ROUND TRIP DISTANCE.

A bright eyed old man boarded the train at St. Paul, bound for Seattle. As the conductor passed through the car the old man stopped him and asked how far it was from St. Paul to Seattle.
"Sixteen hundred and twenty miles," the official answered curtly.
The next time the conductor came along the old man stopped him again and asked him how far it was from Seattle to St. Paul.
"See here, my man," said the conductor pompously, "it's sixteen hundred and twenty miles from St. Paul to Seattle, and its sixteen hundred and twenty miles from Seattle to St. Paul, do you understand?"
"Maybe so," said the little man modestly, "I didn't know. You see, it's only seven days from Christmas to New Year's, but it's a long time from New Year's to Christmas."—Houston Post.

COMPARATIVE VIRTUE.

"Alas!" confessed the penitent man, "in a moment of weakness I stole a carload of brass fittings."
"In a moment of weakness," exclaimed the judge, "Goodness, man! what would you have taken if you had yielded in a moment when you felt strong?"—Boston Globe.

WOULD VERY OFTEN FAINT AWAY.

Doctor Said That Sometimes He Would Never Come Out of One.

Many people may be unaware of having anything wrong with their heart till some little excitement, overwork, or confinement in an overheated or overcrowded room or public building makes them feel faint or dizzy.

If you neglect the warning the slight feeling of dizziness gives you, and fail to take treatment, there will be a gradual progression to something more serious. There is no reason you should wait till your case becomes desperate before you avail yourself of a perfect cure by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mr. F. S. Chute, Wheatley, Ont. writes:—"It is with gratitude I tell how your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills benefited me. I was very weak and run down, and had headaches, nearly every day and would very often faint away."

In fact, my doctor said that sometime I would never come out of one of them. After taking three boxes of your pills I am glad to relate that it has been a number of years since I have had a fainting spell and scarcely have a headache. Too much cannot be said in praise of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for in me they have effected a perfect cure."

The Sauce that made the Factory

the usual way, the porters were banging it about, while the owners mournfully looked on.
Suddenly the station-master appeared, and, approaching one of the most vigorous baggage-bashing porters, shouted in stern tones:
"Here! What do you mean by throwing those trunks about like that?"
The passengers pinched themselves to make sure they were not dreaming, but they returned to earth when the official added:
"Can't you see you're making big dents in the concrete platform?"—Answers.

SIREN SPRING.

A story is told of a man who was walking beside a railway line with a friend who was very hard of hearing. A train was approaching, and as it rounded the curve the whistle gave one of those ear-deafening shrieks which seem to pierce high heaven.
A smile broke over the deaf man's face.
"Man," said he, "that's the first robin I've heard this spring!"—Human Life.

BRILLIANTS.

If folks would be beloved, they lovable must be. —Goethe.

"Careful with me," is good advice we know.

Careful with words is ten times doubly so.

Under the snowdrift the blossoms are sleeping.
Dreaming their dreams of sunshine and June,
Down in the hush of their quiet they're keeping;

This Home-Made Cough Syrup will Surprise You

Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly. A Family Supply at Small Cost.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough instantly and will usually cure the most stubborn case in 24 hours. This recipe makes sixteen ounces—a family supply. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16 oz. bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating asthma, bronchitis, and other throat troubles, sore lungs, etc. There is nothing better. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaicol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

What one user says---

My patented pressure valve is giving perfect satisfaction to every user. It is easier installed, gives better results and is more economical than any other system.

Read what Mr. Prowse says:—
Answering your inquiry regarding the performance of the Hot Water pressure system lately installed by you in the Arena Rink, may say that it is giving every satisfaction, replacing five stoves, and as nearly as we can calculate using no more coal than was used by two of them, besides giving us very much less trouble and much less risk of firing the building. MAKING THE BEST OF LIFE.

All windows look south in Saffny-Heart Row.—Frederick Langbridge.
To one born to sing, every happening is an inspiration.—Elizabeth Gibson.

We may make the best of life, or we may make the worst of it and it depends very much upon ourselves whether we extract joy or misery from it.—Smiles.

Few of us use to the full the resources of happiness that are available. Happiness depends upon the treatment of what we have, and not of what we have not.—E. J. Hardy.

The chronic mood of looking longingly at what we have not, or thankfully at what we have, realizes two very different types of character. And we certainly can encourage the one or the other.—Lucy C. Smith.

REASSURING THE DOG.

A railroad eating-house in southern Georgia, which enjoys the reputation of being one of the worst places of its kind in the state, has an ancient darky who announces dinner to the incoming passengers by ringing a huge bell.

One day the old negro was accompanied by a sad-eyed, long-eared hound, who at the first ringing of the bell lifted up his voice in a most dismal howl.

The old darky stopped and gazed at him for a moment, and with a "Hush yer mouth!" started ringing again.

Again the old hound, with nose in the air, sent forth a long-drawn howl.

"This was too much for the bell-ringer, and, turning on the hound, he remarked:
"Now, what in de world is you makin' sech a fuss about? You don't have ter eat here less'n yer wants ter."—Harper's.
