ABDUL HAMID'S CRUEL REIGN CLOSED IN DRAMATIC FASHION

Carried Off in the Darkness to Salonica. A Portion of His Harem Goes With Him. His Property Confiscated And He Must Stand Trial. Missionaries in Awful Peril at Hadjim. Threatened by Fanatical Moslems and Tribesmen.

LONDON, April 28—(Special)—Abdul Hamid's disastrous reign which opened with the Bulgarian atrocities, closes in most dramatic fashion with the massacres of Armenians in Anatolia. His disappearance as Sultan appears to cause few regrets abroad, but the course of Turkish affairs will be watched with great anxiety. The Young Turks acted boldly and swiftly, but not without the sanction of Sheik-Ul-Islam. Hence they have not inflamed the country's religious susceptibilities. The orthodoxy of the Young Turks, however, is regarded with considerable suspicion by large sections of strict Mohammedans, therefore it is too early to prophesy a quiet reign for Mehmed V. A despatch says the committee has seized all the Sultan's effects including jewels as well as his vast personal fortune. BELGRADE, April 28—(Special)—A despatch says that according to the news from Macedonia the ominous movement of Albanians is increasing in the district around Monastir. The Albanians demand the enforcement of the Sheriat. CONSTANTINOPLE, April 28—(Special)—Abdul Hamid left the capital last night for Salonica. He is accompanied by eleven women of his harem. He was conveyed quietly under cover of darkness from the Imperial Palace to the station in Stamboul. LONDON, April 28—(Special)—Halid Bey representative of the Young Turks declared today that Abdul Hamid would have to stand a trial. Sentence of execution is not probable, but he will be imprisoned. His property acquired illegally will be confiscated by the state. CONSTANTINOPLE, April 28—(Special)—A telegram received from Miss Rose Lambert, one of the American women missionaries in Hadjim, sets forth the danger surrounding Miss Lambert and her companions. The communication says: "The rising against the Christians of Hadjim began nine days ago. "The Government sent troops to suppress the fighting between Mohammedans and Christians, but the men were not strong enough to restore order. "Many are dead and wounded on both sides. "Desperados occupied the Armenian cloister five days ago and have been firing on the people without interruption since. "Armenian churches are now showing white flags, indicating no further resistance, yet shooting and plundering continues. "Many shops been plundered. Hadjim is almost entirely without food and animals are dying of starvation. "The provincial authorities have been appealed to send more troops out without result. "Christian refugees by thousands have massed in Hadjim and for eleven days the town has been threatened, by fanatical Mohammedan tribesmen whose camps completely encircle it."

FRENCH ADMIRAL TALKS OF SHIPS

Says Many Costly Ones Are Valueless and Arsenals Full of Tuberculosis.

BREST, April 28—(Special)—Admiral Adam declared to a committee of investigation that the reserve ships which cost enormous sums are valueless. Surgeon Schief stated the arsenals, was a hotbed of tuberculosis, four hundred deaths resulting from this disease among the men annually.

SENATOR ROSS ON SEAMANSHIP

Wants Canadian Mariners Better Instructed For Both Peace and War.

OTTAWA, April 28—(Special)—In the Senate Hon. G. W. Ross moved a resolution that "in the opinion of the Senate, Liberal provision should be made at once for the instruction of the Canadian mariners in seamanship and navigation with a view to the development of the shipping interest of Canada, and, if need be the protection of Canadian commerce in coastal waters and on the high seas."

TO FORM A CANADIAN CIVIL SERVANTS' ASS'N

ST. JOHN, April 27—The Civil Servants' Association of St. John, will send Hon. A. T. Dunn, collector of customs, to Ottawa, as a delegate to a meeting on Thursday at which representatives of the civil service all over Canada will attend. It is intended to form a Canadian association. Matters affecting the government employee will be taken up. Three hundred representatives are expected at the meeting.

REPORTS SAY FLORENCE KINRADE WILL YET APPEAR

TORONTO, April 28—There is a strong feeling that the Crown will take other steps to secure the presence of Florence Kinrade at the inquest on Thursday night without waiving for the decision of the Courts. A report from Hamilton says that the Pinkerton detectives searched the Kinrade residence to-day and found important evidence, corroborating something obtained in the South. Startling developments are expected at any moment, and an arrest may be made in the case.

BRITISH BUDGET COMING TODAY

Great Anxiety Over Probable Higher Duties. Many Are Insuring Against Increased Taxation on Tea, Sugar and Tobacco.

