The following gives an idea of what Prohibition may yet do for Prince Edward Island. It is said that in Iceland, about half the size of Missouri, there is "no jail, no penitentiary, there is no court and only one policeman. Not a drop of alcoholic liquor is imported or made on the island. There is not an illiterate, and not a child ten years old unable to read."

On the evening of the 3rd a large number of friends assembled at the home of Arthur Wright, Westbury, New Dominion, to tender the family a farewell banquet before their departure for the West. The evening was spent pleasantly in music and games, after which all repaired to the dining-room, where a bountiful repast was provided. On behalf of the company, Rev. M. H. McIntosh read an address expressing regret at the departure of such esteemed friends and best wishes for their prosperity in the new land. This was accompanied by a dress suit case as a slight token of remembrance. Mr. Wright made a suitable reply; and mutual regrets were voiced by him and his friends, at the severing of the old home ties. After singing "Auld Lang Syne" the party dispersed, having spent an enjoyable evening.

VAN BERGEN'S story of Russia, by R. Van Bergen, M. A., Author of "The Story of Japan," "The Story of China," etc. has been received. Cloth, 12mo, 288 pages, with illustrations. Price, 65 cents. American Book Company, New York, Cincinnati, and Chicago. Recent events have drawn attention to Russia, a country of which but little is known here. This book presents in a simple yet sufficient manner the history of this vast, semi-barbaric land, commencing with the prehistoric Greek colonies established on the shores of the Black Sea, the narrative is carried down to the Peace of Portsmouth. From such a survey of the development of Russia, its government, and its policy, both internal and external the reader may secure a clear insight into the causes of the war with Japan, and the present unrest and revolutionary movements through the country. The book is well illustrated.

ON the evening of the 2nd May, in the home of J. R. After a varied program had been rendered, and refreshments partaken of Mr. McIntosh was presented with a gold ring from his friends, after which an enjoyable evening was brought to a close. Among those present were Joseph Hume, Angus MacEachern, Samuel MacEachern, Samuel Lamont, Heath MacLean, Hubert MacLean, Sam McDonald, Edward MacDougall, Allan Bishop, Maud Thomas, Mrs. Joseph Hume, Hannah Macdonald, K. Maud Macdonald, Maggie Nicholson, Florence Nicholson, Emily Hume, Sadie Hume, Sadie Gillis, Katie Gillis, Mary MacBeath, Lavina Inman, Mary Matheson, Mary C. CHIEF JOHN SARK of the Micmac Indian tribe of Prince Edward Island is something of a politician says The Wesleyan as he has gone west for the purpose of enlisting the sympathy of all Indian reservations in the Province of Quebec the various tribes. He has had a conference with Chief Two Axes of Caughnawaga and is going to the Two Mountains reserve and thence to Ottawa. His mission being somewhat official, Chief Sark is wearing the uniform of his rank in the Micmac tribe. He wears three medals, one from Louis XV., desiring to recognize the fidelity of his allies, the Micmacs, which has been handed down from father to son, another was from Lord Aberdeen at the time of the jubilee of Queen Victoria, and a third, likeness of the Pope, was given by Archbishop Bruchesi a few days ago.

MORE DEADLY THAN FAMINE. Neglected catarrh sooner or later causes consumption which destroys more human beings than famine and war combined. The way "Catarrhzone" cures catarrh is very simple: first, kills the germs that cause the irritation; then by soothing away the congestion and inflammation it cures the discharge, hawking and drooping in the throat. "I suffered so from headache and pain over the eyes. Catarrhzone relieved me at once and made a thorough cure." No other remedy cures like "Catarrhzone"—try it for your next cold.

The community of Clifton lost one of its oldest and most beloved members by the death of Richard Murray who passed away April 18th at the age of 80 years. He was born in Lot 49, his father being John Murray and moved to Clifton in 1870.

The annual sessional at home by Lady Davies, Ottawa, recently, was a very large affair. More than six hundred invitations had been issued and by the crowded rooms and the coming and going, one might almost imagine nearly every one had accepted. The hostess received in the drawing room and wore a hand-some gown of silver grey tulle with touches of black velvet.—Miss Alice Davies, in a nice blue crepe de chene, assisted her mother. Spring flowers in abundance decorated the long buffet in the dining room. Several girls looked after the guests. Sir Louis Davies was in constant demand.

Piles Cured

As Easily As A Cough; Painlessly, Quickly and Without Cutting.

Trial Package Mailed Free.

The agony and suffering in piles is so great, that if a surgical operation was a certain cure (which it isn't) and there was no other means of relief some persons might be willing to take the chance of blood poisoning or lockjaw.

But, now that the Pyramid Pile Cure has been discovered and has been proven to be a quick and certain means of relief and lasting cure, there is no excuse for risking your life.

Does Pyramid Pile Cure give immediate relief? Does it cure? Try it and prove it to yourself as thousands have done before you. Then go to your druggist and get a 50 cent box and complete the cure. The Pyramid Pile Cure will cure you and do it with a certainty and a rapidity that will astonish you.

Take, for example, the case of Mr. Benjamin Shaw, Postmaster of Brant. We quote his own words in his letter of Oct 31, 1905: "I was in great agony of mind and body. In the meantime, a gentleman told me of the virtue of your Pyramid remedy. I fortunately found it at a drug store, and by the next morning I did not feel that any operation was necessary, and in three days I was able to return home, and a complete cure was accomplished to my great satisfaction and the surprise of the physician."

For a trial package, send your name and address to the Pyramid Drug Co., 6018 Pyramid Building, Marshall, Michigan, and you will get a trial package by return mail. No marks.
