GERMAN TALK OF PEACE PROPOSALS

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—(Via London, Nov. 15 delayed.)—The opening of peace negotiations may perhaps be expected with fair prospects of success in the course of the coming winter, according to Count Albert Apponyi, veteran Hungarian leader and former Hungarian Premier. Count Apponyi, who is visiting Germany to deliver two addresses on Hungarian history, expressed his views in an interview given to a correspondent of the Associated Press, in which he discussed the general European situation.

"We cannot expect," he said, "to see peace negotiations opened within the next few weeks, while the Roumanian campaign is still undecided. However, I regard our chances for success there as excellent, and once Roumania is crushed I think both sides will be willing to consider the question of peace. Roumania was the entente last card, and is proving a losing one. We are massing a big army against the Roumanians, and I think that the need will come shortly. Of course our progress on the Transylvanian front is a bit slow owing to the great difficulties of the country and particularly to the deficiency in rearward communications. These communications are far poorer than in the west or even in Galicia and Russia. However, the entry of Roumania into the war has in many respects been really advantageous to us."

To illustrate what he regards as the improving changes for peace negotiations Count Apponyi referred to recent speeches of statesmen in the opposing camps.

"Not Lloyd-George, of course," he interjected parenthetically, "but such as Lord Grey and Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, for example."

He suggested a comparison between the utterances of these leaders a year ago and at present.

"The," he said, "their respective standpoints were as far apart as the Poles but now, although there are still wide differences between them, they have most appreciably drawn nearer."

"The references to crushing Germany have been eliminated from the British pronouncements, and the agitation for annexation is dwindling in Germany."

"Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg," he went on "has pointed out in his latest speech that he has never demanded the annexation of Belgium. Such instances as these show, in my opinion, that there are now no really insuperable obstacles to the opening of a discussion on future peace. Of course, the Kingdom of Poland must stand but I believe Russia can be brought to reconcile herself to this situation."

THE AMOUNT YOU SPEND

is not what counts; it's the value you get for your money—particularly in medicine. Ordinary ointments, for instance, are composed largely of cheap animal fats, with very little medicinal ingredients. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, is all medicine. Zam-Buk's healing power is, thus, so superior to that of other ointments, that it cures when ordinary ointments and more expensive treatments fail.

Madame A. Laviviere, of 671 Rodman St., Fall River, Mass., writes: "For three years I suffered terribly with eczema. I used numerous ointments, without results, and the various doctors who gave me treatment acknowledged that the case was beyond them. Finally, I went to a specialist, but although I paid him a large fee, I received no benefit. Then I heard of Zam-Buk and commenced using it, in conjunction with Zam-Buk Soap. I shall never forget the relief it gave me. It ended the irritation and burning sensation, drew out the inflammation and soreness, and perseverance resulted in a complete and permanent cure. I am convinced that Zam-Buk is the only treatment for eczema."

Zam-Buk is just as good for ulcers, abscesses, old wounds, running sores, blood-poisoning, ring-worm, pimples, boils, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

mits an overwhelming defeat by a portion of the German High Seas Fleet in the first great naval engagement of the war.

The London representative of the International News Service was asked to produce copies of his cables on the subject, and the cables themselves were inspected. It was found that the passage above quoted was not contained in any of them.

"A Greivous Error"

The matter was brought to the notice of the manager of the International News Service in New York who explained that as in the former case, the matter had been written partly by the International News Service in New York and partly by the New York American. In this case the word "overwhelming" was the contribution made by the "New York American." The manager cabled, "Our man made a greivous error," and added: "I have again cautioned our people not to insert any exartnetous statements in your despatches, I will see that this is obeyed."
