The Liberator is published in Paris by the Ponroy Company, and its publisher is Edward Hilton James, said to be a wealthy American lawyer, now travelling in Portugal. He is a nephew of Henry James, the novelist.

FURIOUS ALL-DAY BATTLE WITH RIFLES AND REVOLVERS NONE SURRENDER

LONDON, Jan. 3—The east end of the city today was the scene of a pitched battle between hundreds of police, two companies of Scots Greys, on one side and a group of Russian Anarchists on the other.

Three men who several days ago murdered two policemen were located in a brick residence.

The police ordered all the adjoining buildings vacated, threw a cordon around the suspected building, and endeavored to arrest the assassins, who with their friends were strongly barricaded in a brick structure.

A pitched battle ensued, lasting until late in the afternoon.

The Russians were armed with quick-firing guns and modern revolvers.

The Scots Greys poured volleys in and the battle waged desperately for hours.

Then loads of straw were set on fire in the endeavor to smother out the desperadoes but the flames ignited the woodwork, and soon the building was a seething mass of fire.

The Anarchists were forced from floor to floor and finally poured volleys into the police from the roof of the burning building.

The roof fell in and one man, evidently the sole survivor, made a dash into the crowd, shooting as he ran.

Seeing escape to be impossible, he rushed back into the burning structure.

Six bodies so far have been taken from the ruins.

Angellucci lays the blame on a "black hand" gang and believes it has mistaken him for someone else. He says he has not received any threatening letters and so far as he knows had no enemies.

MANY VOTES ON LOCAL OPTION

OTTAWA, Dec. 30—Throughout the whole extent of Ontario, from Essex county in the west, to Glenora county in the east to Essex county in the west, the final skirmishing is now on in what is regarded as one of the most important local option campaigns ever staged in the Province. On Monday next more than four score municipalities, such as Brampton, Guelph, Arranport, Perth, Smith's Falls, Napanee, Brace bridge, and Hantsville, will vote upon the question of local prohibition.

The temperance forces are thoroughly organized and have conducted an aggressive campaign. The elections will undoubtedly result in a considerable addition to the dry area of the Province.

There are 816 municipalities in Ontario at the present time with a total of 1,950 licenses. Four hundred and ten of these municipalities are now dry and 406 wet.

A striking feature of the campaign is the comparatively few attempts being made to repeal local option. Last year there were 111 municipalities in which repeal contests were possible, but in only twelve was the matter brought to a vote, and only two by-laws were repealed.

This year there are 128 municipalities in which local option by-laws have been in force for three years or more, and where repealed contests might be made in accordance with the law.

But of the entire 128 places only half a dozen have taken advantage of the privilege and will vote on the question of repeal.

MINDAR'S LINIMENT CURES CATARRH OF THE NOSE.

Owing to the rush of work caused by recent contest, it has been impossible to send out all Provincial renewal notices. It has been considered advisable to extend the date for advanced rates until January 21st 1911 to Prince Edward Island subscribers.

The enormous increase in the price of paper, wages, living also extremely high, necessitates a larger revenue to meet increasing expenses. In fact everything necessary to the production of a newspaper is advancing in price so rapidly that the management is unable to longer furnish the paper at present rates. The Guardian greatly regrets that it is compelled to take this step but it is necessary to do so to cover increasing expenses and believes that every subscriber will be quite in accord with this new move rather than see the paper issued with less news or at a loss. The increase in price will not take effect until after and will thus give all subscribers plenty of time to renew in advance at the old price. Beginning with January 1st, 1911 the price of Guardian will be as follows:—

Morning Guardian—By Carrier in Ch' Town... $3.00 per year Morning Guardian—By Mail to United States... 3.00 " " Morning Guardian—By Mail to Canada... 2.50 " " Rural Guardian—By Mail to United States... 2.00 " " Rural Guardian—By Mail to Canada... 1.50 " " Saturday Guardian (Weekly) by Mail... 1.00 " "

NOTICE—The above prices do not take effect until January 1st, 1911.

Yours very truly The Charlottetown Guardian

DEAD BODIES FOUND AFTER A QUARREL

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 31—For two weeks, while the dead bodies of his wife, Anna, and three-year-old daughter, Hermine, lay decomposing in an upstairs room, Herman Mickle ate and slept in a downstairs room in his home in Cedar avenue without suspecting that anything was wrong he told the police today.

He is being held pending an investigation. Mickle, who is a paroled workhouse prisoner, went to police court today to report to Probation officer Vining that he had just discovered the death of his wife and daughter.

Vining notified the police and a detective was dispatched with Mickle to his home. The detective found the bodies badly decomposed.

He took Mickle to police headquarters where the man said that he and his wife quarrelled two weeks ago because he kicked their collie dog and that he had not seen her or the child since. He said he supposed she had run away, until today, when odor issuing from her bedroom led him to investigate. He claimed that he found a bottle that had contained chloroform by her side.
