

OUR BIRTHDAY FOR BRADLEY AND GIBBERDS

MONDAY
SOCIAL GATHERING—The Baptist church was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy White on Tuesday evening. This evening passed pleasantly in games and contests and the young people enjoyed every minute of the time. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening came to a close.

LEARN OF UNCLE'S DEATH—Mr. Blair Andrew of New Glasgow, P.E.I., has received the sad news of the death of his uncle, Mr. Adam Andrew in San Francisco, California, on April 10. The late Mr. Andrew was a former resident of this province. He had lived in the west for many years, however. His many friends and relatives will regret to learn of his passing.

LADY OVER EIGHTY YEARS YOUNG DOES HER BIT—A remarkable example of thrift and industry is set by Mrs. Albert James Boyles of Conway who each year grows fruit and vegetables in her garden and when they are harvested this old lady over eighty eats the vegetables and preserves the fruit with her own hands. The Prince County Hospital has for some years past received a bountiful supply from Mrs. Boyles' storehouse. Needless to say her gifts are very much appreciated by the hospital staff and patients.

TAKE UP RESIDENCE AT LEGION HOME—Mrs. Roland Phillipson has been appointed to take charge of the new quarters of the Legion Home of the Summerside Branch of the Legion. Mrs. Phillipson moved in last week. After the home was ready for occupancy and some minor changes made it will be open for the use of the Legion and those on active service. The new home which was formerly the residence of the late Dr. and Mrs. MacLellan was lately acquired by the Legion and is in a very desirable part of the town.

The paved road between here and Montague in Kings County, a distance of 30 miles, was opened to motor traffic Saturday. L. B. MacMillan, Deputy Minister of Public Works and Highways announced the week-end a department of highways snow plow reached the eastern town and made a start on Saturday. The road had been closed to motor traffic since January.

Now the plow is working on the St. Peter's Road between here and Souris, a distance of 50 miles. The first ten miles, from Charlottetown to Dunstonsville are expected to give the most trouble. Beyond there the dirt is not so deep it was learned. Meanwhile, no attempt has been made between here and Montague. Mr. MacMillan said. If warm weather continues a plow will begin on that section shortly, however.

SELICK—The death occurred on Good Friday morning of Mrs. Adelaide Selick after a brief illness. Mrs. Selick was 67 years of age and had resided here for many years with her daughter, Mrs. Earle Hickey on Harvard Street, Summerside. Mrs. Selick was formerly Miss Reeves and during her married life had resided in West Devon where she will be kindly remembered by her many friends there. Her husband passed away some years ago. There are left two young daughters, Violet, Mrs. Earle Hickey with whom she resided, and May, Mrs. James Beaton, West Devon; two sons, Preston, Summerside and John, Summerside; one brother, Preston Reeves resides at Muddy Creek. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Earle Hickey, Rev. L. E. G. Davies officiating. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

Many friends will regret to learn of the death yesterday of Mrs. John Nantles, 63, of Maplewood, near Kelly's Cross. She had been unwell for about a year and a half for the past month she was a kind, christian woman and her death will be felt keenly by both her family and by a host of friends. She was the widow of the late John Nantles, who was a member of the People's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Y. Phillips, James Millman, Charles MacIvor, Hammond Reeves, Herbert Bell and Fred Munkittrick.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral services for Mrs. Adelaide Selick were held on Sunday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earle Hickey, Rev. L. E. G. Davies officiating at the house and grave. Many friends and relatives attended and the many beautiful floral tributes were a beautiful tribute to the life in which the deceased was held. Hymns sung were "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Rock of Ages" and the service was held in the People's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Y. Phillips, James Millman, Charles MacIvor, Hammond Reeves, Herbert Bell and Fred Munkittrick.

ISLANDER DIES IN DAKOTA—Mrs. Warren Dimes, of London, received the news of the passing away on Feb. 25th at his home in Yankton, South Dakota, of her uncle, Mr. Daniel McQuarrie at the age of 84 years. He was one of a family of nine children of whom are left to mourn four sisters, Mrs. E. B. McIntyre, San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. J. C. Glavin, Rydewood, Washington Territory; Mrs. Ed. Anderson and Mrs. C. H. Vanderhulst, Yankton, S. D. He was predeceased by his wife, Mrs. Mary, and his children, David, Sonny, Iowa, and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Inman New Dominion and Mrs. Joseph Payne, Emerson, P. E. I. He was born in DeSable, P. E. I., a son of the late Donald McQuarrie who moved to Yankton in 1852. He will be kindly remembered by his many friends and acquaintances in this province who will regret to learn of his passing.

Mrs. P. S. Chandler, Fitzroy, St., has returned from a visit to Montreal and Boston.

Mr. Sted Green of Tryon arrived home by plane last week from Montreal after undergoing a successful operation at the Western Hospital.

FIRE ALARM—The firemen were called out shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning for a fire at the residence of Frank Hogan, 205 King Street. An overheated stovepipe caused the blaze which was extinguished before much damage was done.

W.K.S. TEACHER JOINS R.C.A.F.—Mrs. Ernest Johnson, of the West Kent school here, has resigned her position. It was learned yesterday that she has joined the Royal Canadian Air Force and expects to leave for active service early in May. Her successor has not been appointed.

