In company with McInnis and Hennessey he had called at several houses in the city and when they were about to enter a house at Reilly's Lane, off Pownall street, McInnis had caught him by the coat with both hands and told him to hand over his money, and then reached into his pocket and took what bills he had, Armstrong told the police. The two men were picked up by the police not long after the complaint was laid. They were not together when arrested. McInnis when searched is alleged to have had eight dollars in bills concealed in the folds of his neck tie.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

ST. JAMES KIRK
 "Seek Ye First the Kingdom of God," St. Matthew, Chap. VI verse 33, was the text around which the minister, the Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, built up a most inspiring sermon at St. James Presbyterian Church yesterday morning.

The anthem "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem"—Maunders, was presented by the Choir, Mrs. J. A. Lawson, taking the solo parts.

The evening service, was devoted to the young people, and the Kirk Company of Girl Guides and Brownies attended in uniform.

Dr. Legate read the 25th Chapter of St. Matthew from Dr. Moffatt's modern version of the New Testament, as a Scripture lesson.

The special young people's sermon was based on the text; "He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much", St. Luke XVI, verse 10.

The choir sang the anthem "There is a Blessed Home"—Marks. The soloists being Mrs. J. A. Lawson and Mrs. H. S. Henderson.

A beautiful array of flowers adorning the Communion Table commemorated the life and service of the late Rev. Daniel MacLean.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. H. L. Denton, at the Baptist Church yesterday morning took as his subject "The Man With the Sword," from the text Matthew 23:51.

At the evening service Mr. Denton preached the third of a series of four sermons on the thought of evangelism, his subject being "The When of Salvation." The evening anthem was Parker's "The Lord is My Light," Miss Pearl Burns, contralto, sang "He That Dwelleth in the Secret Place of the Most High," a beautiful interpretation.

The choir was under the direction of Miss Vera H. Malcolm Campbell, Mus. Bac., with Miss Helen Callbeck at the organ.

RECITAL AT ORPHANAGE—A recital by the pupils of Miss Rena Wood was held at the P.E.I. Orphanage at Mt. Herbert Friday evening and was very largely attended. The programme consisted of folk songs, dances and piano solos, all of which showed careful and painstaking instruction on the part of the teacher. Singing by groups of young boys and girls and solos which took up the first part of the programme, drew forth much favorable comment while the piano selections in the second part merited the round after round of applause. The programme concluded with folk songs which were gracefully executed. A number of the orphanage pupils were included in the programme. Pupils taking part included Jerry Robertson, Ernest Wood, Marky Rafuse, Florence Jenkins, Mary McLean, Betty Jenkins, Pauline McDonald, Edna Jenkins, Pauline Wood, Dorothy Andrew and Alex Robertson.
