Johnny Dundee Or Benny Leonard?

By HENRY L. FARREL
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Johnny Dundee waited for thirteen years for the chance to win the world's featherweight championship and he has been waiting six years for a good crack at the lightweight title.

His patience and perseverance in holding out so long against what looked like a mighty slim chance of a shot at the crown held so long by Johnny Kilbane were rewarded, and it remains to be told on Sept. 5th, if his vigil at the heels of Benny Leonard is to have the same good results.

Dundee and Leonard are going to fight fifteen rounds to a decision in the Yankee stadium for the lightweight championship of the world.

The great little Italian fighter has been in the ring eight times against the lightweight champion but this is the first time Leonard will risk his title on a decision, and it is also the first time that the champion will have to make weight for Dundee.

Leonard must make 135 pounds at 2 o'clock on September fifth and he must accept the decision of two judges and the referee if he does not succeed in stopping the featherweight champion within forty-five minutes of actual fighting.

It is a hard fight to figure, because there are so many factors that might influence the game of the two champions.

Leonard is a great boxer. After the exhibition of brains and skill he gave against Lew Tendler in their recent fight many oldtimers expressed the opinion that he was the greatest fighting machine of all times among the lightweights. Leonard can hit with both hands he is a superb boxer and most crafty ring general.

Game and rugged as he is Dundee can hardly stand up under the punishment that Leonard gave Tendler. Only the stoutest heart and the most rugged constitution that are represented in Tendler could have withstood the beating the champion gave his foremost contender that might not so many weeks ago in the Polo Grounds. Tendler however had to take the punishment. He was not smart enough or clever enough to get out of the way of the barrage of gloves that Leonard dropped on him—but Dundee is clever enough and smart enough to do it.

Dundee has been knocked out once in his career by Willie Jackson. Dundee always claims it was a fluke loss on a lucky punch and he made his point strong by beating Jackson in numerous subsequent encounters.

Just as Leonard showed himself a master against Tendler, Dundee demonstrated superb qualities as a fighter when he won the featherweight championship from Eugene Criqui by giving the Frenchman one of the worst beatings that a fighter ever took in an American ring.

Dundee's punching power has always been regarded lightly by the experts because so few of his victories have been won by knockouts and in comparing the two fighters that meet tomorrow night it might be judged that Leonard will have the advantage because of a superlative kick in his fists.

Dundee did not knock out Criqui because he thought it wise to win by the sure way of a decision and not take the risk of a wild swing from the right hand of a desperate opponent which would have brought him down had it landed.

Leonard did not knock out Tendler. Some said he didn't want to and that he carried the Philadelphian southpaw over several rough places. Others said that he couldn't stop his opponent because he lost his punch in making the weight.

After considering all the complicated angles, it looks like a probability that the fight will go the limit with the issue of seven that a draw might result. Certainly a victory on points by either one would not be a tremendous upset.

Dundee hardly can hope to knock out Leonard because he will have difficulty in landing clean punches on the champion and it is doubtful if he could keep Leonard down even after landing a couple right on the button.

Facing a most clever fast and brainy fighter as Dundee is Leonard also will have difficulty in finding vital spots on an opponent who bounces and jumps around the ring like an acrobat. Dundee can go fifteen rounds just as fast and perhaps at a more lively clip than the champion and he will not be so foolish as to allow Leonard to dictate the kind of a fight he wants to make as the lightweight champion did against Tendler.

Both ought to be in superb condition. Both are just a few weeks out of the greatest fights of their careers and they should have no trouble in getting back on edge.

There is the only point—can Leonard make the weight and is he real good at the lightweight limit?

Despite the stories that Leonard weighed 142 pounds and Tendler 140 pounds when they met the boxing commission said that they both made the weight.

No newspapermen were admitted to see the boxers on the scales but they will be this time and the question of Leonard's weight should be settled forever.

SALE RING CHANGES

By W. H. GOCHER.

The wand of chance which waves over the sale ring is aptly illustrated by the summary of the three year old trot which was decided at Goshen, N. Y., a few weeks ago. Trampet, a winner of the race in world record time, was purchased as a yearling at a New York sale, for $335. Sybil Frisco, the filly which finished second to him, was sold on the same day for $9,000.

During the Grand Circuit meeting at Hartford Labor Day week Trampet will start over the mile crack against Hollyrod Leonard, winner of the Matron Stake at Toledo and which was recently sold for $15,000. It will be interesting to see what the $335 colt will do in a race with the one which defeated James Rovere, Thompson Dillon and The Senator.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Wednesday evening, August 22, the Methodists of the Murray Harbor Circuit met at the Parsonage to tender an address and presentation to the Rev. Mr. Howard and Mrs. Howard, who have occupied the Methodist Parsonage for some two years. After some time spent in Social Conversation and with music on the piano by Miss Lucy Lumsden accompanied with the violin by Miss Minnie Lumsden and vocal music by E. J. Lumsden, several selections being rendered to the delight of the gathering as evidenced by the generous applause—the following address was read by Mr. Albert P. Prowse:

Dear Christian Friends.—We, on behalf of the Methodist church of Murray Harbor, have gathered here this afternoon for the purpose of showing our high appreciation of the services you have rendered our church and community while you have occupied the Parsonage as Pastor, and Christian helpers in every cause pertaining to our spiritual and social welfare.

The earnest and kindly Christian spirit you have always manifested in the welfare of our church, Sunday school, Women's Missionary Society and Young People's Society, we very highly esteem, and this will be a lasting remembrance, and we trust an example to us to emulate the many noble and Christian qualities that you have so cheerfully and faithfully shown while you have been amongst us.

As a small token of our love and esteem we ask you to accept these small gifts, not for their

5 Shaving Improvements for less time—greater comfort

Shaving has been made more comfortable, quicker. Not in just one way—but in five distinct ways!
We want you to know them—as millions of other men now do.
So we offer this test—at our expense.
Back of it is the 18 months' work we spent—the 130 experiments we made—in perfecting Palmolive Shaving Cream for you.
But note the results:

It multiplies 250 times in richest lather. It softens the meanest beard in one minute, without "rubbing in."
The lather will last 10 minutes—moist, effective—if necessary.
The bubbles are extra strong—holding each hair erect to meet the blade.
Your face is left cooled and soothed, comfortable, by the careful blend of palm and olive oils.

That's the kind of a shave you want, isn't it? Make us prove that we have made it possible. You can't lose on this offer.
Post the coupon. Get your first 10 shaves free. Do it today.
