S.S. Picnic

Once again through the kindness of the Superintendent, Mr. Ira Auld, and Mrs. Auld, the Clyde River Presbyterian S. S., held their annual picnic on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 1st., on the lawn at the Auld home. There was a large gathering of children, parents and teachers and altho' festivities were temporarily halted by the rain and nail storm, activities were resumed when presently the skies cleared. A tempting supper was spread on the lawn the long table decorated prettily with bouquets of sweet peas from Mrs. Keith Dixon's garden. Quantities of delicious homemade ice cream voted "the best of all" quickly vanished. Races and other sports under the direction of Mr. Auld and Mr. Davis Ward, were heartily entered into by the contestants, the winners named by Mrs. Richard MacPhee and Mrs. George Dixon. Mrs. Spurgeon Livingsone was sec'y. and Miss Hazel MacLean presented the prizes. It was a delightful outing and Mr. and Mrs. Auld received many thanks for their kindness. Following is a list of the winners:

Running race 4—6 years (1) Alex MacPhee (2) Ethel Gillespie (3) Melbourne Gass.

Running race 7—9 years: (1) Bernice Gass (2) Roddie Matheson (3) Vivian MacFadyen.
