BUTCHER'S APRON STYLE FOR SKIRT

LONDON, July 11—One of the prettiest skirts now worn in London has a sort of crossover effect with fringed ends. It made its way to England from Paris and its evolution is interesting.

One of the fashionable dressmakers on the Rue de la Paix was at her wit's end for ideas and she asked her principal assistant in charge of the designing department to bring her in something quite new in the fashioning of skirts.

R. tomorrow from Summerside. These officers are spoken of in the very highest terms and doubtless will receive the same support as has been accorded to their predecessors in Amherst. Amherst Ex.

The following clipping, taken from the Winsted Evening Citizen of June 24th, will be appreciated by the friends of H. H. Lord in this city. Mr. Lord is a son of Artemas and Mrs. Lord, Brighton.—"Having heard the papa talk about Lord in connection with the poor telephone service, Evelyn Miller, a bright little girl who is a member of the summer colony at Highland Lake, concluded her little prayer Wednesday night as follows: "Please, Lord, fix papa's telephone." The next day the telephone service was placed in good working order when a force of men under the direction of H. H. Lord, local manager of the Southern New England Telephone Co., laid a new cable wire across the lake. The irate father had often complained in the presence of his child because Lord didn't give him a good wire. The little girl thinks her prayer was answered, for she told her father that he ought to have prayed as she did."