LONDON, April 28—(Special)—The trend of public opinion regarding the sources of increased revenues necessary to balance the budget is evidenced in the business done at Lloyd's. Enormous amounts of insurance are being taken against increasing the taxation on sugar and tea. Insurance against increasing taxation on tobacco, cigars and coal is being done on a lesser scale. The budget will be presented in the Commons tomorrow.

LIQUOR BARS BEING CLOSED

Great Progress in War Against the Saloon. Many Municipalities Dry.

TORONTO, April 28—(Special)—On May 1, twelve hundred bars will be closed in Ontario. In 1875 there were 4,793 bars and 1,307 liquor shops, while after May 1 there will be only 1,800 bars and 240 shops. There will be 834 municipalities where the sale of liquor is illegal and 473 in which licenses are granted.

ALBERTA GRAIN VIA THE PACIFIC

OTTAWA, April 27—The delegation representing the grain interests of Alberta saw the minister of trade and commerce today and urged that the government establish grain elevators at Vancouver, and otherwise promote the export of Alberta grain via the Pacific. Sir Richard Cartwright in reply said he fully recognized the great importance of the representations made and of doing everything possible to facilitate the opening of the Oriental markets as well as those of Europe.

FIRST GREAT NORTHERN ENGINE FOR THE FAIR

EVERETT, Wn., April 27—Locomotive No. 1, a small wood-burner, with an enormous bell-mouthed smoke-stack, which hauled the first train over what is now known as the Hill Railway system, has been brought to the shops here for an overhauling, preparatory to being taken to the Alaska-Yukon Pacific exposition, as a part of the railroad exhibit. The engine looks like a mere toy beside No. 1908, the ponderous mogul and the electric locomotive which will also form parts of the exhibit.

A STREET RAILWAY FIGHT IN WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, April 27—The street railway employees yesterday notified the company that they had applied to the government, through the Department of Labor, for a board of conciliation to try and effect a settlement of the dispute between the company and the employees. No appointment of a representative who will act on the board on behalf of the men, has been made. The company, through General Manager Phillips, will issue an official statement tomorrow.

FIRES DESTROY COSTLY PLANTS

In Peabody, Mass. And Lockport, N. Y. Leather and Rubber Firms Suffer.

PEABODY, Mass., April 28—(Special)—Fire destroyed one of the large buildings connected with the leather manufacturing plant of the Clarke Company and caused much damage to the surrounding property, entailing a loss of $185,000. About 175 persons are thrown out of work. LOCKPORT, N. Y., April 28—(Special)—The great plant known as the Holly Manufacturing Company occupied by the Lockport Rubber Company suffers a loss to the rubber company, estimated at $150,000 and to the buildings $100,000.

NO GOOD-BYE KISS; SUICIDE

HAMMOND, Ind., April 26—Because she was denied a parting kiss when her husband left for his office in the morning, Lena Adelsperger, who had been married scarcely a month, shot and killed herself with her husband's revolver and today the disconsolate husband is accompanying his wife's body back to the home of her girlhood at Ludington, Michigan. A note the girl-wife left read: "Tell mamma good-bye, and if I ever did anything to hurt or worry her, I ask her forgiveness, for I tried so hard to do right, but I know it was a failure. Tom, I won't ask you to kiss me again when you don't want to. Good-bye, your tired girl. "LENA." "P. S.—Please, I would like to be buried in Ludington."

MUSICAL ABILITY OF CHARLOTTETONIAN

The following is taken from an Alberta paper. The Miss Collings referred to is Miss Hettie Collings, formerly of Charlottetown, where her musical ability is well known. The judges at the festival were from Winnipeg, Edmonton and Calgary. A choir from Macleod, under the leadership of G. H. Altman, went to Nanton on March 24th to take part in the musical festival held there by the Southern Alberta Musical Association. The choir and members were entered for six contests and were successful in winning four of them, bringing home four silver and three gold medals. The names of the successful competitors are: Mr. Beecher, bass solo, gold medal; Miss Collings, soprano solo, gold medal; Miss Gussie Gardiner, alto solo, gold medal; Messrs Matthews, Shanks and Misses Ruby Bruce and Gussie Gardiner, each a silver medal. The choir gave a splendid account of themselves and thought they did not bring back the Shield, their rendering of the two test pieces for refinement and finish was everything that could be desired.

WHO WILL NOT WANT A GUARDIAN OF MAY 22?

The Imperial Order—Daughters of the Empire—was not organized for nothing nor has it existed in vain. Indeed it has already done much good, and the latest move on the part of its members to raise all the funds they possibly can by becoming the Editors, Reporters, Contributors &c. of The Guardian for the issue of May 22 is arousing interest and sympathy in all quarters.