FUNERAL AT KINGSTON—The funeral of the late Mrs. Roger Willis of Kingston was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence to the Kingston United Church. Services were conducted by the Rev. E. R. Woodside, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Todd. The pallbearers were John Y. Phillips, William Paul, Hammond Younger, John Gallant and George Beer. Interment was in the Kingston Cemetery.

VISITING HIS MOTHER—Professor W. L. Shaw of Saint John's, Newfoundland, is spending several days in Charlottetown here by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Daniel Shaw who had the misfortune to fracture her hip and is a patient in the Kings County Hospital.

Department of highways snow plows battled heavy snow drifts on the St. Peter's Road between here and Souris yesterday in an endeavour to open the road to motor traffic. It has been closed to wheeled traffic since January. Latest reports from the crews indicate that the road is now open to traffic. It is about eight miles out, but were encountering very heavy banks in the Marshfield-Dunstonsville area.

ACTING TEACHER APPOINTED—At a special meeting of the Board of School Trustees held yesterday afternoon leave of absence was given to Mr. Ernest D. Reid of the staff of West Kent School from the 30th inst. as he has enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force. Mr. Reid, formerly principal of Georgetown School, was appointed in his place.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY IS EXTENDED TO Mrs. and Mrs. Elmer Bernard on the sad loss of their little daughter, Dorothy, who died at the age of three on Thursday April 10. The remains were laid to rest in the Kensington People's Cemetery on Friday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Todd, officiated at the home and grave. Pallbearers were Messrs. Benjamin Champion, Elwood Dunning, Lynwood Thomas and William Toombs. Funeral arrangements were in the charge of Mr. Joseph L. Davidson.

Rev. W. O. Rhoads, pastor of the Kensington and Fredericton parishes, recently presented certificates to a number of his church members who attended the Bible School, held in Kensington last week. The certificates were presented to Dr. and Mrs. Ingham Jardine; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Walker; Mrs. (Rev.) W. O. Rhoads; Mrs. Lorne Dunning; Mrs. Belle Bruce; and Mrs. Annie Carr. Those conducting this study were: Rev. Lyall DeLor, New London, Rev. Wm. Verwoil, Summerside and Rev. W. O. Rhoads, Kensington.

Mr. William Mann had a narrow escape on Good Friday, when while crossing the sea to the rescue, his horse suddenly broke through. While trying to rescue the animal Mr. William Hamilton and Mr. Louis Rogers, who had rushed to the scene to assist in the rescue, broke through the ice and uncomfortably settled in the cold water along with the animal. Both however, escaped with their lives unscathed. Mr. Rogers was in a comfortable position by a number of eel fishermen, who were in the vicinity, suffering from nothing but a rather chilly dip in the ice water.

The closing meeting of the Women's Music Club, for the season 1940-41, was held last evening in the lounge of the Charlottetown Hotel.

Miss Brenda Gallant left yesterday morning for Ottawa where she has accepted a position in the Civil Service.

POSITION IN OTTAWA—Miss Eileen Wisner, Public Works Dept., left Tuesday morning to accept a position in the Civil Service, Ottawa. Before leaving Miss Wisner was presented with a purse and address to which she fittingly replied, Miss Wisner is a daughter of Mr. Mrs. John C. Wisner, Vernon River.

Mr. Lillian Arnott returned by plane to her home in Welland, Ontario on Monday evening. She is on the Island to attend the wedding of her niece, who was married in St. Mary's Church recently to Fitz. The bride was Miss M. M. Arnott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Paul, Hammond Younger, John Gallant and George Beer. Interment was in the Kingston Cemetery.

A Trans Canada Air Lines feeder service linking Charlottetown and Summerside with the main line service was held in the air yesterday shortly after noon. The flight was followed by a day and a half tie-up because of fog. The all-metal Lockheed Electra plane, piloted by Mr. Ernest D. Reid, landed at Charlottetown airport at 12:37 and took off a few minutes later inaugurating the service.

THURSDAY—Mrs. (Dr.) H. Johnson and her three children of Summerside are visiting Mrs. Johnson's parents, Captain and Mrs. Gillis of Montreal.

The sympathy of all is extended to Mrs. Peter Reeves and Mrs. George Leard in the death of their brother, Mr. H. Johnson, Toronto, Ontario, who passed away on January 8th. Mr. Farrar had been ill but a short time so that his death came as a great shock to all.

BAPTIST W. M. S. MEETING—The annual Easter public meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Charlottetown Baptist Church was held in the school room and was a most enjoyable function. Mrs. T. G. Ives, the president, presided. A large number of members and friends were present. Mrs. J. A. Clark while Mrs. MacLeod assisted by reading the Scripture lesson and Mrs. Fraser offered prayer. Miss Bernice Wood gave a delightful solo.

AIR STUDENT ILL—V. A. Rutherford of Vermilion Bay, Ontario, who is a member of the original class of the first graduation class from the service flying training school at Summerside, but who left this week for England, had one consolation. Defence Minister, Col. J. L. Ralston, stopped and spoke to him during his flight. Mr. Rutherford expressed his regret at his illness and at his inability to receive his wings with his fellow class members.

THE WINSOME YOUNG BRIDE who attended Bishop Strachan school in Toronto and Macdonald Hall, Guelph, Ont., looked exceedingly girlish in her lovely gown of Mother-of-Pearl satin made on gracefully simple lines with heart shaped neckline, long fitted sleeves and skirt falling in a long circular train. Her veil was of delicate illusion net with a coronet of pearl trimmed satin and she carried an exquisite bouquet of white roses and orchids. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage.
