A Mothers Cares Destructive to Health

Anaemia, Bad Blood, Headaches, and Lassitude Very Common.

Mrs. Wilkinson's Letter Gives Advice That Every Mo Her Can Well Follow.

From her home in Newton where she resides with her large family, Mrs. Wilkinson writes: "For years I was pale, anaemic and lacking in vitality. I was a constant sufferer from indigestion, and the distress and pain it caused me, coupled with ever-increasing anaemia, made me weaker day by day. Constant headaches, specks before the eyes and attacks of dizziness made me feel as if life were not worth living. My constitution was completely undermined and the constant pallor and dullness in my eyes showed what a sick woman I was. I began to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills and the improvement, although slow, was sure.

"I gradually got back my strength and my appetite grew much stronger, and I enjoyed my meals thoroughly. I felt happier and more contented and the sickly pallor of my face was replaced by a bright rosy color, which proved that a strong medicine was at work. In a few months Dr. Hamilton's Pills brought me from a condition of deathly pallor to robust health."

You can obtain the same results by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills—beware of the substitutor that offers you anything except Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25¢ per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers or the Cattaraugus Company, Kingston, Ont.

CARD

To the Electors of Ward Three

Having been waited on by a deputation of citizens and presented with a numerous signed requisition asking me to become a candidate for the City Council, I feel it my duty to comply with the request.

I shall therefore be a candidate for Ward Three at the forthcoming Civic Election. Holding as I do strongly to the conviction that the right of electors to vote as they see fit, should not be interfered with, I shall do no personal canvassing. I may say I have no personal ends to serve. I have no promises to make. I believe in civic improvement consistent with true economy. I believe that taxation should be kept at a minimum consistent with the needs of the city. I believe in honest civic government, in short, if you see fit to elect me, I shall feel it my duty to use my energies in promoting the interests of the City, guided always by my best judgment and when possible by the well understood wishes of those whom I represent. Sincerely yours, E. D. STERN 1-24dmw101

HOW THEY APPEAL

Ready Retort Plays a Big Part in the Politician's Equipment.

Among the best known members of the House of Commons is W. B. Northrup, M.P., of Belleville, who has represented East Hastings at Ottawa for several terms. Always faultlessly attired, one would never think that the dapper M.P. was elected through the votes of farmers, for his constituency is largely rural, extending to the farthest point north in the large County of Hastings with its twenty-four townships. When he rises to address the House, he is off like a race-horse. Verbally he travels at times at the rate of two hundred words a minute or more, and the Hansard men are kept at top speed. It is no easy matter for even these expert stenographic writers to follow the whirlwind debater, who has been dubbed the "General Ben Butler of Canada's lawyers."

Butler was the most famous American attorney in his day for celerity of utterance, but Mr. Northrup would give him a close contest on the stump or before a jury. Mr. Northrup was speaking at a small village in his riding during the race of two hundred words a minute, and denouncing reciprocally in unmeasured terms, when a young interrupter at the back of the hall started to hiss. The candidate paid no attention, but on the succession of sibilant sounds being renewed with increased vigor, he paused and looking straight at the offender observed: "My friend, there are three things that hiss—a snake, a goose and a fool. Will you please stand a moment in order that the audience may judge which of the three you are?"

Col. Sam Hughes is also adept in homely images that appeal to the rustic mind. When he enters into the serious discussion of any problem he does not like to be interrupted and we betide the man who is flippant enough to break in with an irrelevant question. Some years ago the gallant soldier was addressing a crowded meeting in Lindsay, when a voice from the gallery was heard. Col. Hughes was condemning the military policy of the Laurier Administration, and the interrupter shouted "Rats." The speaker paid no heed at first, but when the meaningless term was hurled again, there was a pause—for the discussion was weighty and thoughtful. "My friend, I am here this evening loaded for bear and have not time to stop and skin a skunk," shouted the orator, and Lindsay went mad with delight.—Saturday Night.

SERMON EDITION Brooklyn Daily Eagle

51 00 Per Year (Postage Prepaid)

Contains Selected Current Sermons

All Denominations Represented

The best expressions of many of the ablest and most progressive minds. Combined, the sermons represent a great weekly homiletic review.

