ANNUAL examination of Brookfield school took place on the 28th ult. in the presence of a large number of friends and visitors. The pupils showed by their ready answers and good discipline, careful and painstaking care on the part of their teacher. After examination the pupils gave several recitations which were greatly approved. Three prizes were presented for full marks in attendance during last half year, to Rosella Stewart, Helen McLean and Ethel Moore. The gentlemen present treated the whole school to candy. After complimentary, short addresses a very happy afternoon was brought to a close. Everyone was much pleased to learn that Miss McDonald will be teacher for another year.

A HAPPY event took place June 12th. At the residence of the bride's sister Mrs. J. F.
