A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.— A bad accident occurred at Sturgeon some days ago, when a little boy of five years, Ollie Charles Howard, son of Donald Jamieson, had his hand badly cut with an axe. His brother was cutting fire wood and the little fellow went to take up the wood, when the axe came down on his hand, cutting one finger completely off, and almost severing two others. Dr. McIntyre of Montague, dressed the hand. He thinks that he can save the two fingers, that were badly cut.

SUCCESSFUL P. E. I STUDENT. The results of the sessional examinations in the fourth year of the Faculty of Medicine at McGill have been posted. The fourth year prizeman is Mr. Robert H. Other Islanders who made a splendid showing were Mr. W. J. Keefe, Alberton, who comes fourth in aggregate honors—all subjects. J. W. McKenzie of Charlottetown, son of Mr. J. D. McKenzie and Mr. R. F. Seaman, son of Mr. J. D. Seaman, principal of Prince Street School. Their names appear as follows in the honor list: Chemical medicine,— McLauchlan and Keefe; Chemical surgery,— Keefe;) Pathology,— McLauchlan, Seaman; Obstetrics,— McLauchlan, Keefe; Therapeutics,— McLauchlan, Keefe; Medical Jurisprudence,— Seaman, McLauchlan; Hygiene,— McLauchlan, Keefe; Mental Diseases,— McLauchlan, Keefe; Oto-Laryngology,— McLauchlan, Keefe, McKenzie; Optholmology,— McLauchlan, Keefe. All four Islanders have passed in all subjects.

AT AFTON HALL.—At Afton Hall on Tuesday May 22nd a very pleasant evening was spent when the Devonshire Red Cross Society presented the great comedy drama "The Blundering Mr. Brown" to an interested and appreciative audience. This Society has only been organized in November and since then has certainly done its share in the noble work of the Red Cross. They have recently adopted a prisoner of Germany. The chair was occupied by Mr. Neil J. MacNeill of Fairview. The order was all that could be desired. Between the acts patriotic selections were rendered on the violin by Neil MacNevin, always a favourite with the audience. The difficult role of Mr. Brown was taken by Mr. Stewart Inman while the equally difficult roles of Mrs. Brown were taken by Mss E. B. Compton and Miss Clara Gallant the former, teacher of Nine Mile Creek school, the latter, teacher of Rice Point school. All the other actors acquited themselves very credlitably,in fact all acted like profesionals. When the entertainment was over a sale of ice-cream and candy was held and the snug sum of $77 was realized. After a vote of thanks was extended to the chairman, the meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem. Following is the program: Remarks by chairman. Chorus: Three cheers for the lads of the navy. Drama: entitled: "Blundering Mr. Brown' in three acts. Cast of characters Mr. Daniel Brown—Stewart Inman; Clara Brown (daughter Miss Clara Gallant; Bessie Brown (niece) Miss Anna R. McPhee; Mrs. Brown Miss E. B. Compton; Dr. Horton (physician); John MacDonald Jack Armstrong (clerk) Donald McDonald; Patrick Dolan (policeman) Garfield Taylor; Maggie Murphy (servant) Miss Margaret MacEachern. Chorus: Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and Smile, Smile Smile (encored.) Accompanist for the choruses Miss E. B. Compton.

RAILWAY MATTERS.— The paper on Railway Matters which Mr. G. A. Sharp, a former railway superintendent, came all the way from Sussex to deliver at a meeting in Charlottetown, was published in full in Friday's Patriot. While Mr. Sharp's observations would no doubt go unquestioned among Liberals, the paper, like many other public utterances, is more remarkable for what it does not contain than for any new light on the somewhat complex problem of running a railway. Few who know the history of Prince Edward Island or of the Prince Edward Island Railway will agree with Mr. Sharp that the prosperity of the province and the smoothness of the railway were marked features of Liberal administration and that these features were reversed under Conservative rule. Nor will they agree with his theory that deserved promotions of employees was characteristic of Liberal regime and the reverse under the Conservatives. Mr. Sharp's own memory will recall one or more official executions in the railway department on the accession of a Liberal Government, executions in which political considerations rather than mer it gave the impetus. The tribute to Sir Louis Davies and his lieutenants will be very generally concurred in although there may be some disappointment in the fact that Mr. J. J. Hughes is relegated to a second position. On the whole the paper, from a purely partizan viewpoint no doubt will meet the views of those who see eye to eye with Mr. Sharp, but as an illuminant on the future of the P.E. Island Railway, or even as an argument for handing its administration over to the Liberals, it is probable that it has already served its purpose, in giving his friends a pleasant evening with Mr. Sharp.

Sale of SILKS

Yard Wide Taffeta
8 Colors Regular 1.50
On Sale This Monday Morning $1.29

If you want some of this—we recommend your coming promptly. It is, we think, the best silk value we have been able to offer for more than two years.

The lot includes Black, Dark Navy, Light Navy, Copenhagen, Myrtle Green, Reseda, Old Rose, Seal Brown, Nigger Brown, as you observe, practically all the colours that you would be interested in.

The Fabric is a fine, rich, soft, taffeta, one of the most popular of all dress fabrics at this moment.

The value is really remarkable. As a matter of fact, we have in our shelves, silks, of no better quality, for which we are charging 1.80. And if we bought these goods in the regular way, we'd have to charge 1.80 at least, for these.

Now is there any more we can say to make the matter plainer?

Will you put your time against our statement, long enough to prove that the goods are just what you want?

LETTER OF SYMPATHY.

Mr. Alexander MacGuigan,

Dear Sir,—

On behalf of the Malpeque Branch of the W. P. A. I extend to you an expression of our sympathy in your sorrow.

As we receive the daily official reports from the war, and read the ever lengthening list of the death of Canadian Heroes, our hearts are stirred within us, but co-mingled with the sadness is a thrill of pride that our soldier boys have been counted worthy to suffer for the Empire and we rejoice that their self sacrificing deeds will go down on history's page as the bulwark of our freedom.

While no compensation can be made to you for the free will offering of four of your sons in this great conflict, and the loss you have sustained in the death of one of them, yet we feel we cannot but express our sympathy and we trust that their ready response to duty may lead us to nobler ideals of life.

Yours sincerely,
JANIE MacNUTT,
Secretary.

Malpeque,
May 18, 1917.