THE DAILY EAGLE SERMON EDITION

is read in every country on the globe. It is read by thousands who otherwise would not enjoy the advantages of such interesting religious matter. It offers means of extending the voice and influence of the American clergyman far beyond the limit of his own pulpit.

The Monday Sermon Edition offers opportunity for Bible and Gospel study unequalled by any other publication in America. Disappointment of church-going due to residence or business occupation overcome by reading the sermons and enjoying the religious thought.

Thousands of invalids are denied the consolation of the Gospel message. A great many of them will never be able to attend a Church. To those the Monday Sermon Edition brings a weekly Gospel message which they can obtain in no other way. What an ideal remembrance to send some one so afflicted. Do you know an invalid?

It is just as important to the preacher to keep abreast of his contemporaries as for a business man. He needs the stimulation and the inspiration that comes from the ideas of others.

Everyone who is identified in any way with religious work should be a regular subscriber of the Burn Caused Open Sore.

Zam-Buk Worked a Wonderful Cure. Sometimes a bad burn, a deep cut, or some similar mishap, sets up a more permanent injury, in the form of an open, discharging sore. In such cases Zam-Buk will be found of unequalled value. Mr. J. Nixon, of 901 William Ave., Winnipeg, a blacksmith at the C. P. R., shops, had his foot badly burned by some molten metal falling upon it. He says: "The burn was a very bad one, and after the first few days it left an open sore, which showed marked signs of blood-poisoning. It discharged freely and caused me terrible agony. For three weeks I suffered acutely and could get no ease. At last I obtained a preparation from the doctor, which seemed to stop the discharging and made me quite hopeful, but finally the wound became as bad as ever.

"I was then advised to use Zam-Buk, and from the first application the balm gave me relief. The inflammation was thoroughly checked, and the poisonous matter cleared away in a very short time after beginning with Zam-Buk. Healing then began, and in less than two weeks the wound was thoroughly cured."

One of the main lessons of this case lies right here—try Zam-Buk first for any injury, sore, skin disease or wound. Don't spend money and waste time in experiments. Zam-Buk is equally good for piles, blood-poisoning, festering wounds, chaps, scald sores, varicose ulcers, chilblains, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c., box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. You are warned against harmful substitutes and inferior preparations.

Expert Approval. "Did you manage to raise anything worth eating?" "I think so," replied the amateur gardener. "The cutworms and caterpillars all think well of it."—Washington Star.

Electors of Ward Five

Ladies and Gentlemen. Having been requested by a number of Electors to nominate as a Councilor for Ward Five at the forthcoming Election I beg to accept the invitation and I take this opportunity of soliciting the support of the Electors. If elected my aim will be to encourage the development of the City as a centre of trade thus providing more employment to our people.

CARD

To the Electors of Ward Four Ladies and Gentlemen:— At the request of a large number of electors of Ward Four, I have consented to be a candidate for City Councilor at the forth coming Civic Elections.

In thus publicly asking for your support, I promise, if elected, while paying due attention to the special needs of Ward Four to endeavor to promote the establishment of more industries in the city, to retain our capital and thus provide more work for our laborers and citizens; to so far as possible, reduce the cost of living, and to improve the conditions under which many of our people are housed; to inaugurate a better system for aiding those who may be in destitute circumstances, and a charge upon the City and its charities.

I shall also endeavor, so far as is consistent with our present revenue to improve the sanitary and hygienic condition of the city and to provide for the proper inspection of our food supply.

Yours Respectfully, D. McLAUCHAN.

"HAVE you Tuckett's Cigarettes?" "Yes, sir, what kind?"

"Club Virginias, please. May seem like a strange thing, but nearly all you tobacco men keep Tuckett's, and what's more, you never seem to offer substitutes for them."

"Is that so? Well, I guess 'twould be 'bout as much as our trade is worth. Customers as a rule know what they want, and ask for it by name. Personally, I know the Tuckett line is O.K. Handled it, in fact, ever since I went into business. They put real quality in their cigarettes, and I tell you there's nothing like quality after all to please people and make them steady customers."
