea-time to his credit. His wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. MacMillan, live in Charlottetown.

News of the sudden death in Summerside yesterday afternoon of Mrs. John Driscoll came as a shock to a large circle of friends. She suffered a stroke about three o'clock and died shortly after without regaining consciousness. Up to yesterday she had been in good health and yesterday morning carried out her usual household duties.

Her death is a great loss to the family. Her husband, Mr. E.C. Dodge, who had lived with her, died less than a month ago.

The late Mrs. Driscoll was the former Margaret Dawson, daughter of the late Henry Dawson and Elizabeth Dawson, who lived in Summerside. Her husband predeceased her in 1932. They moved to Summerside about twenty years ago on his retirement. Previous to that Mrs. Driscoll had been a prominent farmer in Cape Traverse. There were no children.

She leaves to mourn two sisters, Miss Ida Dawson and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Summerside; also one brother, Edwin Dawson, of Charlottetown. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Roman Catholic Church at Seven Mile Bay.

Mrs. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden; second vice-president, Mrs. William Clark, Brackley; recording secretary, Mr. W. W. Livingstone, Cornwall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, Summerside; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford; secretary of the Mission, Mr. D. J. Morrison, Summerside; secretary of the Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. A. Easton, New Waterford.

Mr. E. R. Woodside of Summerside was elected president of the United Church Presbytery at the annual meeting which concluded at Summerside yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, Summerside, succeeds Mrs. J. D. McFadden as president.

Other officers include: First vice-president, Mrs. J. D. McFadden