We the officers and members of Union L. O. L., 1147, Union Corner, sincerely sympathize with Brother Harry Muttart in the sudden death of his dear mother who was called by God to exchange this life to be with the Lord. While we know that death is the lot of all and that sooner or later those who are dear to us will be taken from us the blow is none the less heavy when it comes. We trust you will look to the Lord for strength and when your journey here is ended may you meet in Heaven. James Ball, W. M.; W. B. Allen, Rec.-Sec.

An exchange, which evidently refers to a similar religious sect to the Go Preachers who have been operating in this province, says that about two years ago the emissaries of a new sect or religious organization appeared in P. E. Island and Nova Scotia, and about a year ago they began to spread their propaganda in this province. They were the subject of several newspaper despatches from Moncton, at which time they were holding forth at Lutz's Mountain. They were also preaching at New Canaan and at Grand Lake, where in some way or another they secured entrance into the Baptist church which was just then vacant. Rev. F. E. Bishop, one of the travelling evangelists of the Baptist Home Mission Board has just returned from Kings county and he says there are two women of the sect conducting a vigorous house to house mission at Smithdown about six miles east of Hampton. One of the practices of these people, it is said, is a condemnation of clergymen of all denominations.

Citizens of Charlottetown were painfully surprised yesterday evening on learning of the death of C. D. Rankin, druggist, who passed away at his home, Fitzroy St., about six o'clock.

The late Mr. Rankin had been ill for about a week and yesterday he grew weaker until the end came. He was in his fifty-eighth year and was unmarried.

The deceased was a man highly respected wherever known and in all circles of life, whether social or commercial, enjoyed a most enviable reputation of a man of honor and was universally regarded with the highest of esteem.

The deceased leaves to mourn his mother and one sister, Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, city, both of whom resided with the deceased.

The undersigned have forwarded the following letter of condolence to Brother William and Sister Rachel MacKenzie of Hartsville on the loss of their brother:

Dear Bro. and Sister:—Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, to send the Angel of Death to your family and take to Himself your brother, Duncan, resolved that we on behalf of the brothers and sisters of Highland Division, S. of T., wish to convey to you our heartfelt sympathy in this your hour of trial and affliction and we would assure you that none of us has been unmindful of your trouble. Our young friend has been taken away in the morning of life, upon the threshold of this world's opportunities, but we rejoice in the hope that God in His love and goodness has called him to the richest blessings of the world beyond.

Although your heart is filled with grief at the parting with a joy it is to know that you can meet again where there shall be no more separation and where all tears are wiped away.

We would allay your sorrow, but that task is beyond human power. We can only acknowledge that the bereavement is the will of God and in the far-away land to which your dear brother has gone his free this conflicting trials of his life. We pray the Heavenly Father to grant you help and strength in your sorrow and we would direct you for comfort to the loving Saviour who has said: "Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in Me."

Signed on behalf of Highland Division, Hartsville: Mary MacKay, Elizabeth MacKenzie, Bessie MacKenzie.

The undersigned have tendered the following letter of condolence to Brother Neil R. Macleod on the loss of his brother:

Dear Brother:—Again in the dispensation of Providence you have been called upon to mourn the loss of one dear to you by the ties of nature, your brother George. In this your hour of bereavement we, on behalf of the members of Highland Division, S. of T., desire to extend to you our sincere sympathy. We realize how inadequate human words are to assuage your sorrow in such a time, and would therefore direct you to the source of all comfort, "the Man of Sorrow who is acquainted with grief."

Your dear brother has been suddenly called away from this world's activities to a Higher Sphere, and his death teaches us that sooner or later we must cross "that bourne from which no traveller returns."

We feel confident that his memory will live after him and that his aspiration will lead him to the highest of life's arduous duties and run with patience their appointed race, looking unto Jesus for guidance and strength.

Although we cannot now understand the mysteries of God's workings, yet we acknowledge that He is carrying out His Divine plans and, when the veil is lifted from our eyes, we shall know that the sorrows which are so hard for us now to bear may be for our eternal welfare.

We would also take this opportunity of remembering your mother, whose heart has been saddened in recent years by so many breaks in the family chain.

Again assuring you of our deepest sympathy, we remain on behalf of the brothers and sisters of Highland Division, Hartsville: Mary MacKay, Elizabeth MacKenzie, Bessie MacKenzie.

