—READY FOR TOURISTS.—We are now happily able to offer the motor tourists good roads on most of the main thoroughfares of the Province. If we can assure him also of good comfortable quarters good food and friendly hospitality, he will come in ever increasing numbers to many places hitherto out of the beaten track of tourists travel and all will benefit from the business. P. E. Island should be counting her summer guests by the hundreds.

—READY FOR CELEBRATION.—The balance of the trophies, cups and medals and shields to be contested for during the coming big celebration of Confederation week at Summerside have now arrived and make a fine showing in the windows of Messrs Godkin Bros jewelry store on Water Street. With those on show at Messrs Morris & Allan's to which reference was recently made there are on inspection 17 handsome silver cups, 2 elaborate shields and 51 valuable medals to be contested for in the various sports. To say nothing of a fine porker to be shown greased and held later by someone with the proper grip and other side line prizes. Athletes whom we understand are training in all parts of the Province should have a good look at these displays the equal which has not been shown in the sporting and sportive history of the Province.

—CANTATA ENJOYED.—The Sacred Cantata held in the Presbyterian Church Summerside on Thursday evening under the capable direction of Mr. Frederick Keer proved a very successful and enjoyable event. Mr. W. E. Fletcher of Charlottetown was the organist for the occasion and his rendition of the various numbers gave great pleasure indeed to the music lovers of their town. The Cantata occupied about one hour in its rendition. Solo numbers were taken by Miss Jesse Sharp whose beautiful soprano voice was heard to great advantage and also by Mr. George Bowness whose splendid tenor voice was in great form. Mr. Albert Huestis tenor Mr. Ewen Hunter bass and Miss Eva Hunter contralto in the quartet number were much appreciated. Other numbers of the program were a delightful solo by Mrs. W. E. Fletcher of Charlottetown who is the possessor of a very pleasing voice also a solo by Mr. Bowness made quartette by Messrs Nicholson Forbes Huestis and Bowness, a mixed quartette by Messrs Huestis, Nicholson, Miss Sharp and Miss Hunter, two violin solos by Miss Pope accompanied by Professor Keer on the organ were among the best items of the evening. The two anthems by the choir were beautifully rendered and gave ample testimony to the excellent training under the direct-