NEW STRENGTH IN THE SPRING. Nature Needs Aid in Making New Health Giving Blood.

In the spring the system needs toning up. To be healthy and strong you must have new blood, just as the trees must have new sap to grow it, and without this new blood you will feel weak and languid—you may have twinges of rheumatism or the sharp stabbing pains of neuralgia. Often there are disfiguring pimples or eruptions on the skin. In other cases there is merely a feeling of tiredness and a variable appetite. Any of these are signs that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has lessened your vitality. What is needed to put you right is a tonic, and in all the world of medicine there is no tonic can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills actually make new, rich, red blood—your greatest need in the spring. This new blood drives out disease, clears the skin and makes weak, easily tired men, women and children, bright, active and strong. You can prove this by your neighbors for there is not a nook or corner in this great land where some weak, ailing man or woman has not been made well and strong by this great medicine.

Mr. H. Wilson, Stoneville, Man., says: "Some years ago I was run down, languid and depressed and felt as though I was only fitted for life's scrap heap. A friend who had great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills gave me a box. Before they were all used I felt some better, and thus encouraged got a further supply, and it was not many weeks until I was again enjoying my former good health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a boon to every weak person."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Passed peacefully away on March 19th, after a short illness, some with Christian resignation, Sarah, relict of the late Thomas Weatherbe, of Peter's Road, in the 64th year of her age. It seems but a dream, so short has been the time, since we last beheld the departed, engaged in the manifold duties which fell to her lot.

The writer can scarcely realize that we have parted with one, who lived so long in our midst, and filled so prominent a place in the affections of the people of this community. We feel sure that we voice the sentiments of her many acquaintances, when we say that the late Mrs. Weatherbe was a woman of high moral character and uprightness; straightforward, an upholder of right, kind, forgiving and social in her disposition. Hers was indeed an exemplary life, whose Christian graces came from an intimate knowledge of the "Sacred Word." Yet the declining years of the departed were partially clouded by bereavement. We will remember when the entire family, made the "Home" a centre of activity, and bent their energies to its development. But insidious disease, when we say that the late Mrs. Weatherbe, then the father was removed. Still the devoted mother, though grief-stricken strove and succeeded in the management of the depleted home. On the 13th of March last, the mother was again called upon to mourn the loss of her youngest daughter, to whom she ministered in her illness. Shortly after this she was herself prostrated upon a sick bed, from which despite, all that could be done, she never rallied. The tired, patient body found its rest. Her spirit ascended to be with God, and to greet the loved one, awaiting her coming. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Peter's Road. The funeral services were conducted by the Reverends Andrew Gray and Ewen Macleod, both of whom testified to the firm hope of a glorious rest, possessed by the deceased. One daughter survives, viz: Mrs. William Jackson of Peter's Road. The brothers and sisters are: Isaac Acorn of Mt. Vernon, William Acorn of Peter's Road and Joseph Acorn of Pietou, N. S. Mrs. John Bears of Brooklyn and Mrs. Daniel Campbell of Peter's Road. The remains accompanied by a large concourse of friends and relatives was interred in the new cemetery at Murray River. To the bereaved daughter and relatives the heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended. 'Mong pastures green he'll lead his flock. When living streams appear And God the Lord from every eye Shall wipe away every tear. —W. Special to The Guardian. NEW GLASGOW, April 5—Mrs. A. Pettis, an aged lady, formerly of Digby, committed suicide here this morning. She was found hanging by a strap to a door knob. ECZEMA WAS SPREADING. TILL D. D. D. CURED IT. This is a translation of a letter written in French, on April 16, 1910, by Mr. Dan Bineau, Cap Lumiere, N. B. "I had been suffering with eczema for about 6 months, and had consulted several doctors who did not do me any good. The disease was spreading and I was most uncomfortable. I thought I would go crazy. All my friends were telling me I would lose my hands unless I found the right treatment. One day I read the messenger about your D. D. D. treatment and asked for a sample. It did me so much good that I immediately ordered two large bottles. It took eight bottles together to cure me of the terrible disease. I shall never be without a bottle of D. D. D. in my home." The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most severe cases show that D. D. D. stands to-day as the absolutely reliable eczema cure. Write to-day for free trial bottle to the D. D. D. Laboratories, Dept. C, G., 49, Colborne St., Toronto. It will give you instant relief. B. A. Foster Central Drugstore.
